

Saskatchewan Order of Merit

Nomination Form

Established in 1985, the Saskatchewan Order of Merit is a prestigious recognition of excellence, achievement and contributions to the social, cultural and economic well being of the province and its residents. The Order recognizes individuals who have made their mark in such areas as the arts, agriculture, business and industry, community leadership, the occupations or professions, public service, research, and volunteer service. It takes precedence over all other provincial honours and awards.

Eligibility: The Order is open for any Canadian citizen who is a current or former long-term resident of Saskatchewan. Posthumous nominations are accepted within one year of the date of death. Nominations are not accepted for elected members of Parliament or the Legislature or members of the judiciary who are still holding office. Any individual or group can submit nominations. The Saskatchewan Honours Advisory Council recommends recipients based entirely on the information submitted with the nomination. We ask that you not inform the nominee of his or her nomination.

To nominate: Please provide three to six letters from others in support of the nomination, explaining why your nominee is worthy of this honour. Other supporting material should be succinct and directly relevant to the nomination, and can include an expanded statement of your reasons for the nomination, and a biography of the nominee and/or a list of his or her achievements. Email, mail, courier, or submit in-person by November 30 to:
