

Provincial Capital Commission Board

Laura Ross

Laura Ross was born and raised on the family farm near Yorkton and attended the University of Regina where she obtained a B.A. in geography. For more than twenty years Laura was a licensed realtor in Regina specializing in residential properties. Prior to her success as a realtor, she operated her own catering company and farmed with her husband Terry.

Laura was first elected as an MLA for the Regina Rochdale constituency in 2007 and was re-elected in 2011 and 2016. She was appointed Legislative Secretary to the Minister of Health, responsible for retention and recruitment of nurses, long-term care and the reduction of surgical wait times. She was also appointed a term as Minister of Government Services. She is currently serving terms on the Premier's Commendation Award, IAJ committee and she sits on the SaskBuilds, Red Tape Reduction and PCC Boards.

Laura is a founding member in the Saskatchewan Chapter of Equal Voice and serves as a role model and mentor to young women interested in professional and political lives. Laura also was instrumental in the development of Regina's first Habitat for Humanity Women's Build project in 2011 and she sat on a committee to spearhead the Habitat for Humanity Mountie House.

Laura is currently the Chair of the Canadian Women Parliamentarian's Committee. A national group of Women Parliamentarians that do ongoing outreach work in their jurisdictions. Through this initiative Laura has implemented a national non-partisan campaign school called She Should Run. On top of this initiative, she hosts the annual Girl Guide walk on the Day of Pink, The Self Esteem Workshop for girls and their mentors, Women in Politics group and Women on Boards group.

Laura currently resides in Regina with her husband Terry. They have one son.

