

Fransaskois Flag Recognition Program

Nomination Form

Established in 2009, the Fransaskois Flag Recognition Program recognizes Francophone communities for their perseverance and pride in preserving their cultural heritage, as well as for their contributions to the province. Up to two communities will be awarded annually with an engraved commemorative plaque that is mounted on a monument and includes a flag pole and a Fransaskois flag.

Eligibility: To be considered for provincial recognition, a community must meet one or more of the following criteria:

- Francophones have played a key role in the history of the community;
- Francophone institutions (i.e., schools, community organizations, churches, etc.) have played a key role in the history of the community;
- The community has been home to events significant to the history of the Francophone community; and
- Francophones from the community have played a leadership role in the development or history of Saskatchewan's Francophone community.

Nominations of communities by individuals must be accompanied by a letter of support from the local municipal government.

For further details regarding the nomination process, please visit www.saskatchewan.ca/bonjour.

To nominate: Please provide up to three letters of support from others for the nomination, explaining why your nominated community is worthy of this award. Additional supporting material should be succinct and directly relevant to the nomination, and could include a biography of the community and/or a list of the community's achievements, for example (do not send original documents).

Email, mail, courier or submit in person by March 31 to:
