

Acquired Brain Injury (ABI) Partnership Community Programs

Provincial Programs

Saskatchewan Brain Injury Association (SBIA)

SBIA supports ABI survivors and families by developing support groups and networks for them to interact; decreasing social isolation that can result after injury; providing information on coping and adapting to life after an ABI; and offering social support during crisis periods.

How to Connect with SBIA:

Phone: 306-373-1555

Fax: 306-373-5655

Toll Free: 1-888-373-1555

Website: <https://www.facebook.com/SaskBrainInjury/>

Phoenix Residential Society

Phoenix Residential Society runs a transitional supported apartment program for ABI survivors requiring 24-hour support, and a supportive living service for those in their own home. The goal of the program is to improve functional ability and quality of life so survivors can live more independently in the community.

saskatchewan.ca

How to Connect with Phoenix Residential Society:

Phone: 306-569-1977

Fax: 306-569-1986

Website: www.phoenixregina.com/program-descriptions/acquired-brain-injury

Saskatchewan Prevention Institute

Saskatchewan Prevention Institute implements programming and develops resources to prevent ABI in children. Through its existing networks and partnerships, the Institute develops and/or enhances programming in the areas of falls, bicycle safety, child passenger safety, and other relevant topics.

How to Connect with Saskatchewan Prevention Institute:

Phone: 306-655-2518

Fax: 306-655-2511

Website: <https://skprevention.ca/>

Funded by:

Managed by:

Northern Programs

North ABI Independent Living Program

This program helps ABI survivors in Prince Albert and other northern communities find appropriate accommodations, and provides supervision, skill development, and assistance accessing employment and rehabilitation support within the community.

How to Connect with the North ABI Independent Living Program:

Phone: 306-765-6468

Fax: 306-765-6657

Northern Rehabilitation

This program provides rehabilitation supports throughout northern communities. Services include community development, case management, and education and prevention activities.

How To Connect with the Northern Rehabilitation Program:

Phone: 306-765-6631

Fax: 306-765-6657

Speech Language Pathologist

Based in Melfort, this program provides speech language services and case coordination to the broader geographical area.

How To Connect with the Melfort Speech Language Pathologist:

Phone: 306-752-1754

Fax: 306-752-1755

East Central Saskatchewan Association for the Rehabilitation of the Brain Injured (EC SARBI) - Kelvington

EC SARBI provides individual rehabilitation programs for adults with ABI using volunteers under the guidance of staff, professional therapists and consultants. Life enrichment and summer programming are available.

How to Connect with EC SARBI:

Phone: 306-327-4595

Fax: 306-327-4502

Website: <https://www.facebook.com/ecsarbi/>

Multiworks Vocational Training Group

Multiworks is a Meadow Lake based organization offering vocational and residential options to ABI survivors of all ages; components of the program include life skills, and vocational/avocational, social, educational, and stroke groups. The focus is on individualized preparation and community integration.

How to Connect with Multiworks:

Phone: 306-236-3200

Fax: 306-236-3335

Central Programs

Lloydminster & Area Brain Injury Society (LABIS)

LABIS provides a life enrichment program free of charge to ABI survivors living independently, designed to reinforce, maintain, and advance memory skills and promote, encourage, and foster social and recreation capabilities. The program runs Monday through Wednesday, 10am – 4pm with extended Thursday hours.

How to Connect with LABIS:

Phone: 306-825-7212

Fax: 306-825-7213

Website: <https://labis.ca/>

Radius Community Centre for Education & Employment Training

Based in Saskatoon, this program is designed for school-aged children and young adults (up to 30 years old) with an ABI. One to one service is provided weekly alongside social and recreational small groups, including a Summer Fun Program, Sports for Life, and Youth Art Program.

How to Connect with Radius:

Phone: 306-665-6682

Fax: 306-665-5579

Email: abi.radius@sasktel.net

Website: <https://radiuscentre.com/>

Saskatoon Crisis Intervention Service (SCIS)

SCIS provides crisis intervention, service coordination and crisis management to those with ABI and their families, when a crisis and risk are present. It provides practical and proactive assistance until risk is reduced and mainstream services can be arranged.

Consultation services are also available to other service providers and supports.

How to Connect with SCIS:

Phone: 306-933-8234

Fax: 306-644-1974

Website: <https://www.saskatooncrisis.ca/>

SaskAbilities Saskatoon – Supported Employment

This Saskatoon based program provides supported employment services to those with an ABI. Employment specialists develop, implement and adapt training plans with clients to maximize employment success and provides job development and supports to clients and employers. Individualized service may include resume writing, interview practice, workplace assessments, job coaching and follow up services.

How to Connect with SaskAbilities Supported Employment:

Phone: 306-657-2450

Fax: 306-657-2460

Website: <https://www.saskabilities.ca/services/supported-employment/>

SaskAbilities Saskatoon – Community Support Services

The goal of ABI community support services is to enhance the quality of life of adults with an ABI by assisting them in engaging in meaningful activity, becoming more independent, and integrating into the community.

How to Connect with SaskAbilities Community Support Services:

Phone: 306-653-1694

Fax: 306-652-8886

Website: <https://www.saskabilities.ca/services/community-programs/>

Sherbrooke Community Center – “Moving On”

The ABI “Moving On” Life Enrichment program is a partnership between Sherbrooke Community Centre and the Central ABI Outreach Team. The program works with survivors of ABI to develop independent living skills to enable access to other programs by improving social skills and communication; developing meal planning, preparation and clean up skills; and money management skills; providing ABI education; and improving community interaction and integration.

How to Connect with “Moving On”:

Phone: 306-655-3742

Fax: 306-655-3741

Saskatchewan Association for the Rehabilitation of the Brain Injured (SARBI) - Saskatoon

SARBI provides individual rehabilitation programs for adults with ABI using volunteers under the guidance of staff, professional therapists and consultants. Programs are available in Regina, Saskatoon, and Kelvington. SARBI Saskatoon provides life enrichment programming through YMCA fitness programming, summer programs, and individual program planning.

How to Connect with SARBI Saskatoon:

Phone: 306-373-3050

Fax: 306-373-3925

Website: <https://sarbi.ca/>

South Programs

SaskAbilities Yorkton – Life Enrichment

The ABI Life Enrichment program is designed to promote and facilitate person and social rehabilitation of adults who have an ABI. The program is client-centred, individualized, and flexible, with program activities taking place in the community and in the home environment, when required.

How to Connect with SaskAbilities Yorkton – Life Enrichment:

Phone: 306-782-2463

Fax: 306-782-7844

Website: <https://www.saskabilities.ca/>

SaskAbilities Regina – Supported Employment

The Regina based program provides supported employment services to those with an ABI. Employment specialists develop, implement, and adapt training plans with clients to maximize employment success and provide job development for clients and employer support. Individualized service may include resume writing, interview practice, workplace assessments, job coaching, and follow up services.

How to Connect with SaskAbilities Regina – Supported Employment:

Phone: 306-522-2555

Website: <https://www.saskabilities.ca/services/supported-employment/>

SaskAbilities Regina – Life Enrichment Program

The ABI Life Enrichment program is designed to promote and facilitate personal and social rehabilitation of adults who have an ABI. The program is client-centred, individualized, and flexible, with program activities taking place in the community and in the home environment, when required.

How to Connect with SaskAbilities Regina – Life Enrichment Program:

Phone: 306-569-9048

Fax: 306-352-3717

Website: <https://www.saskabilities.ca/>

Mobile Crisis Services - Regina

This program provides case management and service coordination for ABI survivors and their families, focusing on delivering intense, pro-active community help when needs cannot be met through mainstream services. The goal is to facilitate community reintegration by linking with appropriate resources.

How to Connect with Mobile Crisis Services – Regina:

Phone: 306-757-7804

Fax: 306-757-7807

SIGN Yorkton – Life Without Barriers

Through collaboration with other local ABI programs in Yorkton and the surrounding area, the goal of the program is to facilitate independence for those with ABI. They also provide support to survivors, family, and caregivers.

How to Connect with SIGN Yorkton – Life Without Barriers:

Phone: 306-783-9422

Fax: 306-783-9401

Website: <https://signyorkton.ca/life-without-barriers>

Saskatchewan Association for the Rehabilitation of the Brain Injured (SARBI) – Regina

SARBI provides individual rehabilitation programs for adults with ABI using volunteers under the guidance of staff, professional therapists and consultants. Programs are available in Regina, Saskatoon, and Kelvington. SARBI Regina provides life enrichment programming through individual program planning and summer programming.

How to Connect with SARBI Regina:

Phone: 306-347-9088

Fax: 306-347-9089