

Provincial Capital Commission Board

Mr. Mark Docherty

Mark is the MLA for the constituency of Regina Coronation Park, the area where he was born and spent his early life. First elected to the Saskatchewan legislature in 2011, he was re-elected in 2016 and 2020.

Mark has worked in many human service roles, including Director of Immigration Settlement, Supervisor for Health (Addictions) Community Care Branch, team leader at the Paul Dojack Youth Centre, Director of Dales House and Clinical Director for Leading Thunderbird Lodge.

He has earned three degrees, including a Bachelor of Science (FNUC), a Bachelor of Human Justice (U of R) and a Masters of Social Work (U of R). Mark's interest in education has also led him to teach several courses at the University of Regina and Saskpolytec (SIAST).

He has served on the board of the North Central Community Association, and currently serves on the Eden Care Communities Foundation board, and the Your Time Women's Empowerment Foundation.

Mark has also led a very physically active life representing Saskatchewan at the provincial and national levels in team handball, rugby, and lacrosse. He has competed in triathlons around the world and is a three-time finisher of the Hawaii Ironman Triathlon World Championships.

From 2018 to 2020, he served as Speaker of the Legislative Assembly. He also previously served as Saskatchewan's Minister of Parks, Culture and Sport, Minister responsible for the Provincial Capital Commission, Legislative Secretary for Immigration and Culture, and Legislative Secretary for Disability Issues. He is a former member of the Standing Committee on Human Services. Currently, he is the chair of the standing committee of Intergovernmental Affairs and Justice.
