4(1) An applicant who wishes to receive financial assistance pursuant to Part 3 shall:

- (a) apply to the minister for financial assistance in a form and manner satisfactory to the minister;

- (b) provide the minister with any information that the minister may reasonably require to:
    - (i) confirm the applicant's eligibility; and
    - (ii) determine whether the applicant's proposed project meets the purposes of Part 3;
  - (c) meet any eligibility criteria required by an applicable program established pursuant to section 4.01 of The Human Resources, Labour and Employment Act; and
  - (d) provide evidence satisfactory to the minister that:
    - (i) the applicant is capable of successfully carrying out the project for which financial assistance will be provided; and
    - (ii) it is in the public interest for the minister to approve the applicant's application for financial assistance.
- (2) In addition to the requirements set out in subsection (1), when applying for financial assistance pursuant to Part 3, an applicant shall do any or all of the following if applicable:
- (a) agree to any audit procedures that the minister requires before, during or after the proposed project;
  - (b) agree to comply with all applicable labour legislation, including maintaining coverage pursuant to The Workers' Compensation Act, 2013;
  - (c) agree to disclose any funding received or that may be received pursuant to another program of the Government of Saskatchewan, the Government of Canada or any other source with respect to the same project for which financial assistance is being applied for pursuant to these regulations, including a list of costs covered by the financial assistance received or that may be received pursuant to the other program;
  - (d) agree to proceed with the project only after the project is approved;
  - (e) agree to contribute to any fees, expenses and other eligible costs in the manner and amount required by the minister;
  - (f) provide the minister with informed consent from each participant for provision of personal information respecting that participant to the minister;
  - (g) provide the minister with informed consent from each participant for provision of personal health information to the minister for the purposes of clause 8(f) or (k).

Approval

5(1) On receipt of an application pursuant to section 4, the minister may:

- (a) approve the application; or

(b) subject to subsection (2), refuse to approve the application if the minister determines that it is appropriate to do so, including for the following reasons:

- (i) the applicant has not met the requirements set out in these regulations;
- (ii) the information provided by the applicant to the minister is incomplete, inaccurate or is not provided to the minister within the period specified by the minister;
- (iii) the applicant has not provided the minister with any required forms or records related to a previously approved project for which an agreement was signed;
- (iv) the applicant has not met any or all obligations to the Government of Saskatchewan pursuant to any Act or regulation.

(2) If the minister refuses to approve an application pursuant to clause (1)(b), the minister shall provide the applicant with written notice of the decision together with reasons.

Agreements

6(1) For the purposes of these regulations, the minister may enter into agreements with applicants.

(2) Following approval of an application pursuant to section 5, the applicant shall enter into an agreement with the minister with respect to the approved project.

(3) Every agreement between the minister and an applicant must:

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) be signed by the applicant and the minister;
- (c) set out the amounts, including any maximum limits, of the financial assistance to be paid to the applicant;
- (d) set out in detail the terms and conditions necessary for the payment of the financial assistance;
- (e) provide for a payment schedule, that may include advance or interim payments and that sets out the terms and conditions for the advance or interim payments;
- (f) provide for an on-site monitoring visit by a representative of the minister during the term of the agreement or a reasonable alternative as determined by the minister;
- (g) provide for the applicant to make any audited financial records and statements that may reasonably be required by the minister to be made available to the minister;
- (h) set out the details of the approved project to be completed or provided and any other details that may be required by the minister;
- (i) set out either or both the results and outcomes that the approved project is intended to achieve and provide for methods satisfactory to the minister of measuring the results and outcomes; and
- (j) contain any other terms and conditions that the minister may determine that are consistent with the purpose and intent of these regulations.

PART 3
Training, Supports and Employment Partnerships

Criteria for this Part

7 Subject to the other provisions of these regulations, the minister may provide financial assistance pursuant to this Part for the following purposes:

- (a) to improve or strengthen participants' employability including helping participants prepare for, attain or maintain employment or self-employment;
- (b) to assist employers with the development, recruitment or retention of workers.

Amount of financial assistance and eligible costs

8 The amount of financial assistance that the minister may pay to an applicant with respect to an approved project that is the subject of a written agreement is an amount equal to the amount that the minister considers necessary to cover the following costs:

- (b) any administrative costs;
- (c) any costs associated with facility and equipment rentals required for the approved project;
- (d) any costs associated with project development;
- (e) any costs respecting learning materials, including costs related to supplies, textbooks, software, equipment or any other required materials;
- (f) any costs associated with acquiring employment-related supports reasonably required by participants;
- (g) any costs associated with acquiring employer-related supports;
- (h) any costs associated with services provided to participants by persons other than those employed or engaged by the applicant;
- (i) any costs for insurance to cover the applicant and participants;
- (j) any costs to subsidize the wage or salary of participants;
- (k) any costs incurred by the participant for dependent care, disability needs, transportation and other special needs;
- (l) any costs associated with travel, meals or accommodations reasonably required in delivering the approved project;
- (m) tuition fees, examination fees, mandatory student fees or fees charged by a training provider;
- (n) any costs associated with the delivery of outcomes mentioned in clause 6(3)(i);
- (o) any other costs similar to those mentioned in clauses (a) to (n) that the minister considers appropriate.

Liability insurance

9 Applicants who receive financial assistance pursuant to this Part must ensure that participants are covered by adequate liability insurance in the event of damage or injury as a result of participating in the approved project.

PART 4
Administration

Limits on financial assistance

10 Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, if the minister considers it appropriate, the minister may do either or both of the following:

- (a) limit funding in any area, region, sector or respecting any project initiative;
- (b) limit the total amount of financial assistance paid to any applicant or participant.

Payment

11(1) Subject to the other provisions of these regulations and the terms and conditions of the agreement, financial assistance is payable when the minister is satisfied that the applicant has complied with all of the requirements of these regulations and the agreement.

(2) The minister may withhold any payments if the applicant has not complied with the requirements set out in these regulations or the agreement.

Overpayment

12(1) If an applicant contravenes any provision of these regulations or the agreement, the minister may declare that any payments received by the applicant pursuant to these regulations are overpayments.

(2) Any overpayment made to an applicant is a debt due to the Crown and may be recovered in any manner authorized by law.

Section 46

Order in Council 169/2021, dated March 31, 2021

(Filed April 1, 2021)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Sask911 Fees Amendment Regulations, 2021.

RRS c S-34 Reg 5 amended

2 The Sask911 Fees Regulations, 2003 are amended in the manner set forth in these regulations.

Section 2 amended

3 Section 2 is amended by adding the following definitions in alphabetical order:

“consumer price index” means the annual average of the all-items Consumer Price Index for Saskatchewan for a calendar year, as released by Statistics Canada;

“fee period” means the period commencing on April 1 of one year and ending on March 31 of the following year”.

New section 3*4 Section 3 is repealed and the following substituted:*“Requirement to pay Sask911 fee

3(1) In this section, ‘adjusted Sask911 fee’ means the Sask911 fee set out in Table 1 of the Appendix with respect to the services specified in Table 1 as adjusted in accordance with subsections (3) to (6).

(2) Each month, every connected customer is required to pay the adjusted Sask911 fee.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the annual change in the consumer price index for a specified year is the value C calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$C = (\text{CPI}_1 \div \text{CPI}_2) - 1$$

where:

C is the annual change in the consumer price index;

$\text{CPI}_1$  is the consumer price index for the specified year; and $\text{CPI}_2$  is the consumer price index for the year preceding the specified year.

(4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), for the purposes of this section, the adjusted Sask911 fee for a fee period is the amount ASF calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{ASF} = (C \times \text{SF}) + \text{SF}$$

where:

ASF is the adjusted Sask911 fee for the fee period;

C is amount C calculated pursuant to subsection (3) for the year in which the fee period commenced; and

SF is the adjusted Sask911 fee for the previous fee period.

(5) The adjusted Sask911 fee calculated pursuant to subsection (4) is to be rounded to the nearest cent, and, if the annual change in the consumer price index is less than 0, the annual change is deemed to be 0.

(6) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, by order, declare that the adjusted Sask911 fee for a fee period is to remain the same as the adjusted Sask911 fee for the previous fee period.

(7) Every telecommunications service provider that provides services in Saskatchewan is required to charge its connected customers the adjusted Sask911 fees payable pursuant to subsection (2).

(8) A telecommunications service provider other than SaskTel must within 30 days after the end of each month for which services are provided to connected customers:

(a) remit to SaskTel Carrier Services Group all adjusted Sask911 fees required to be charged pursuant to subsection (2) for the month whether or not the fees were collected; and

(b) provide to SaskTel Carrier Services Group a statement of the number of the telecommunications service provider’s working lines and telephone numbers for which an adjusted Sask911 fee was payable for the month.

(9) If the minister responsible for the administration of The Emergency 911 System Act or any person authorized by that minister so requests, every telecommunications service provider mentioned in subsection (8) shall produce and make available to that minister or any person authorized by that minister, in any form and manner that minister or any person authorized by that minister considers satisfactory, any document, report, record, statement or other information relating to the billing, collection or payment of Sask911 fees or an amount with respect to those fees necessary for the purposes of:

- (a) reviewing or verifying an audit or financial statement or report mentioned in subsection 45.1(9) or (10) of the Act; or
- (b) budgeting, forecasting, planning or accounting related to the Sask911 system.

(10) Any information or document provided by a telecommunications service provider pursuant to subsection (9) is only to be used for the purposes intended by that subsection, and any person who in the course of that person's duties acquires or has access to that information or document shall keep that information or document confidential and not make any use or disclosures of that information or document without the written consent of the telecommunications service provider to which the information or document relates.

(11) For the purposes of clause 45.1(3)(a) of the Act:

- (a) 'all Sask911 fees collected by the corporation' includes the fees remitted to the corporation pursuant to clause (8)(a); and
- (b) 'any reasonable amount the corporation may retain for collecting the Sask911 fees' means $0.07 per month for each working line and working telephone number for which fees are collected by the corporation.

(12) The adjusted Sask911 fee payable by a connected customer for service of less than a full month shall be prorated based on a 30-day month".

Appendix, new Table 1

5 Table 1 of the Appendix is repealed and the following substituted:

[Section 3]

Sask911 Fees

	Service	Fee
1	Local telephone services billed as residential or business access lines including multi-line outgoing access lines	$1.88 per working line per month
2	Local telephone services billed as centrex service	$1.88 per working telephone number per month
3	Wireless telephone access that is assigned a telephone number associated with Saskatchewan	$1.88 per working telephone number per month

Coming into force

6(1) Subject to subsection (2), these regulations come into force on April 7, 2021.
