 - (ii) by the signature on the resolution of 80% of owners of units who are entitled to exercise the powers of voting conferred by this Act or the bylaws of the corporation; or
 - (iii) from 80% of owners of units who are entitled to exercise the powers of voting conferred by this Act or the bylaws of the corporation by some combination of the processes set out in subclauses (b)(i) and (ii).

(5) If a corporation passes or approves a resolution in accordance with clause (4)(b), the corporation shall serve the following on every owner who did not vote or who voted against the resolution, and who did not approve the resolution in writing:

- (a) notice of the resolution mentioned in clause (4)(b); and
- (b) a description of the owners' right to object to the resolution pursuant to this section.

(6) An owner may apply to the court within 30 days after being served with the notice mentioned in subsection (5) to object to the resolution.

(7) An applicant mentioned in subsection (6) shall serve notice of the application on:

- (a) the board of directors of the corporation; and
- (b) the owners of units.

CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY

- (8) On an application pursuant to subsection (6), the court may:
 - (a) accept any evidence that the court considers appropriate; and
 - (b) make one or more of the following orders:
 - (i) an order confirming the bylaw;
 - (ii) an order directing the corporation to file the bylaws that are the subject of the resolution, including ordering the corporation to make any changes to those bylaws before filing as the court may direct;
 - (iii) any other order that the court considers fair and equitable.
- (9) No bylaw made, amended or repealed in accordance with this section is effective until the corporation files a copy of the bylaw, amendment or repeal with the Director in the prescribed manner.
- (10) Notwithstanding subsection (9), no bylaw made, amended or repealed using a resolution mentioned in clause (4)(b) shall be filed with the Director:
 - (a) if no application is made pursuant to subsection (6), until 30 days have passed since the notice of resolution was served in accordance with subsection (5); or
 - (b) if an application is made pursuant to subsection (6), until the court directs the bylaws to be filed in an order made pursuant to clause (8)(b)".
