CHAPTER W-13.12 REG 2*The Wildlife Act, 1998*

Section 83

Order in Council 30/2009, dated January 14, 2009

(Filed January 15, 2009)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Firearm Safety/Hunter Education Regulations, 2009.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Wildlife Act, 1998;
- (b) “certificate” means a firearm safety/hunter education certificate issued pursuant to section 7;
- (c) “course” means the firearm safety/hunter education course authorized by the ministry pursuant to the firearm safety/hunter education program, and includes a course delivered by electronic media;
- (d) “instructor’s course” means an instructor’s course designed and conducted by the ministry.

Program

3 The ministry shall administer a firearm safety/hunter education program in Saskatchewan to provide instruction in firearm safety, hunter responsibilities and any other subject that may improve the quality of hunting and shooting in Saskatchewan.

Instructors

4(1) The minister may authorize any person to instruct a course who:

- (a) has completed an instructor’s course; or
- (b) in the opinion of the minister, has sufficient knowledge of and training in firearms and wildlife conservation to conduct a course.

(2) If the minister considers it to be in the public interest, the minister may by written notice revoke an authorization pursuant to subsection (1), and the person named in the notice shall immediately stop conducting any course.

Length of course

5(1) Subject to subsection (2), the minimum period of instruction for a course is 16 hours.

(2) The minister may authorize an instructor to conduct a course of less than 16 hours in length if:

- (a) the course is delivered by electronic media; or
- (b) the minister is satisfied that special circumstances exist.

Passing mark

6(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who takes the examination prescribed by the ministry and obtains a mark of at least 80% has successfully completed a course.

(2) If the minister is satisfied that special circumstances exist preventing a person from taking the examination mentioned in subsection (1), the minister may authorize an instructor to conduct an oral examination of that person and if the person demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the instructor, a proficiency in firearm safety and hunter education, the person is deemed to have successfully completed a course.

Certificate

7 The minister may issue a certificate to any person who successfully completes a course.

Course required

8 No person born after January 1, 1971 shall apply for, obtain or be granted a game or fur licence unless he or she:

- (a) holds a certificate issued pursuant to these regulations or a similar certificate issued by another jurisdiction and recognized by the ministry; and
- (b) meets any qualifications prescribed in any other Act or regulation with respect to a game or fur licence, as the case may be.

Minimum age

9 No person who is under the age of 11 years shall enrol in a course.

Instructors to be authorized

10 No person shall conduct a course unless he or she is authorized to do so pursuant to these regulations.

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Rental Housing Supplement Amendment Regulations, 2009.

R.R.S. c.S-8 Reg 7 amended

2 The Rental Housing Supplement Regulations are amended in the manner set forth in these regulations.

New section 11.3

3 The following section is added after section 11.2:

“Transitional (2009) – eligibility for RHS benefits

11.3(1) In this section, ‘qualifying client’ means a client who:

(a) was receiving the RHS benefit before the coming into force of The Rental Housing Supplement Amendment Regulations, 2009; and

(b) as a result of the coming into force of The Rental Housing Supplement Amendment Regulations, 2009 would no longer be eligible to receive the RHS benefit because the client’s monthly rent is less than the minimum qualifying rent set out in Table 1 or Table 2, as determined on the basis of the variables mentioned in subsection 9(3) or (4), as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, a qualifying client continues to be eligible to receive the RHS benefit until the client's entitlement to receive the RHS benefit is terminated pursuant to section 28 on a ground other than that the client's monthly rent is less than the minimum qualifying rent set out in Table 1 or Table 2, as determined on the basis of the variables mentioned in subsection 9(3) or (4), as the case may be".

The Automobile Accident Insurance Act

Section 81

Order in Council 29/2009, dated January 14, 2009

(Filed January 15, 2009)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Automobile Accident Insurance (General) Amendment Regulations, 2009.

R.R.S. c.A-35 Reg 4 amended

2 The Automobile Accident Insurance (General) Regulations, 2002 are amended in the manner set forth in these regulations.

Section 2 amended

3 The following clause is added after clause 2(1)(p):

“(p.1) ‘restricted bus’ means a bus or van that is used exclusively:

(i) to transport, without compensation, individuals to and from places of religious worship or study; or

(ii) to transport, without compensation, patients or persons with special needs to and from hospitals, special-care homes or other facilities as defined in The Regional Health Services Act”.

Section 26 amended4 Section 26 is amended:

(a) by renumbering it as subsection 26(1);

(b) in subsection (1):

(i) by repealing clause (c) and substituting the following:

“(c) ‘clear year’ means, with respect to a driver, a period of 365 consecutive days commencing on or after January 1, 1995 in which the driver was not involved in a chargeable incident”; and

(ii) by adding the following clause after clause (d):

“(e) ‘multiple incident’ means an event described in subsection (2)”; and

(c) by adding the following subsection after subsection (1):

“(2) For the purposes of this Part, a driver is considered to have been involved in a multiple incident if the driver:

(a) is involved in a motor vehicle accident that is determined to be a chargeable incident against the driver; and

(b) is charged and subsequently convicted of one or more of the chargeable incidents that:

(i) are set out in items 5, 6 and 7 of Appendix B, other than a conviction for contravening subsection 140(1) or (3) of The Traffic Safety Act; and

(ii) occurred on the same day as the motor vehicle accident mentioned in clause (a)”.

Section 26.1 amended

5 Clause 26.1(1)(a) is amended by striking out “bus” and substituting “restricted bus”.

New section 27

6 Section 27 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Safety rating

27(1) The insurer shall not consider any driver’s record or motor vehicle accident claims history that predates January 1, 1995.

(2) Subject to these regulations, in determining a driver’s safety rating the insurer shall:

(a) in the case of a chargeable incident, subtract the assigned points for the chargeable incident from the driver’s safety rating; and

(b) in the case of a clear year, add one point to the driver’s safety rating.

(3) For each chargeable incident, a driver shall pay a surcharge based on the driver’s accumulated points for all chargeable incidents, including the chargeable incident for which the surcharge is being determined, in the amount set out in Table 2.

(4) Notwithstanding clause (2)(a) and subsection (3), if a driver is involved in a multiple incident:

(a) the insurer shall subtract the assigned points from the driver's safety rating for the motor vehicle accident that is a chargeable incident; and

(b) the driver shall pay a surcharge, if applicable, for the motor vehicle accident mentioned in clause (a).

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), if a driver is involved in a multiple incident and the driver is determined to have a safety rating of minus one or lower as a result of the multiple incident:

(a) the insurer shall subtract the assigned points from the driver's safety rating for all the chargeable incidents that are associated with the multiple incident; and

(b) the driver shall pay a surcharge for the motor vehicle accident that is a chargeable incident.

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (5), the insurer shall subtract the assigned points from a driver's safety rating for all the chargeable incidents that are associated with the multiple incident if:

(a) the driver is involved in a multiple incident and the driver is determined to have a safety rating of minus one or lower as a result of the multiple incident; and

(b) the motor vehicle accident is determined by the board or the insurer at any time to not be a chargeable incident or the driver fully reimburses the insurer for the motor vehicle accident in accordance with section 30.

(7) If a driver has three consecutive clear years and, at the end of those three consecutive clear years, has a safety rating of minus one or lower, the insurer shall:

(a) remove any assigned points entered against the driver's safety rating; and

(b) place the driver at zero on the safety rating scale.

(8) The accumulated points registered against a driver's safety rating pursuant to this section is the driver's safety rating.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations and subject to subsection (10), the insurer shall determine the safety rating of a co-owner who does not reside in Saskatchewan based on his or her:

(a) driving record within Saskatchewan; and

(b) motor vehicle accident claims history.

(10) If a co-owner mentioned in subsection (9) does not have a driving record within Saskatchewan or a motor vehicle accident claims history, the co-owner's safety rating is deemed to be zero".

New section 27.17 The following section is added after section 27:*“Surcharge to be paid for convictions for special offences

27.1(1) In this section and in section 29, ‘special offence’ means an offence contrary to any of the following provisions of the Criminal Code:

- (a) section 220;
- (b) section 221;
- (c) section 236;
- (d) subsection 249(3) or (4);
- (e) subsection 249.1(3) or (4);
- (f) section 249.2;
- (g) section 249.3;
- (h) subsection 249.4(3) or (4);
- (i) subsection 252(1) if death or bodily injury occurs;
- (j) paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b) if death or bodily injury occurs;
- (k) subsection 254(5) if death or bodily injury occurs.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Part, if a driver is convicted of a special offence:

- (a) if the driver has a safety rating of greater than minus 11, the driver’s safety rating is deemed to be minus 20; and
- (b) the insurer shall charge the driver, and the driver shall pay, a surcharge of $2,500”.

New section 288 Section 28 is repealed and the following substituted:*“Safety rating for drivers establishing a residence in Saskatchewan

28(1) If a person establishes a residence or re-establishes a residence in Saskatchewan, for the purpose of initially placing the driver on the safety rating scale, the insurer shall:

- (a) determine the number of points that, in the opinion of the insurer, the person would have accumulated based on the number of at-fault motor vehicle accidents since January 1, 1995;
- (b) determine the number of points that, in the opinion of the insurer, the person would have accumulated based on the number of convictions the person has for chargeable offences as if those offences occurred in Saskatchewan since January 1, 1995;
- (c) determine the number of points that the person would have earned for clear years based on the person’s driving history as if that person, during that period, had been issued a valid Saskatchewan driver’s licence; and
- (d) place the person on the safety rating scale pursuant to this Part.

(2) In making a determination pursuant to subsection (1), the insurer shall consider all reports and other information that, on reasonable grounds, it considers relevant to the determination.

(3) For the purposes of assisting in making a determination pursuant to subsection (1) and in determining whether a person who is establishing or re-establishing residence in Saskatchewan should be credited with one or more clear years:

(a) the person may provide the insurer with a copy of the person's insurance claims history in a form that is acceptable to the insurer; and

(b) the insurer shall consider the person's insurance claims history provided pursuant to clause (a) in addition to any other information that the insurer, on reasonable grounds, considers relevant to the determination.

(4) In making a determination pursuant to subsection (1), the insurer shall not impose a surcharge on a driver, and the driver is not required to pay a surcharge, for any chargeable incident that arose before the date the insurer makes the determination pursuant to subsection (1)".

Section 29 amended

9(1) Subsection 29(5) is repealed and the following substituted:

"(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, if a driver is convicted of an offence contrary to section 219, 220, 221 or 236, paragraph 249(1)(a), subsection 249(3) or (4), section 249.1, section 252, paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), subsection 254(5), subsection 255(2), (2.1), (2.2), (3), (3.1) or (3.2) or subsection 259(4) of the Criminal Code and the offence was committed by means of a motor vehicle:

(a) if the driver has a safety rating of greater than minus 11, the driver's safety rating is deemed to be minus 20; and

(b) the insurer shall charge the driver, and the driver shall pay, the maximum surcharge of $500".

(2) Subsection 29(5) is repealed and the following substituted:

"(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, if a driver is convicted of an offence contrary to section 219, 220, 221, 236, paragraph 249(1)(a), subsection 249(3) or (4), section 249.1, 249.2, 249.3, 249.4, 252, paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), subsection 254(5), subsection 255(2), (2.1), (2.2), (3), (3.1) or (3.2) or subsection 259(4) of the Criminal Code, the offence was committed by means of a motor vehicle and the offence is not a special offence:

(a) if the driver has a safety rating of greater than minus 11, the driver's safety rating is deemed to be minus 20; and

(b) the insurer shall charge the driver, and the driver shall pay, the maximum surcharge of $500".
