(3) The Court, having due regard for the proper administration of justice, shall conduct all family law proceedings as informally as the circumstances of the case permit.

- (4) All documents and copies filed pursuant to subrule (3) must, at the request of the party producing them, be returned to that party at the conclusion of the pre-trial conference.
- (5) If the parties agree in writing that a productive pre-trial conference is possible without expert reports and that these reports are not critical to a valuation or other issue, the parties shall file the written agreement, and not the reports, with the pre-trial brief.
- (6) If the family law proceeding is to go to trial after the conclusion of the pre-trial conference, the pre-trial briefs shall be returned to the parties, including any proposals submitted pursuant to clause (3)(g).

15-69 If the matter is to proceed to trial, the pre-trial judge shall direct the local registrar to schedule a date for trial.

Trial judge

15-70(1) A pre-trial judge shall not preside at the trial unless all parties and the judge consent in writing.

(2) This rule does not prevent or disqualify the trial judge from holding trial meetings subsequent to the pre-trial conference and before or during the trial, to consider any matter that may assist in the just, most expeditious or least expensive disposition of the family law proceeding.

Information Note

Rules 15-85 and 15-101 identify the basic financial information that the Court will require to satisfy the reasonable arrangements requirement.

However, on occasion, the Court may require additional financial information to be filed.

Subdivision 2
Summary Judgment Proceedings

Information Note

A party applying for summary judgment pursuant to this subdivision must be aware that this subdivision does not apply to an uncontested proceeding. Summary judgment applications are, by definition, contested proceedings.

Application for summary judgment in a contested matter

15-88 A party may apply, with supporting affidavit material or other evidence, for summary judgment on all or some of the issues raised in the family law proceeding at any time after the close of the pleadings but before the time and place for trial have been set.

Evidence

15-89(1) Rules 15-82 to 15-87 relating to evidence required for judgments pursuant to the Divorce Act, The Children's Law Act, 2020, The Family Maintenance Act, 1997 and The Family Property Act, and for judicial separation or nullity of marriage, in uncontested family law proceedings and uncontested divorce proceedings apply with equal force to the provisions of this subdivision and summary judgment proceedings.

(2) A response to an application for summary judgment must not rely solely on the allegations or denials in the respondent's pleadings, but must set out, in affidavit material or other evidence, specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue that requires a trial.

(3) The Court may draw an adverse inference from the failure of a party to cross-examine on an affidavit or to file responding or rebuttal evidence.

(4) An affidavit for use on an application for summary judgment may be made on information and belief as provided in rule 13-30, but, on the hearing of the application, the Court may draw an adverse inference from the failure of a party to provide the evidence of any person having personal knowledge of contested facts.

Briefs required

- 15-90(1) On an application for summary judgment, each party shall serve on each of the other parties to the application a brief consisting of a concise argument stating the facts and law relied on by the party.
- (2) The applicant's brief must be served at least 10 days before the hearing.
 - (3) The respondent's brief must be served at least 5 days before the hearing.
 - (4) If the applicant wishes to reply to any new matters raised in the respondent's brief, the applicant may serve a reply brief at least 3 days before the hearing.
 - (5) Each party's brief must be filed in accordance with rule 13-23.1, with proof of service, in the Court office where the application is to be heard.

Disposition of application

- 15-91(1) The Court may grant summary judgment if:
- (a) the Court is satisfied that there is no genuine issue requiring a trial with respect to the outstanding issues raised in the pleadings; or
 - (b) the parties agree to have all or part of the claim determined by summary judgment and the Court is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant summary judgment.
- (2) In determining pursuant to clause (1)(a) whether there is a genuine issue requiring a trial, the Court:
- (a) shall consider the evidence submitted by the parties; and
 - (b) may exercise any of the following powers for the purpose, unless it is in the interest of justice for those powers to be exercised only at a trial:
 - (i) weighing the evidence;
 - (ii) evaluating the credibility of a deponent;
 - (iii) drawing any reasonable inference from the evidence.
- (3) For the purposes of exercising any of the powers set out in subrule (2), a judge may order that oral evidence be presented by one or more parties, with or without time limits on its presentation.
- (4) If the Court is satisfied that the only genuine issue is a question of law, the Court may determine the question and grant judgment accordingly.
- (5) If the Court is satisfied that the only genuine issue is the amount to which the applicant is entitled, the Court may order a trial of that issue or grant judgment with a reference or an accounting to determine the amount.
- (6) If the Court is satisfied there are one or more genuine issues requiring a trial, the Court may nevertheless grant summary judgment with respect to any matters or issues the Court decides can and should be decided without further evidence.
- (7) If an application for summary judgment is dismissed, in whole or in part, a judge may order the action, or the issues in the action not disposed of by summary judgment, to proceed to a pre-trial conference in the ordinary way.
- (8) If an application for summary judgment is dismissed, the applicant may not make a further application pursuant to rule 15-88 without leave of the Court.

Directions and terms

- 15-92(1) If an application for summary judgment is dismissed, in whole or in part, and the action is ordered to proceed to trial, in whole or in part, a judge may give any directions or impose any terms that the judge considers just, including an order:
- (a) specifying what facts are not in dispute;

- (b) defining the issues to be tried;
 - (c) establishing a time line for pre-trial procedures;
 - (d) regulating disclosure or production of documents or other evidence;
 - (e) permitting evidence on the application for summary judgment to stand as evidence at trial;
 - (f) specifying that the evidence of a witness be given in whole or in part by affidavit;
 - (g) specifying that any experts engaged by or on behalf of the parties in relation to the action meet on a without prejudice basis in order to identify the issues on which the experts agree and the issues on which they do not agree, to attempt to clarify and resolve any issues that are the subject of disagreement and to prepare a joint statement setting out the areas of agreement and any areas of disagreement and the reasons for them if, in the opinion of the Court:
 - (i) the cost or time savings or other benefits that may be achieved from the meeting are proportionate to the amounts at stake and the importance of the issues involved in the case; and
 - (ii) either:
 - (A) there is a reasonable prospect for agreement on some or all of the issues; or
 - (B) the rationale for opposing expert opinions is unknown and clarification on areas of disagreement would assist the parties or the Court;
 - (h) respecting the preservation of property owned by either party; and
 - (i) directing security for costs.
- (2) At the trial, any facts specified pursuant to clause (1)(a) are deemed to be established unless the trial judge orders otherwise to prevent injustice.
- (3) In deciding whether to make an order pursuant to clause (1)(f), the fact that an adverse party may reasonably require the attendance of the deponent at trial for cross-examination is a relevant consideration.
- (4) If an order is made pursuant to clause (1)(g), each party shall pay that party's own costs.
- (5) If a party fails to comply with an order pursuant to clause (1)(i) for security for costs, the Court on application of the opposite party may dismiss the action, strike out the answer or make any other order that the Court considers just.
- (6) If, on an application pursuant to subrule (5), the answer is struck out, the respondent is deemed to be noted for default.

Stay of enforcement

15-93 If it appears that the enforcement of a summary judgment ought to be stayed pending the determination of any other issue raised in the matter, the Court may make that order on those terms that the Court considers just.

Proceedings after summary judgment against a party

15-94 A petitioner or a respondent who obtains summary judgment may proceed against the same party for any other remedy.

DIVISION 7

Trials

Evidence at trial

- 15-95(1) The Court may try an issue on oral or affidavit evidence or otherwise as the judge conducting the trial may direct.
- (2) The Court may admit a document purporting to be proof of marriage in a foreign jurisdiction as proof of the marriage, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.
- (3) No party to a family law proceeding shall refuse to answer a question tending to show that the party has committed adultery if the adultery has been pleaded and is relevant to the proceeding.
- (4) Each financial statement, property statement and response to a notice to answer written questions may be used by the other party as though it were a transcript of questioning, and all or any part of the statement or response may be admitted in evidence, saving all just exceptions.
- (5) Reports ordered by the Court and contained on the Court file are evidence at trial, unless the trial judge orders otherwise.
- (6) Subject to subrule (5), at trial, a party wanting to rely on any document contained on the Court file must seek to have the document admitted as evidence.

DIVISION 8

Costs

Costs

- 15-96(1) Costs are in the discretion of the Court and, except as modified by this rule, the following provisions apply to the costs of a family law proceeding:
- (a) Part 4, Division 4;
- (b) Part 11.
- (2) Subject to subrule (3), there is a presumption that a successful party is entitled to the costs of a family law proceeding or a step in a family law proceeding.
- (3) A successful party who has behaved unreasonably or has acted in bad faith during a family law proceeding may be:
- (a) deprived of all or part of the party's own costs; or
- (b) ordered to pay all or part of the unsuccessful party's costs.
- (4) In deciding whether a party has behaved reasonably or unreasonably or in bad faith, the Court may examine:
- (a) the party's behaviour in relation to the nature, importance and urgency of the issues from the time they arose;
- (b) any conduct of the party that tended to lengthen unnecessarily the duration of the family law proceeding;
- (c) whether any step in the family law proceeding was improper, vexatious or unnecessary;
- (d) the party's denial or refusal to admit anything that should have been admitted;
- (e) whether the party made an offer to settle;
- (f) the reasonableness of any offer to settle the party made; and
- (g) any offer to settle that the party withdrew or failed to accept.

- (5) If success in a family law proceeding or a step in a family law proceeding is divided, the Court may apportion costs as appropriate.
- (6) The Court may order costs against a party if the party:
- (a) fails to appear at a step in the family law proceeding;
 - (b) appears but is not properly prepared to deal with the issues at that step; or
 - (c) appears but has failed to make the disclosure required before that step.
- (7) After each step in the family law proceeding, the judge who dealt with that step may, in a summary manner:
- (a) decide who, if anyone, is entitled to costs;
 - (b) set the amount of costs; and
 - (c) specify a date by which payment must be made.
- (8) Offers to settle referred to in this rule do not include offers made during a pre-trial conference but do include:
- (a) offers made before the commencement of a family law proceeding; and
 - (b) offers made pursuant to Part 4, Division 5.

DIVISION 9

Judgments and Orders

Judgments and orders

- 15-97(1) Subject to subrule (4), if a petitioner claims a remedy pursuant to more than one enactment, one judgment must be issued with respect to all remedies.
- (2) If a remedy is granted on a claim made pursuant to a Saskatchewan or a federal enactment, that enactment must be referred to in the judgment.
- (3) Every judgment and order must set out in the heading whether it is an interim or a final judgment or order.

CHECKLIST

Information Note

Use this Checklist to identify those schedules that you need to attach to your Financial Statement. Check each situation that applies to you (there may be more than one). Then complete and attach all schedules marked with a dot (“•”) for each situation that you have checked and append all documents that the schedule requires you to provide. Only complete and attach each applicable schedule once. Please note that this Checklist is to assist you in identifying the information that you are obligated to provide (see sections 21 and 22 of the Federal Child Support Guidelines and Rules 15-47 to 15-59 of The Queen’s Bench Rules).

This Checklist is not exhaustive. The opposite party may request, and/or the Court may order, that you provide more information than is identified in this Checklist depending on the specific circumstances of your case. Please also note that Rule 15-48 identifies those scenarios when a Financial Statement does not need to be completed. For example, if a child is primarily resident with a party who is only applying for child support in the table amount, and the income of the person being asked to pay support is less than $150,000 per year, the party seeking support is not required to complete a Financial Statement.
