

Provincial Capital Commission Board

Mr. Brad Crassweller, MLA for White City-Qu'Appelle

Brad Crassweller was first elected MLA for White City-Qu'Appelle in 2024.

He and his family own and operate Cedar Creek Gardens, an outdoor family destination south of Regina. He has also been a pastor, owned a landscaping company, and served as councillor for the RM of Sherwood (Division 1).

Brad and his wife Sandy reside south of Regina. They have four children and three grandchildren.

