Application Fact Sheet

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls+ Community Response Fund

The Government of Saskatchewan is committed to advancing the safety of Indigenous women, girls, and Two-Spirited+ people through partnerships among and between Indigenous groups and non-Indigenous Saskatchewan citizens. The Ministry of Government Relations supports innovative projects focused on prevention that involve partnerships with First Nation and/or Métis communities, agencies or non-profit groups.

To help you prepare your application form, this fact sheet lists:

- The contact information required for your organization and any of your partners,
- The questions about your project that you will need to answer, and
- The attachments you will need to include in your application.

For more information

If you have questions about the MMIWG+ Community Response Fund or the application process, email fnmr@gov.sk.ca or call the First Nations and Métis Relations Unit at 306-798-0183.

Project Information

In the first section of the application, you will need to provide us with:

- The name of your project.
- The start and end dates of your project.
- The place where your project will be located.
- The name(s) of your partners (if applicable).

Applicant Information

In the second section of the application, you will need to provide information about your organization:

- Your organization's name and incorporation number from Information Services Corporation (if it has this number).
- What category your organization can be grouped under (local grass-roots Indigenous group; Indigenous non-profit; First Nation Band Council or Tribal Council; Métis Nation- Saskatchewan Locals and Regions; First Nations or Métis agencies or representative groups; or Non-Indigenous non-profit organizations with Indigenous involvement and whose programs/services benefit a primarily First Nations or Métis clientele).

Saskatchewan

- Your organization's mailing address, phone and fax numbers, email address and website address (if applicable).
- The name and contact information for your organization's primary contact on your project.
- The name and contact information for your organization's secondary contact on your project (if applicable).
- How your organization found out about this funding.

Budget Information

In the third section, your organization must:

- Indicate if it has received or will receive federal funding from the Women and Gender Equity Canada for the National Plan to End Gender Based Violence. (If you have received this funding, you cannot apply for the MMIWG+ Community Response Fund.)
- Attach a detailed budget using the budget template provided (excel spreadsheet or word document). It should include a full budget breakdown with actual prices for your project. Files can be up to 2 MB in size and should include your project's name as part of your file's name.
- List the amount of funding being requested under the MMIWG+ Community Response Fund.

Project Description

You will be asked to answer the following questions and include examples in your answers in the fourth section.

1. Please describe your project and its goals.
2. How many people do you expect your project to impact?
3. How does your project prevent violence and build safety for Indigenous women, girls and Two-Spirit people?
4. How are local or grassroots groups involved in your project?
5. How does your project prevent violence in a creative and innovative way?
6. How does your project support prevention by building partnerships and/or improving relationships?
7. How will your project achieve its goals?
8. How will you know the project goals have been achieved?

Partner Information

If you have a partner (or partners) you will be asked in the last section to:

- Provide their name(s) and incorporation number from Information Services Corporation (if they have this number).
- The mailing address, phone and fax numbers, email address and website address (if applicable) of your partner(s).
- The name and contact information of your partner's primary contact and secondary contact (if applicable).
- Signed letter(s) of support from your partner(s). File names should include your project's name and/or the name of your partner. (You can attach up to four letters of support, 2 MB each.)

Saskatchewan