

Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal

Nomination Form

Established in 2003, the Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal recognizes exemplary long service for individuals working in a direct capacity to protect people and/or property, and supervisory personnel in the public service sectors who ensure the safety, security and protection of Saskatchewan citizens. These individuals set high standards and strive for excellence in their duties so everyone in Saskatchewan can live safe and secure lives. The medal honours protective services providers and focuses attention on the efforts and work of police, fire and emergency professionals, and others working in the field of safety and security.

Eligibility: Nominees must be personnel of eligible organizations (see list at the end of the form). Nominees must have 25 years (300 months) of exemplary service in Saskatchewan with roles that include law enforcement powers, or work in safety services and professions whose work is directly related to the safety, security and protection of people and/or property.

To nominate: Only the heads of eligible organizations and their delegates may be nominators. Please submit this nomination form by email, mail, courier or in-person by March 31 to:
