 - (ii) have completed at least 40 hours of training in parenting coordination, including training in relation to each of the following:
 - (A) the role and responsibilities of a parenting coordinator, including screening parties for power imbalances and family violence;
 - (B) arbitration and decision-making;
 - (C) communication skills development;
 - (D) the effects of separation and divorce on parents and children;
 - (E) high-conflict family dynamics;
 - (F) child development and developmental needs;
 - (iii) have completed at least 14 hours of family law training if the person is not a lawyer;
 - (iv) have completed at least 14 hours of family violence training, including training in identifying, assessing and managing family violence and power dynamics in relation to family dispute resolution;
 - (v) each year complete at least 6 hours of continuing professional development applicable to family dispute resolution; and
 - (c) maintain professional liability insurance that provides coverage for the person's practice as a parenting coordinator.
- (2) Before entering into a parenting coordination agreement, the parenting coordinator must provide written confirmation to the parties to the dispute that the person is recognized by the minister as a parenting coordinator.
- (3) The following matters are prescribed for the purposes of clause 35(1)(a) of the Act as matters with respect to which a parenting coordinator may make determinations in accordance with the agreement between or order affecting the parties to the dispute:
- (a) a child's daily routine, including a child's schedule in relation to parenting time;
 - (b) the education of a child, including in relation to the child's special needs;
 - (c) the participation of a child in extracurricular activities and special events;
 - (d) the temporary care of a child by a person other than:
 - (i) the child's legal decision-maker; or
 - (ii) a person who has parenting time with respect to the child pursuant to an agreement or order;

- (e) the provision of medical, dental or other health care to a child;
 - (f) the discipline of a child;
 - (g) the transportation and exchange of a child for the purposes of exercising parenting time;
 - (h) a child's travel plans in relation to the exercise of parental responsibilities or parenting time with respect to the child;
 - (i) parenting time during vacations and special occasions;
 - (j) communication, including any form of electronic communication, between a parent and child when the child is not in the parent's care;
 - (k) any other matter relating to the exercise of parental responsibilities or parenting time that:
 - (i) is agreed to by the parties and the parenting coordinator; and
 - (ii) does not contravene clause 35(1)(c) of the Act.
- (4) The minister may suspend or revoke the recognition of a person as a parenting coordinator for the purposes of Part 4 of the Act if the minister is satisfied that:
- (a) the person:
 - (i) obtained the recognition through providing false or misleading information to the minister;
 - (ii) has contravened the Act or these regulations;
 - (iii) has breached a term or condition of the recognition; or
 - (iv) has ceased to meet the qualifications of a parenting coordinator; or
 - (b) the suspension or revocation is necessary in the public interest.
