

Provincial Capital Commission Board

Derek Meyers

Derek Meyers was nominated on January 28, 2020, by local Saskatchewan Party members to represent the constituency of Regina Walsh Acres for the 2020 provincial election.

Derek began his career working in the southeast Saskatchewan oilfield eventually moving into the geological exploration and consulting field for a number of years before attending NAIT to study television broadcasting in 2005. After his studies, he spent nearly 10 years at Global Regina covering sports across the province of Saskatchewan. Derek is currently a small business owner in video production services.

Derek currently lives in Regina along with his 3 children Teigha, Dayn and Sebastian and his partner Laurie,