

Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal

Nomination Form

In 1995, the Government of Saskatchewan established a decoration to recognize the volunteer sector on the occasion of the province's 90th anniversary: the Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal. Saskatchewan has the highest rate of volunteerism in Canada. Each volunteer reaches outside his or her personal activities to help others and make daily life in our province better for everyone. Formal recognition of volunteers is a way both of expressing the gratitude of the community and of presenting role models to the people of the province.

Eligibility: The honour is open for any Canadian citizen who is a current or former long-term resident of Saskatchewan. Nominations are not accepted for posthumous nominations, organizations, and elected members of Parliament or the Legislature or members of the judiciary who still hold office. Any individual or group may submit nominations. The Saskatchewan Honours Advisory Council recommends recipients based entirely on the information submitted with the nomination. We ask that you not inform the nominee of his or her nomination.

To nominate: Please provide three to six letters from others in support of the nomination explaining why your nominee is worthy of this honour. Other supporting material should be succinct and directly relevant to the nomination, and can include an expanded statement of your reasons for the nomination, a biography of the nominee, and a list of his or her achievements. Email, mail, courier, or submit in-person by October 31 to:
