Selection of nominees

27.2(1) Subject to subsections (1.1) and (1.2) and the regulations, individuals and organizations may nominate persons to receive a provincial honour.

(1.1) Only those organizations designated in the regulations may nominate persons to receive the Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal.

(1.2) Only those organizations designated in the regulations may nominate persons to receive the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal (Saskatchewan).

(2) Nominations must be submitted to the secretary.

(3) The council shall submit to the President of the Executive Council, for his or her approval:

(a) lists of nominees selected from the nominations submitted pursuant to this section and the regulations; and

(b) the names of any nominees recommended pursuant to subsection 27.1(6) or (7) or the regulations.

(4) The President of the Executive Council shall recommend the nominees approved by him or her to the Lieutenant Governor for investiture with the order or to receive the Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal or another provincial honour.

(4.1) For the purpose of assisting the council or the President of the Executive Council in selecting the nominees for recommendation to receive the Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal, the President of the Executive Council may appoint an advisory committee or engage the services of or retain any technical, professional or other advisers, specialists or consultants that the President of the Executive Council considers necessary.

(5) The chancellor shall invest with the order those persons approved by the President of the Executive Council pursuant to subsection (4) as persons to who are to be invested with the order.

(6) The Lieutenant Governor shall present the Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal to those persons approved by the President of the Executive Council pursuant to subsection (4) as persons who are to receive the Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal.

(7) The Lieutenant Governor or the Lieutenant Governor's designate shall present the Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal, the Saskatchewan Centennial Medal, the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal (Saskatchewan) and any provincial honour established in the regulations to those persons approved by the President of the Executive Council pursuant to subsection (4) as persons who are to receive that provincial honour.

Revocation of medal

27.21(1) On the recommendation of the council, the President of the Executive Council may revoke any Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal, Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal, Saskatchewan Centennial Medal, Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal (Saskatchewan) or other provincial honour established in the regulations that is awarded pursuant to this Act.

(2) If a medal is revoked pursuant to subsection (1), the person to whom the medal was awarded shall immediately return to the secretary the medal, miniature medal, lapel pin and certificate that were presented to that person on the receipt of the award.

(3) On the recommendation of the council, the President of the Executive Council may reinstate any medal that has been revoked pursuant to subsection (1).

2003, c 9, s 6; 2023, c 18, s 8.

Offence and penalty

27.3(1) No person who is not a member of the order shall:

- (a) hold himself or herself out as a member of the order;
- (b) display or use any insignia of the order; or
- (c) use the initials of the order after his or her name.

(2) No person who has not received the Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal, the Saskatchewan Protective Services Medal, the Saskatchewan Centennial Medal, the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal (Saskatchewan) or a provincial honour established in the regulations, or whose medal has been revoked pursuant to subsection 27.21(1) and not reinstated, shall:

- (a) hold himself or herself out as a recipient of that medal; or
- (b) display or use any insignia of that medal.

(3) Any person who contravenes any provision of this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than $2,000.

1995, c 29, s 5; 2003, c 9, s 7.
