Updated Access to Drilling Activity Report, Well Bulletin, and Related Archives

| Date | Module/Application/Functionality | Notes |
|------------------|----------------------------------|---------------|
| November 4, 2022 | Reports | Informational |

Background

Effective on Thursday November 10, 2022 the access to the Daily Drilling Activity Report, the Daily Well Bulletin, and the related archives of these documents will be updated to align with current Saskatchewan.ca function.

If you have bookmarked links to these documents and archives, you will need to update your bookmarks. The archive links prior to this update will be ineffective in the near future.

If you are using links on our Saskatchewan.ca pages, no action will be required as we will be updating those links directly.

Process

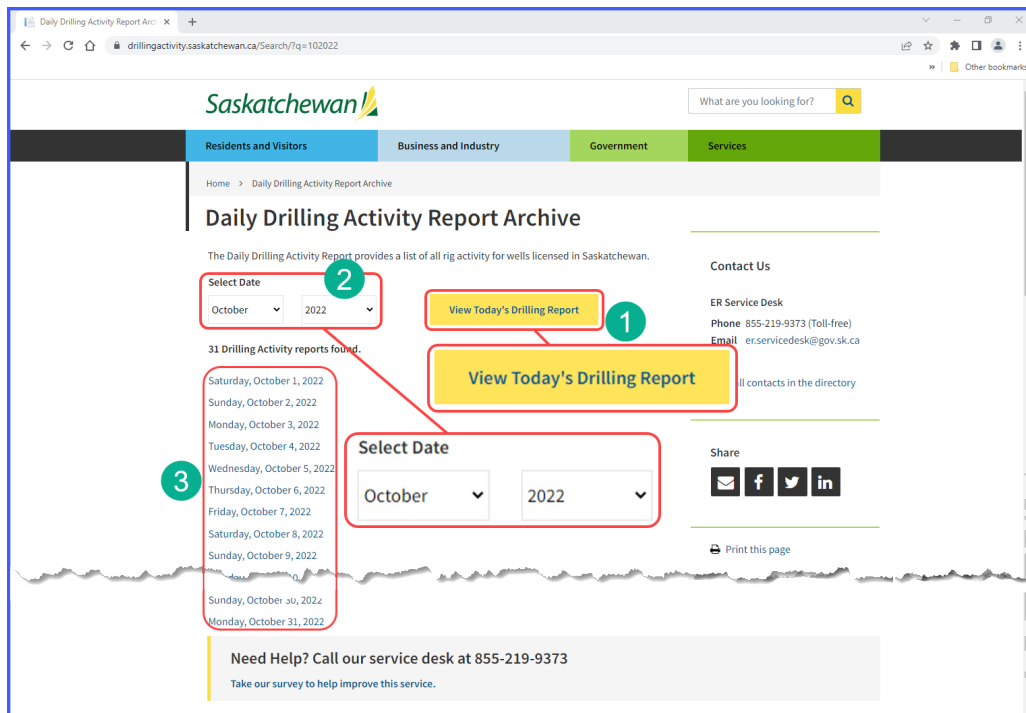

➤ Daily Drilling Activity Report and archive

As of November 10, access to the Daily Drilling Report and its archive will be available at these links:
