Employers' duties re clause 3-8(a) of the Act

4(1) On and after October 1, 2021, an employer may, for the purposes of clause 3-8(a) of the Act, require all of its workers to comply with one of the following:

- (a) to:
  - (i) be fully-vaccinated; and
  - (ii) if requested by the employer, provide satisfactory evidence to the employer in relation to the worker's vaccinations;
- (b) to provide a valid negative COVID-19 test result to the employer at least every 7 days.

(1.1) If an employer requires its workers to comply with one of the requirements set out in subsection (1), the employer shall give each worker the option to comply with either clause (1)(a) or (b), but the worker must comply with at least one of those requirements within the period specified by the employer.

(2) For the purposes of clause (1)(b), a negative COVID-19 test result is valid for 7 days from the date of testing.

(3) A worker is not required to provide a negative COVID-19 test result to the employer if the worker is on vacation, an employment leave or a leave granted by the employer.

(4) If an employer requires its workers to comply with one of the requirements set out in subsection (1) in accordance with subsection (1.1), the employer shall:

- (a) provide notice of the requirements to every worker by:
  - (i) personally giving it to the worker;
  - (ii) posting it in the workplace;

- (iii) posting it online on a secure website to which the worker has access; or
  - (iv) providing it in any other manner that informs the worker of the requirements;
- (b) establish a verification process for collecting and reviewing the evidence provided by the worker in relation to the worker's vaccinations or negative COVID-19 test results;
- (c) review the evidence provided by a worker in relation to the worker's vaccinations or negative COVID-19 test results in accordance with the verification process established pursuant to clause (b) to verify that the worker can be at the workplace; and
- (d) keep confidential the evidence provided by a worker pursuant to this section.
