Application re workers

3 These regulations apply to workers of a public employer, including individuals who are members or directors of a board, commission, council, office, corporation or any other body of an employer mentioned in clause (b) or (c) of the definition of “public employer” in subsection 2(1).

Public employers’ duties re clause 3-8(a) of the Act

4(1) For the purposes of clause 3-8(a) of the Act, a public employer shall, on and after October 1, 2021, require its workers to:

- (a) be fully-vaccinated and, if requested by the public employer, provide evidence to the public employer in relation to the worker’s vaccinations; or
- (b) subject to subsections (2) and (3), provide a valid negative COVID-19 test result to the public employer at least every 7 days.

(2) For the purposes of clause (1)(b), a negative COVID-19 test result is valid for 7 days from the date of testing.

(3) A worker is not required to provide a negative COVID-19 test result to the public employer if the worker is on vacation, an employment leave or a leave granted by the public employer.

(4) The public employer shall:

- (a) establish a verification process for collecting and reviewing the evidence provided by the worker in relation to the worker’s vaccinations or negative COVID-19 test results;
- (b) review the evidence provided by a worker in relation to the worker’s vaccinations or negative COVID-19 test results in accordance with the verification process established pursuant to clause (a) to verify that the worker can be at the workplace; and
- (c) keep confidential the evidence provided by a worker pursuant to this section.

Workers duties re clause 3-10(a) of the Act

5 For the purposes of clause 3-10(a) of the Act and unless otherwise agreed to by the public employer:

- (a) any worker required to provide a negative COVID-19 test result pursuant to clause 4(1)(b) is responsible for taking the COVID-19 test during non-work hours; and
- (b) any costs associated with taking a COVID-19 test are to be paid by the worker.

Coming into force

6(1) Subject to subsection (2), these regulations come into force on October 1, 2021.

(2) If these regulations are filed with the Registrar of Regulations after October 1, 2021, these regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

(a) to:

(i) be fully-vaccinated; and

(ii) if requested by the employer, provide satisfactory evidence to the employer in relation to the worker's vaccinations;

(b) to provide a valid negative COVID-19 test result to the employer at least every 7 days.

“(1.1) If an employer requires its workers to comply with one of the requirements set out in subsection (1), the employer shall give each worker the option to comply with either clause (1)(a) or (b), but the worker must comply with at least one of those requirements within the period specified by the employer”.

(2) Subsection 4(4) is amended in the portion preceding clause (a) by striking out “If an employer requires its workers to be fully-vaccinated or to provide negative COVID-19 test results pursuant to subsection (1)” and substituting “If an employer requires its workers to comply with one of the requirements set out in subsection (1) in accordance with subsection (1.1)”.
