

PART IIREVISED REGULATIONS OF SASKATCHEWAN*CHAPTER P-43.1 REG 2The Public Trustee Act*

[Section 54]

Order in Council 606/1999, dated October 20, 1999

(Filed October 21, 1999)

Title1 These regulations may be cited as The Public Trustee Regulations, 1999.Interpretation*2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Public Trustee Act;
- (b) “account” means an account held on behalf of a person or organization in the common fund;
- (c) “gross assets” means, with respect to:
 - (i) infants' property, all property administered by the public trustee on behalf of an infant;
 - (ii) property of dependent adults, all assets of a dependent adult recorded with the public trustee without deduction for debts and liabilities, but does not include assets consisting of:
 - (A) grain on hand;
 - (B) the value of standing crops, livestock, farm equipment, household furnishings, clothing, dry goods, vehicles, musical instruments or tools; and
 - (C) personal property that the public trustee considers should, in the best interests of the dependent adult, be exempted from the calculation of fees;
 - (iii) property of a person declared to be an absentee pursuant to The Absentee Act, all assets of the absentee recorded with the public trustee without deduction for debts and liabilities; and
 - (iv) a power of attorney, all assets that are subject to the terms and conditions of the power of attorney recorded with the public trustee without a deduction for debts and liabilities.

Power to charge fees3(1) Where the public trustee performs a service pursuant to the powers or duties set out in the Act, the public trustee may charge a fee for that service in the amount prescribed in these regulations.(2) Where the public trustee performs a service pursuant to the powers or duties prescribed in the Act on behalf of the estate of a deceased person, the public trustee may charge the same fee that the public trustee may charge for performing the same service for a dependent adult.

Calculation of interest

4 After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the interest earned by the public trustee during a month in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Interest} = (A + B - C) + (D + E - F) - G$$

where:

A is the accrued interest on the public trustee's bank accounts at the end of that month;

B is the interest received on the public trustee's bank accounts during that month;

C is the accrued interest on the public trustee's bank accounts at the end of the previous month;

D is the accrued interest from all common fund investments at the end of that month;

E is the interest received from all common fund investments during that month;

F is the accrued interest from all common fund investments at the end of the previous month; and

G is the total of the amounts paid as interest during that month to clients pursuant to subsection 5(2).

Distribution of interest

5(1) After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the interest payable to each client in accordance with the following formula and distribute that amount to each client's account:

$$\text{Interest payable} = \frac{A \times B}{C}$$

where:

A is the interest calculated pursuant to section 4;

B is the average of the daily closing balances for that month for that client; and

C is the total of the average of the daily closing balances for that month for all clients of the public trustee.

(2) Where the public trustee releases a client's account before the end of the month, the public trustee shall calculate the interest payable on the client's account in accordance with the following formula and distribute that amount to the client's account:

$$\text{Interest payable} = \frac{A \times B \times D}{C \times E}$$

where:

A is the average of the daily closing balances for that client's account from the first day of that month to the day before the day of distribution to the client's account;

B is the interest calculated pursuant to section 4 for the previous month;

C is the total of the average of the daily closing balances for the previous month for all clients of the public trustee;

D is the number of days from the first day of the month to the day before the day of distribution to the client's account; and

E is the number of days in the previous month.

Calculation and distribution of dividends

6(1) After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the dividends in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Dividends} = A + B - C$$

where:

A is the accrued dividends from all common fund investments at the end of that month;

B is the dividends received from all common fund investments during that month; and

C is the accrued dividends from all common fund investments at the end of the previous month.

(2) After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the dividends payable to each client calculated in accordance with the following formula and distribute that amount to each client's account:

$$\text{Dividends payable} = \frac{A \times B}{C}$$

where:

A is the dividends calculated pursuant to subsection (1);

B is the average of the daily closing balances for that month for that client; and

C is the total of the average of the daily closing balances for that month for all clients of the public trustee.

Calculation of realized capital gains and losses

7 After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the realized capital gains or losses in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Realized capital gains or losses} = A - B$$

where:

A is the total of the sale prices of investments sold out of the common fund in that month; and

B is the total of the purchase prices of those investments.

Calculation of unrealized capital gains or losses

8(1) After the end of the month, the public trustee shall calculate the unrealized capital gains or losses in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Unrealized capital gains or losses} = A - B$$

where:

A is the market value of all common fund investments at the end of the month;
and

B is the total purchase price of all common fund investments.

(2) After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the total capital gains or losses in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Total capital gains or losses} = A - B + C$$

where:

A is the unrealized capital gains or losses for that month calculated pursuant to subsection (1);

B is the unrealized capital gains or losses for the previous month calculated pursuant to subsection (1); and

C is the realized capital gains or losses for that month calculated pursuant to section 7.

Calculation of potential capital gains or losses

9 After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the potential capital gains or losses in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Potential capital gains or losses} = A + B$$

where:

A is 1/48 of the total capital gains or losses calculated pursuant to subsection 8(2); and

B is 1/47 of the total of the undistributed capital gains or losses for each of the preceding 47 months.

Gains and losses for previous months

10(1) In this section, "former regulations" means The Public Trustee Regulations as those regulations existed on the day before the coming into force of this section.

(2) The amount of undistributed capital gains or losses is deemed to be:

(a) for each month from October 1, 1995 to March 31, 1996, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;

(b) for each month from April 1, 1996 to September 30, 1996, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;

(c) for each month from October 1, 1996 to March 31, 1997, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;

- (d) for each month from April 1, 1997 to September 30, 1997, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;
- (e) for each month from October 1, 1997 to March 31, 1998, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;
- (f) for each month from April 1, 1998 to September 30, 1998, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;
- (g) for each month from October 1, 1998 to March 31, 1999, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations;
- (h) for each month from April 1, 1999 to September 30, 1999, 1/6 of the amount calculated in accordance with the former regulations.

Distribution of distributable capital gains or losses

11(1) After the end of each month, the public trustee shall set the distributable capital gains or losses as the greater of:

- (a) the potential capital gains or losses calculated pursuant to section 9; and
- (b) the realized capital gains or losses calculated pursuant to section 7.

(2) After the end of each month, the public trustee shall calculate the distributable capital gains or losses for a client, for that month, in accordance with the following formula and distribute that amount to each client's account:

$$\text{Distributable capital gains or losses} = \frac{A \times B}{C}$$

where:

A is the distributable capital gains or losses set pursuant to subsection (1);

B is the average of the daily closing balances for that month for that client; and

C is the total of the average of the daily closing balances for that month for all clients of the public trustee.

Undistributed capital gains or losses

12 After the end of each month, the public trustee shall establish the undistributed capital gains or losses for that month calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Undistributed capital gains or losses} = A - B$$

where:

A is the total capital gains or losses calculated pursuant to subsection 8(2); and

B is the distributable capital gains or losses set pursuant to subsection 11(1).

Account set-up fee

13 The public trustee may charge a fee of $20 in the case of an infant and $200 in the case of a dependent adult for the setting up of an account for the infant or dependent adult.

Fee for sale of real property

14 The public trustee may charge the following fees for handling a real estate transaction for any client of the public trustee or that client's estate:

- (a) where a real estate agent is involved in the transaction, 1% of the purchase price with a minimum fee of $100 and a maximum fee of $500; and
- (b) where no real estate agent is involved in the transaction, 3% of the purchase price with a minimum fee of $100 and a maximum fee of $500.

Fees for filing income tax returns

15(1) The public trustee may charge a fee of $30 for every tax return filed on behalf of any client of the public trustee.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the public trustee, the work performed by him or her warrants a fee that is greater than the fee mentioned in this section, the public trustee may charge a greater fee, to a maximum of $100.

(3) The public trustee may charge a fee of $100 for every tax return filed on behalf of an absentee pursuant to The Absentee Act.

(4) Where, in the opinion of the public trustee, the work performed by him or her warrants a fee that is greater than the fee mentioned in subsection (3), the public trustee may charge a greater fee, to a maximum of $300.

Litigation guardian fees

16 The public trustee may charge a fee of $500 for acting as litigation guardian.

Personal income protection program

17 The public trustee may charge a fee of $50 for processing the file and providing advice for each infant for whom payments are made under the personal injury protection plan pursuant to Part VIII of The Automobile Accident Insurance Act.

Recovery of disbursements

18 The public trustee may recover any actual and reasonable disbursement made on behalf of a client of the public trustee from that client or the estate of that client.

Fees for dependent adults

19 Where the public trustee administers the property of a dependent adult, the public trustee may charge the following fees:

- (a) 7% of the income received from:
 - (i) agricultural or commercial enterprises;
 - (ii) a lease of residential property; and
 - (iii) real property other than the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage;
- (b) 5% of the income received from:
 - (i) bank deposits;
 - (ii) bonds, debentures and other securities;
 - (iii) the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage on real property; and
 - (iv) any other source;

- (c) for each month, 1/12 of 1% of the market value of the gross assets of the client at the end of that month.

Fees for infants

20 Where the public trustee administers the property of an infant, the public trustee may charge the following fees:

- (a) 7% of the income received from:
 - (i) agricultural or commercial enterprises;
 - (ii) a lease of residential property; and
 - (iii) real property other than the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage;
- (b) for each month, 1/12th of 1% of the market value of the gross assets of the client at the end of that month.

Fees acting as committee

21(1) Where the public trustee is appointed as a committee pursuant to The Absentee Act to administer the property of a person declared to be an absentee pursuant to that Act, the public trustee may charge a fee equal to the greater of:

- (a) $300; and
- (b) if the value of the gross assets is:
 - (i) $50,000 or less, 7% of the value;
 - (ii) more than $50,000 but $100,000 or less, $3,500 plus 5% of the value in excess of $50,000; or
 - (iii) more than $100,000, $6,000 plus 4% of the value in excess of $100,000.

(2) In addition to the fee payable pursuant to subsection (1), the public trustee may charge the following fees with respect to an absentee's estate file that has been opened for 24 months or more:

- (a) for each month, 1/12 of 1% of the market value of the gross assets of the client at the end of that month;
- (b) 5% of the income received.

Fees for acting as trustee

22 Where the public trustee acts as a trustee pursuant to The Trustee Act, the public trustee may charge the following fees, unless a different fee is ordered by the court or agreed to by the public trustee and the beneficiaries of the trust:

- (a) 7% of the income received from:
 - (i) agricultural or commercial enterprises;
 - (ii) a lease of residential property; and
 - (iii) real property other than the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage;

- (b) 5% of the income received from:
 - (i) bank deposits;
 - (ii) bonds, debentures and other securities;
 - (iii) the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage on real property; and
 - (iv) any other source;
- (c) for each month, 1/12th of 1% of the market value of the gross assets of the trust at the end of that month.

Fees for acting pursuant to power of attorney

23 Where the public trustee administers property pursuant to the terms of a power of attorney, the public trustee may charge the following fees, unless a different fee is agreed to by the public trustee and the person appointing the public trustee to administer the property:

- (a) 7% of the income received from:
 - (i) agricultural or commercial enterprises;
 - (ii) a lease of residential property; and
 - (iii) real property other than the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage;
- (b) 5% of the income received from:
 - (i) bank deposits;
 - (ii) bonds, debentures and other securities;
 - (iii) the interest portion of payments received as a vendor pursuant to an agreement for sale or as a mortgagee pursuant to a mortgage on real property; and
 - (iv) any other source;
- (c) for each month, 1/12th of 1% of the market value of the gross assets of the client at the end of that month.

Fees for certain services

24 The following fees are payable to the public trustee for the following services:

- (a) $15 for a certificate of the public trustee given pursuant to clause 172(1)(a) of The Land Titles Act with respect to an estate the gross value of which is $2,000 or less;
- (b) $30 for a certificate of the public trustee given pursuant to clause 172(1)(a) of The Land Titles Act with respect to an estate the gross value of which exceeds $2,000;

- (c) $15 when the material submitted pursuant to clause (a) or (b) requires further correspondence;
- (d) $20 for a duplicate of a certificate mentioned in clause (a) or (b);
- (e) for a consent pursuant to clause 172(1)(b) of The Land Titles Act to:
 - (i) a proposed dealing by a personal representative with respect to land, $50 where:
 - (A) the estate's interest in the land is of a sworn value of $40,000 or less;
 - (B) the land is being transferred pursuant to the terms of a will;
 - (C) the proposed dealing is made pursuant to a court order; or
 - (D) no infant has or could have an interest in the proposed dealing; or
 - (ii) a proposed dealing not mentioned in subclause (i), $50 plus $1 for each $1,000 or portion of each $1,000 by which the sworn value of the estate's interest in the land exceeds $50,000, to a maximum fee of $500;
- (f) $20 for a duplicate of a consent mentioned in clause (e);
- (g) for a consent to a disposition of land not mentioned in clause (e), $50 plus $1 for each $1,000 or portion of each $1000 by which the sworn value of the land at the time of the disposition exceeds $50,000, to a maximum fee of $500;
- (h) $20 for a duplicate of a consent to a disposition of land mentioned in clause (g);
- (i) $30 for a consent to the withdrawal of any instrument registered against a title;
- (j) $30 for a general consent given pursuant to subsection 172(2) of The Land Titles Act;
- (k) $20 for a duplicate of a general consent mentioned in clause (j);
- (l) $50 for signing of any instrument on behalf of an infant;
- (m) $50 for issuing a consent to a grant of letters of administration of any type without bond;
- (n) for consenting, on behalf of an infant, to a settlement of a claim for personal injuries or a claim made pursuant to The Fatal Accidents Act:
 - (i) $50 where the damages payable to an infant are $10,000 or less;
 - (ii) $100 when the damages payable to an infant are more than $10,000 but not more than $25,000;
 - (iii) $200 when the damages payable to an infant are more than $25,000 but not more than $50,000;
 - (iv) $300 when the damages payable to an infant are more than $50,000 but not more than $100,000; and

(v) for each additional $10,000 of damages payable to an infant or portion of each $10,000 of damages exceeding $100,000, $10, to a maximum fee of $500;

(o) $30 for authorizing payment of infants' funds to a responsible adult pursuant to section 16 of the Act;

(p) $20 for releasing an account.

Infants' maintenance

25(1) The public trustee may pay on behalf of an infant the following from the infant's account:

(a) an annual sum not exceeding:

(i) $3,600 for maintenance or room and board;

(ii) $1,000 for clothing;

(b) the actual cost of tuition at an educational institution;

(c) the actual cost of medical or dental expenses.

(2) When, in the opinion of the public trustee, the best interests of an infant or special circumstances with respect to the infant require that additional expenditures be made, the public trustee may make additional expenditures to satisfy those best interests or meet the special circumstances.

Payments from public trustee's current account

26(1) The public trustee may make the following payments from his or her current account:

(a) payments to the general revenue fund;

(b) refunds of fees where overpayments have been made;

(c) expenditures on behalf of an infant, dependent adult or deceased's estate, where the infant, dependent adult or deceased's estate will reimburse the public trustee when funds become available;

(d) expenditures when acting as a committee pursuant to The Absentee Act, as a trustee pursuant to The Trustee Act or pursuant to a power of attorney, where the absentee's estate, the trust estate or the property that is subject to the power of attorney will be used to reimburse the public trustee when funds become available;

(e) payments to legal counsel acting on behalf of the public trustee.

(2) Payments made pursuant to clauses (1)(c), (d) and (e) that cannot be recovered by the public trustee are to be recovered through appropriation.

Closing of accounts

27(1) As soon as is practicable after an infant for whom the public trustee has administered an account attains the age of 18 years, and on receiving a release of all claims with respect to the administration of the account from the person for whom it was administered, the public trustee shall:

(a) pay to that person, from the common fund, the balance of that person's account; and

(b) deliver to that person all documents, titles and securities held on that person's behalf.

(2) As soon as is practicable after the public trustee ceases to act for a dependent adult and on receiving a release of all claims with respect to the administration of the dependent adult's estate from the person or the person's personal representative, the public trustee shall:

- (a) pay to that person or that person's personal representative, from the common fund, the balance of that person's account; and
- (b) deliver to that person or that person's personal representative all documents, titles and securities held on that person's behalf.

Forms

28(1) The acknowledgement to act mentioned in section 29 of the Act is to be in Form A in the Appendix.

(2) The notice mentioned in section 42 of the Act is to be in Form B in the Appendix.

R.R.S. c.P-43.1 Reg 1 repealed

29 The Public Trustee Regulations are repealed.

Transitional

30 Notwithstanding the repeal of sections 4 and 5 of The Public Trustee Regulations, the fees payable to the public trustee for the period from April 1, 1999 to September 30, 1999 are to be calculated in accordance with those sections except that:

- (a) the amount, for the purposes of clause 4(1)(a), is 0.5% of the value of the gross assets of the infant or dependent adult as at September 30, 1999; and
- (b) the fee mentioned in section 5 is to be charged for the period from April 1, 1999 to September 30, 1999.

Coming into force

31 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

(Select the scope of search preferred).

	Search all names (A name search fee will apply to EVERY name.)
	Search to first available name

Names to Search: (in order of preference) Each name requires a distinctive and descriptive term. A distinctive term distinguishes your name from anyone else in the same type of business. A descriptive term indicates what type of business you will be doing. e.g. Bob's Courier Service. (If you have additional names, please attach a separate page. NOTE: You do not have to enter three or more names if you do not wish to.)

3.

Type(s) of business the business intends to carry on: (please be specific, terms such as manufacturing, consulting, etc. need further clarification.)
