Approved programs

- 3(1) The minister may approve programs for which the minister may pay training allowances to persons attending those programs.
- (2) The minister may approve a program on the condition that the program is offered by a particular educational institution, regional entity, community-based organization, government agency, employer or any other person that the minister may determine.
- (3) The minister may approve a program as a pilot project and may set requirements or restrictions on that program respecting any of the following:
- (a) age of participants;
 - (b) residency of participants in an area of Saskatchewan;
 - (c) location of program in Saskatchewan.

20 Jly 2007 SR 63/2007 s4.

Authorization and payment of training allowances

4(1) The minister may, in writing, authorize paying a training allowance to a person who:

- (a) applies for a training allowance pursuant to section 5; and
 - (b) meets the eligibility criteria for a training allowance set out in section 6.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) to (4), training allowances may be paid for a period not to exceed one year.
- (3) The minister may, in writing, renew or extend the authorization to pay a training allowance where the person receiving the training allowance:
- (a) requests a renewal or extension of the training allowance, in a form acceptable to the minister; and
 - (b) continues to meet the eligibility criteria set out in section 6.
- (4) A training allowance is to be paid monthly and in advance to the person receiving the training allowance.

7 Apr 2000 SR 19/2000 s3.

Application

5 A person may apply for a training allowance by submitting to the minister, within a time set by the minister:

- (a) an application, in a form acceptable to the minister, that is completed in all respects, including the signing of any declarations the minister may require;
- (b) any releases for information that the minister may require; and
- (c) any other information that the minister may reasonably require.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s5.

Eligibility

6 An applicant must:

- (a) be named in a valid Saskatchewan Health Services card;
- (b) have a valid social insurance number;
- (c) be enrolled in a program;
- (d) not be receiving a loan as a full-time student pursuant to the Canada Student Financial Assistance Regulations, being SOR/95-329, nor financial assistance as a student pursuant to The Saskatchewan Student Direct Loans Regulations; and
- (e) be in need of financial assistance, as determined pursuant to these regulations.

24 Sep 2004 SR 86/2004 s5.

Health card numbers required

6.1 For the purpose of determining the amount of a person's training allowance, the minister may require the applicant to provide to the ministry the family/beneficiary number and personal health number as set out on a valid Saskatchewan Health Services card for the applicant and for each person whom the applicant claims as a dependant.

24 Sep 2004 SR 86/2004 s5; 13 Aug 2010 SR 90/2010 s4.

Change in circumstances

7(1) No person who is receiving a training allowance shall fail to immediately notify the minister or the appropriate regional entity of any change in circumstances that might affect:

- (a) that person's continued eligibility for a training allowance; or
 - (b) the amount of that person's training allowance.
- (2) After receiving information that there has been a change in circumstances relating to a person who is receiving a training allowance, the minister may vary the amount of or cancel the person's training allowance.
- (3) If a person fails to comply with subsection (1), the minister may:
- (a) vary the amount of or cancel that person's training allowance; and
 - (b) declare any training allowance payment, or any portion of any training allowance payment, made after the date of the change in circumstances as an overpayment.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s7.

Assets

8(1) For the purpose of calculating the amount of a person's training allowance pursuant to section 9 for a program that starts before August 1, 2010, the sum of a person's assets is:

- (a) the fair market value of all motor vehicles owned by the person or by the person's spouse, less $5,000; and
- (b) all cash of the person and of the person's spouse, and the fair market value of all other assets of the person and of the person's spouse that are capable of being readily converted to cash, less:
 - (i) if the person has no spouse and no children, $1,500;
 - (ii) if the person has a spouse but no children, $3,000;
 - (iii) if the person has no spouse but has one or more children:
 - (A) $3,000 for the first child; and
 - (B) $500 for each additional child; or
 - (iv) if the person has a spouse and one or more children:
 - (A) $3,000; and
 - (B) $500 for each child.

(2) For the purpose of calculating the amount of a person's training allowance pursuant to section 9 for a program that starts on or after August 1, 2010, the sum of a person's assets is all cash of the person and of the person's spouse, and the fair market value of all other assets of the person and of the person's spouse that are capable of being readily converted to cash, less:

- (a) if the person has no spouse and no children, $1,500;
- (b) if the person has a spouse but no children, $3,000;
- (c) if the person has no spouse but has one or more children:
 - (i) $3,000 for the first child; and
 - (ii) $500 for each additional child; or
- (d) if the person has a spouse and one or more children:
 - (i) $3,000; and
 - (ii) $500 for each child.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), the minister has the absolute discretion to determine:

- (a) the fair market value of any asset;
- (b) the ownership of any asset; and
- (c) whether or not an asset is capable of being readily converted to cash.

13 Aug 2010 SR 90/2010 s5.

Calculation of training allowance

9(1) The amount of the monthly training allowance allowed to a person is the amount N calculated in accordance with the following formula:

where:

TAA is the total assessed living allowance of the person, being the sum of the allowances allowed to the person pursuant to sections 14 to 16;

PRA is the amount of the person's assets calculated in accordance with section 8 and subsection (5);

TAR is the total assessed resources of the person, being the sum of the following:

- (a) that portion of the person's monthly income that is to be counted pursuant to section 17;
- (b) if applicable, that portion of the person's spouse's monthly income that is to be counted pursuant to section 17;
- (c) if the person is in the single dependent person category mentioned in section 10, that portion of the person's parents' monthly income that is to be counted pursuant to section 18; and

PSB is the amount calculated in accordance with subsections (4) and (5).

- (2) If N, calculated pursuant to subsection (1), is:
- (a) a positive number, it represents the monthly amount of the person's training allowance; and
 - (b) a negative number, the person is not considered to be in need of a training allowance.
- (3) In order to determine a person's living allowance pursuant to section 14, the minister shall determine the person's category and living situation using the criteria set out in sections 10 to 13.
- (4) The following percentage of the total amount of a person's scholarships and bursaries is to be deducted from that total amount:
- (a) if the total scholarship and bursary amount is $1,801 to 2,499, 16.24%;
 - (b) if the total scholarship and bursary amount is $2,500 or more, 18.48%.
- (5) For the purposes of the formula in subsection (1), if PRA or $\left[\frac{\text{PSB} - 1800}{12} \right]$ is a negative amount, zero shall be used for the purpose of that amount.

Day-care allowance

16(1) A monthly day-care allowance is allowed in accordance with this section for each child receiving day-care, up to and including the month of the child's twelfth birthday.

(2) To be eligible for a monthly day-care allowance, the parent who is receiving a training allowance must declare if the parent is receiving a subsidy pursuant to The Child Care Regulations, 2001.

(4) If the parent is not receiving a subsidy pursuant to The Child Care Regulations, 2001, the monthly day-care allowance is as follows:

- (a) for one child, $400;
- (b) for two children, $540;
- (c) for three children, $680;
- (d) for four or more children, $820.

(5) If the parent is receiving a subsidy pursuant to The Child Care Regulations, 2001, the monthly day-care allowance is as follows:

- (a) for one child, $85;
- (b) for two children, $170;
- (c) for three children, $255;
- (d) for four or more children, $340.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), an incidental day care rate allowance of $20 per day may be allowed to a parent who is receiving a training allowance for each of his or her children who:

- (a) are under 12 years of age; and
- (b) reside for at least 50% of the time with him or her.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), an incidental day care rate allowance may be allowed pursuant to subsection (6) for the entire month in which the child who resides for at least 50% of the time with the parent attains 12 years of age.

(8) The maximum amount of incidental day care rate allowances that a parent may receive each month pursuant to subsection (6) and (7) is:

- (a) if the parent who is receiving a training allowance has one child described in subsection (6) or (7), $200;
- (b) if the parent who is receiving a training allowance has two children described in subsection (6) or (7), $270;
- (c) if the parent who is receiving a training allowance has three children described in subsection (6) or (7), $340; and
- (d) if the parent who is receiving a training allowance has four or more children described in subsection (6) or (7), $410.

Monthly income

17(1) For the purposes of clauses (a) and (b) of the definition of TAR in subsection 9(1), the portion of a person's monthly income and, where applicable, the portion of the person's spouse's monthly income that is to be counted as part of the person's total assessed resources is the sum of:

- (a) for the income sources mentioned in subsections (2) and (6.1), the monthly income determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$PTAR = [(I - D) - 125] \times F$$

where:

PTAR is the portion of the person's total assessed resources as determined pursuant to this clause and if it is a negative number, it is deemed to be zero;

I is the person's gross monthly income from all sources listed in subsections (2) and (6.1);

D is the percentage to be deducted from the person's gross monthly income pursuant to subsection (4); and

F is:

- (i) in the case of a person with a child, 1.0; and
- (ii) in the case of a person with no child, 0.8.

(b) for the income sources mentioned in subsection (3), the monthly income determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$PTAR = I - D$$

where:

PTAR is the portion of the person's total assessed resources as determined pursuant to this clause;

I is the person's gross monthly income from all sources listed in subsection (3); and

D is the percentage to be deducted from the person's gross monthly income pursuant to subsection (4);

Parental income

18(1) In this section, “monthly discretionary income” means the monthly discretionary income of the parents of a person receiving a training allowance who is in the single dependent person category, calculated in accordance with subsection (3).

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) the following persons are to be counted when determining the number of people in a family unit:

(i) both parents in a two-parent family;

(ii) in a one-parent family, the parent financially responsible for the person receiving the training allowance, if the parent is not estranged from the person receiving the training allowance;

(iii) the person receiving the training allowance;

(iv) an unmarried child of a parent mentioned in subclause (i) or (ii) who is:

(A) 18 years of age or younger and wholly dependent on the parent for support and for whom the parent has custody and control; or

(B) in full-time attendance at a secondary school or a post-secondary institution and meets the criteria of a person in the single dependent person category pursuant to section 10;

(v) a person who is wholly dependent on a parent mentioned in subclause (i) or (ii) and is recognized as being wholly dependent within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada);

(b) subject to subsection (2.1), the monthly income level for a moderate standard of living for a family unit consisting of:

(i) two people is $3,013;

(ii) three people is $3,773;

(iii) four people is $4,313;

(iv) five people is $4,731;

(v) six people is $5,073;

(vi) seven people is $5,362;

(vii) eight people is $5,613;

(viii) nine people is $5,833;

(ix) 10 people or more is $6,031.

(2.1) After considering the monthly income level for a moderate standard of living as published annually for the purposes of any Canada student loan program, the minister may adjust the monthly income levels set out in clause (2)(b).

(3) The monthly discretionary income of the parents of a person receiving a training allowance who is in the single dependent person category is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$DI = (GI - D) - MSL$$

where:

DI is the parents' monthly discretionary income;

GI is the parents' gross monthly income as determined by the minister based on the parents' income tax return and income tax assessment for the previous year;

D is the appropriate percentage to be deducted from the parents' gross monthly income based on the amounts set out in subsection 17(4); and MSL is the moderate standard of living amount to be deducted for the size of the family unit based on the amounts set out in clause (2)(b).

(4) Repealed. 24 Sep 2004 SR 86/2004 s12.

(5) For the purposes of clause (c) of the definition of TAR in subsection 9(1), the portion of the parents' monthly income that is to be counted as part of the total assessed resources of a person who is in the single dependent person category is:

(a) where the parents' monthly discretionary income is $0 to $583, the amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$PTAR = 0.15 \times DI$$

where:

PTAR is the portion of the parents' monthly income that is to be counted as part of a person's total assessed resources; and

DI is the parents' monthly discretionary income, calculated pursuant to subsection (3);

(b) where the parents' monthly discretionary income is $584 to $1,166, the amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$PTAR = $87 + [0.2 \times (DI - $583)]$$

where:

PTAR is the portion of the parents' monthly income that is to be counted as part of a person's total assessed resources; and

DI is the parents' monthly discretionary income, calculated pursuant to subsection (3); and

TRAINING ALLOWANCE

G-5.1 REG 80

(c) where the parents' monthly discretionary income is $1,167 or more, the amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{PTAR} = $204 + [0.4 \times (\text{DI} - $1,166)]$$

where:

PTAR is the portion of the parents' monthly income that is to be counted as part of a person's total assessed resources; and

DI is the parents' monthly discretionary income, calculated pursuant to subsection (3).

(6) In a one-parent family, the income of the parent financially responsible for the person receiving the training allowance is to be used for the purposes of calculating the parents' monthly income, and subsections (1) to (5) apply, with any necessary modification.

Ministerial discretion

19 Where the minister is satisfied that a person has shown that he or she will suffer undue financial hardship as a result of any of the requirements set out in section 8, 10, 12, 13, 16, 17 or 18, the minister may exempt that person from that requirement.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s19; 7 Apr 2000 SR 19/2000 s4; 24 Sep 2004 SR 86/2004 s13.

Agreements with regional entity

20(1) In accordance with these regulations, the minister may enter into agreements with a regional entity to require that regional entity to do any or all of the following:

- (a) receive applications for training allowances;
- (b) forward to the ministry the necessary information with respect to eligibility of persons for training allowances;
- (c) verify the information that is provided;
- (d) hold funds to be paid as training allowances in trust for the Crown;
- (e) pay training allowances on behalf of the Crown from the funds mentioned in clause (d).

(2) The minister may delegate to a regional entity any of the minister's non-discretionary administrative functions pursuant to these regulations.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s20; 13 Aug 2010 SR 90/2010 s8.

Cancellation of training allowance

21 The minister may cancel a person's training allowance where, in the opinion of the minister, the person who is receiving the training allowance:

- (a) does not continue in a program; or
- (b) no longer meets the other criteria outlined in these regulations.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s21.

Verification and audit

21.1(1) A person receiving a training allowance shall provide, at the minister's written request, any information or records reasonably required by the minister respecting that person's income, eligibility or other information used by the minister to assess the person's eligibility for a training allowance or to calculate the amount of the training allowance to be paid to the person.

(2) The minister may cancel a person's training allowance or refuse to process any future applications for assistance from any person who refuses or fails to provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (1) within 90 days after a written request.

7 Apr 2000 SR 19/2000 s5.

Reconsideration of applications, variations or cancellations

22(1) Where a dispute arises with respect to an application for or the variation or cancellation of a training allowance that cannot be resolved by mutual agreement of the parties, the person affected may request a reconsideration of the decision by the Executive Director of the Student Financial Assistance Branch.

(2) The request mentioned in subsection (1) for a reconsideration of a decision is to be:

- (a) in writing; and
- (b) made within the time set by the minister.

(3) A person requesting a reconsideration of a decision pursuant to subsection (1):

- (a) is to be notified of the date and time when the application will be reconsidered; and
- (b) has the right to be heard.

(4) A hearing held pursuant to subsection (3) may be conducted via telephone conference call.

(5) If the person fails to appear or exercise a right to be heard after receiving notification pursuant to subsection (3), the Executive Director of the Student Financial Assistance Branch may reconsider the decision and make any decision that he or she considers appropriate in the absence of the person requesting the reconsideration.

(6) The Executive Director of the Student Financial Assistance Branch shall notify the person who applied for the reconsideration of his or her decision and provide that person with written reasons for the decision.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s22; 13 Aug 2010 SR 90/2010 s9.

Overpayments

23(1) If a person contravenes any provision of these regulations, the minister may declare that any payments, or portions of payments, received by that person pursuant to these regulations are overpayments.

(1.1) If a person receiving a training allowance fails to continue in the program identified by the person in his or her application for the training allowance, the minister may declare that any payments or portions of payments received by that person pursuant to these regulations for the month following the month in which the person ceased to continue in the program and for any subsequent months are overpayments.

(2) Any overpayment made to a person, including a payment declared as an overpayment pursuant to subsection (1), is a debt due to the Crown in right of Saskatchewan and may be recovered in any manner authorized by The Financial Administration Act, 1993 or in any other manner authorized by law.

19 Sep 97 cG-5.1 Reg 80 s23; 7 Apr 2000 SR 19/2000 s6.

Certain amounts deemed not to be overpayments

23.1(1) In this section, “increased amount” means the amount A calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = B - C$$

where:

B is the amount of a training allowance that was paid to a person on or before the coming into force of these regulations and that was calculated on the basis of not including the amount mentioned in clause 17(5)(s) in the income of that person; and

C is the amount of a training allowance that would be calculated as including the amount mentioned in clause 17(5)(s) in the income of the person mentioned in the description of the amount B.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, any increased amount paid to a person on or before the coming into force of The Training Allowance Amendment Regulations, 2007 is deemed not to be an overpayment for the purposes of these regulations, and no person who received an increased amount is required to repay that increased amount.
