Effect of contractual provisions on seizure

46(1) A sheriff may effect and maintain seizure of an interest mentioned in subsection 45(9) notwithstanding a contractual term in a lease, contract of sale or security agreement pursuant to which the judgment debtor's interest in or right to possession of the property being seized is or may be terminated by its seizure.

(2) When an interest mentioned in subsection 45(9) is seized and the lessor, seller or secured party seeks to exercise a contractual or statutory right to terminate the interest of the judgment debtor or to take possession of the property in which the interest is held, the sheriff may:

- (a) release the seizure, with or without conditions;

48(1) Subject to this section, a fixture and a crop may be seized and sold as personal property.

(2) A sheriff who seizes a fixture or a crop shall do so in accordance with section 41, and shall sell or sever and remove the fixture or crop in a manner causing no greater damage or injury to the land and to other property situated on it, and subjecting the occupier of the land to no greater inconvenience, than is necessarily incidental to the sale or severance of the fixture or crop.

(3) A person who buys a fixture or crop from the sheriff that has not been severed from the land may sever and remove the fixture or crop but is subject to the obligations with respect to severance of the fixture or crop to which the sheriff is subject pursuant to subsection (2).

(4) A person, other than the judgment debtor, who has an interest in land to which a fixture is affixed or on which a crop is growing is entitled to reimbursement for any damage to that interest caused during the severance and removal of the fixture or crop, but is not entitled to reimbursement for reduction in the value of the land resulting from the absence of the fixture or crop, or for the cost of its replacement.

(5) The amount of reimbursement for damage mentioned in subsection (4) shall be determined:

- (a) by the sheriff at the request of the person seeking reimbursement; and
- (b) if the person seeking reimbursement does not accept the amount determined by the sheriff pursuant to clause (a), by the court on application of that person.

(6) If an entitlement to reimbursement arises from the severance and removal of a fixture or crop by the sheriff, the amount of reimbursement mentioned in subsections (4) and (5) is a cost of enforcement to which subsection 110(1) applies.

(7) A person who has an interest in land that is subordinate to an enforcement charge relating to an enforcement instruction may, before the fixture or crop is sold or severed from the land, retain the fixture or crop on payment to the sheriff of the lesser of:

- (a) the amount recoverable in relation to all enforcement charges having priority over the interest of the person, with respect to which an enforcement instruction has been given to the sheriff; and
- (b) the market value of the fixture if it were severed from the land or the market value of the crop as a severed crop.

(8) A sheriff who has seized a fixture or crop shall serve on each person who appears by the records of the land titles registry to have an interest in the land to which the fixture is affixed or on which the crop is growing a notice of the intention of the sheriff to sever and remove or sell the fixture or crop, unless the amount mentioned in subsection (7) is paid on or before a specified day that is not less than 15 days after the notice is served or the court otherwise orders.

(9) A notice of intention to sever and remove or sell mentioned in subsection (8) may be served on a person at the address of the person appearing in the land titles registry, if any, or pursuant to section 121.

(10) On payment of the amount mentioned in subsection (7), the fixture or crop is released from the enforcement charge and:

- (a) a person who has paid the market value of the fixture or crop shall become the owner of the judgment debtor's interest in the fixture or crop; and
- (b) a person who has paid less than the market value of the fixture if it were severed from the land or the crop as a crop is deemed to have a security interest in the judgment debtor's interest in the fixture or crop, to which The Personal Property Security Act, 1993 applies, to the extent of the amount paid and interest on that amount at the rate set for unpaid judgments, calculated from the date when payment was made to the sheriff.

(11) Subject to subsection (12), the priority of the security interest mentioned in clause (10)(b) in relation to other interests in the fixture or crop shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of The Personal Property Security Act, 1993 relating to security interests generally.

(12) If the security interest mentioned in clause (10)(b) is registered as required by The Personal Property Security Act, 1993 on or before the date on which the amount mentioned in subsection (7) is paid to the sheriff, the security interest shall have the priority status in relation to other interests in the fixture or crop that the enforcement charge had immediately before its release pursuant to subsection (10).

(13) If the judgment debtor is a co-owner of a crop that has been seized, the sheriff may, subject to a landlord's right of distress:

- (a) seize and sell the whole crop and divide the proceeds in proportion to the interests of the judgment debtor and any other person;

- (b) arrange for harvest of the crop and divide the crop, once harvested, in proportion to the interests of the judgment debtor and any other person; or
- (c) sell the judgment debtor's interest in the crop to another person holding an interest in the crop at the market value of the interest as a severed crop or at a value determined on application to the court.

Seizure of jointly held property

49(1) Subject to section 50, if a judgment debtor is a co-owner of property with one or more persons, including property that is an account, the sheriff may seize or collect, and if appropriate sell, the property in its entirety and divide the proceeds in accordance with the respective interests of the owners as follows:

- (a) by application of the portion attributable to the judgment debtor's interest in the property as money received as a result of seizure; and
- (b) by payment of the portion attributable to the interest of a co-owner, other than the judgment debtor, to the person entitled to it.

(2) Subject to subsection (8), when a sheriff collects or seizes property as provided in subsection (1), each co-owner is deemed to own an equal, separate share in the property.

(3) Except as otherwise ordered by the court, the costs of seizure and sale of property as provided in subsection (1) shall be deducted from the portion of the sale proceeds attributable to the judgment debtor's interest in the property.

(4) If an interest in an account is seized, an account debtor who pays to the sheriff or an assignee of the sheriff an amount that represents the portion of the account set out in the notice of seizure is, to the extent of the amount paid, discharged from the obligation:

- (a) to the judgment debtor; and
- (b) if the amount paid exceeds the interest of the judgment debtor, to a co-owner to the extent of the excess amount.

(5) A co-owner of tangible property seized as provided in subsection (1), other than the judgment debtor, is entitled to purchase for market value the judgment debtor's interest in the property at any time before the sheriff has contracted to sell the property to another person.

(6) Within five days after the date of seizure of co-owned property, notice of a co-owner's right of purchase as provided in subsection (5) shall be served on each co-owner of the property who is known to the sheriff, other than the judgment debtor, at the address of the person appearing in the land titles registry, if any, or pursuant to section 121.

 - (b) when served as provided in clause (a), is deemed to have been served on all holders of securities of the issuer when it has been served on all registered holders of securities of the issuer disclosed pursuant to subsection (4).
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), the sheriff may sell a security that has been seized pursuant to section 53 if:
- (a) no person on whom a notice was served pursuant to subsection (5) has advised the sheriff in writing within 10 days after the date on which the notice was served of the person's intention to exercise the right mentioned in subsection (9); or

- (11) Subject to subsection (12), the priority of the security interest mentioned in clause (10)(c) in relation to other interests in the security shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of The Personal Property Security Act, 1993 relating to security interests generally.
- (12) If the security interest mentioned in clause (10)(c) is perfected on or before the date on which the amount mentioned in subsection (9) is paid to the sheriff, the security interest shall have the priority status in relation to other interests in the security that the enforcement charge had immediately before its release pursuant to clause (10)(a).
- (13) Subsections (9) and (10) do not apply when more than one person advises the sheriff of an intention to pay the amount recoverable or the value of the security within the period mentioned in clause (7)(a).
- (14) If no person advises the sheriff of an intention to exercise the right mentioned in subsection (9) within the period mentioned in clause (7)(a) or if subsection (13) applies, the holder of a security may require the sheriff to offer all of that person's securities for sale, along with the security seized, on terms identical to those under which the security seized is to be sold:
- (a) on tender to the sheriff of executed security transfer documents relating to all of that person's securities in the issuer; and
 - (b) on proof satisfactory to the sheriff of compliance with the bylaws, articles or internal rules of the issuer or the terms of a shareholders' agreement affecting the disposal of the security.
- (15) When a seizure does not affect all of the securities of an issuer owned by the judgment debtor, the judgment debtor is entitled to exercise the rights of a holder of a security provided in subsection (14) with respect to the securities that have not been seized.

- (16) Nothing in subsection (14) or (15):
- (a) precludes the sheriff from selling only the security seized if, in the opinion of the sheriff, all of the securities offered for sale pursuant to subsections (14) and (15) cannot be sold; or
 - (b) permits the sheriff to sell fewer than the total number of securities of a person mentioned in subsection (14) or (15), except with the express consent of that person.
- (17) When selling a security, the sheriff shall employ a method of sale that follows as closely as possible the procedure that, pursuant to the bylaws, articles or internal rules of the issuer or a shareholders' agreement, the judgment debtor would be required to follow when selling the security.
- (18) A person mentioned in clause (10)(b) or (c) and a person who purchases a security in a sheriff's sale:
- (a) acquires all the rights of the judgment debtor in the security or associated with it, including the right to be treated as a party to a shareholders' agreement relating to the management of the affairs of the issuer;
 - (b) is entitled to be registered as owner of the security in the records of the issuer in place of the judgment debtor, and the issuer of the security shall amend its records to indicate the rights of that person;
 - (c) is deemed to have purchased the security or acquired the security interest in a transaction that complied with the terms of a restriction, prohibition or preferential right mentioned in subsection (2);

 - (e) except as provided in clauses (c) and (d), is subject to the obligations associated with ownership of the security.
- (19) On application by a person who is entitled to acquire a security seized by the sheriff or to otherwise receive a benefit under the terms of a restriction, prohibition or preferential right mentioned in subsection (2), the court may order that, when selling the security of the judgment debtor, the sheriff observe a restriction, prohibition or preferential right, or proceed on such other terms as may be required to recognize or preserve the applicant's entitlement, when:
- (a) the applicant has made a substantial contribution to the operation of the issuer that has materially enhanced the value of the security of the issuer; and
 - (b) a sale of the judgment debtor's security in accordance with this section would unfairly deprive the applicant of an entitlement to acquire a security or receive a benefit granted or acquired in recognition of that contribution.

PART VII
Seizure of Existing and Future Accounts

Location of an account

57 For the purposes of this Act, an account is deemed to be located where it is recoverable.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.57.

Methods of seizing an account

58(1) Subject to sections 60 and 64, a sheriff may seize an account by personally serving a notice of seizure on the account debtor or on the judgment debtor.

(2) When an account debtor has been served with a notice of seizure of an account or a notice that an account has been assigned by the sheriff, the account debtor is deemed to have received from the judgment debtor a demand to discharge the account immediately or at such time as the account, if payable at a future time, becomes payable:

- (a) in the case of notice of seizure, by payment to the sheriff; and
- (b) in the case of notice that the account has been assigned, by payment to the assignee of the sheriff.

(3) A sheriff who has seized an account by serving a notice on the account debtor shall serve a copy of the notice of seizure on the judgment debtor as soon as is practicable after the seizure.

(4) Money that is proceeds of an account seized in accordance with subsection (1) that is collected by the judgment debtor after notice of seizure of the account has been served on the judgment debtor shall be held in trust by the judgment debtor on the conditions specified by the sheriff in the notice of seizure or otherwise communicated by the sheriff in writing.

(5) A notice of seizure is effective with respect to a future account notwithstanding that the legal relationship out of which the account arose did not exist at the date the notice was served.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a person on whom a notice of seizure is served as provided in subsection (1) is deemed to be an account debtor.

(7) A sheriff shall not serve a notice of seizure on a person mentioned in subsection (6) unless the sheriff has reasonable grounds to believe that a legal relationship exists between the judgment debtor and the person out of which an account is likely to arise or that such a legal relationship is likely to come into existence within a reasonable period after the notice of seizure is served.

Seizure of a deposit account

60(1) A seizure of a deposit account only affects the obligations of a deposit-taking institution that exists on the day on which the notice of seizure is served.

(2) A deposit account is an existing obligation for the purposes of subsection (1) and the account debtor must comply with section 62, even though the depositor must take a procedural step, including serving notice or presenting a passbook or a document, other than a negotiable instrument, as a condition of the depositor's entitlement to enforce the obligation.

(3) A sheriff may seize a deposit account by serving a notice of seizure on the branch of a deposit-taking institution where the account is held.

- (a) setting out the basis for the assertion that the person is not obligated to make payment to the sheriff;
 - (b) if the account is due but not payable, setting out the date or the event on which the account will become payable; and

- (2) Payment to the sheriff in accordance with subsection (1) is a complete defence to any action against the account debtor for failure to honour the assignment or security interest.
- (3) If the assignee or secured party objects to the payment made to the sheriff pursuant to subsection (1), the assignee or secured party shall provide written notice of the objection to the sheriff within 10 days after being notified of the payment.

(4) Subject to the priority of an enforcement charge relating to a judgment being enforced by the sheriff, within five days after receiving the written notice mentioned in subsection (3), the sheriff shall:

(6) A notice of seizure that is served on a day falling after the date determined pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) is not effective for the pay period within which it is served, but is effective for all subsequent pay periods ending within 24 months after the date on which the notice is served unless the sheriff notifies the account debtor otherwise.

(7) An account debtor who is served with a notice of seizure affecting employment remuneration is required to pay to the sheriff the net employment remuneration payable to the judgment debtor with respect to each pay period for which the notice of seizure is effective after deducting the amount that is exempt pursuant to section 95.

(8) An account debtor who acts in good faith and with reasonable care is not liable for loss resulting from an error in determining the amount of the judgment debtor's employment remuneration that is exempt pursuant to section 95.

(9) Unless otherwise instructed in writing by the sheriff, an account debtor shall provide to the sheriff, not later than 10 days after every pay period for which a notice of seizure is effective, a written statement for each pay period setting out:

(2) Payment to the sheriff of the amount specified in a notice of seizure of an account or of the amount determined as provided by subsection 64(7) discharges the obligation of the account debtor to the extent of the amount paid.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), an account debtor is entitled to exercise a right of set-off against an account seized by the sheriff to the same extent as the account debtor could exercise a right of set-off against the claim of the judgment debtor to payment of the account.

(4) An account debtor shall not set off against an account seized by the sheriff a claim or obligation that arose after the notice of seizure is served on the account debtor unless the claim or obligation could have been set off against an assignee of the account.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.65.

Validity of claim

66 On application, the court may determine the following with respect to an account debtor who is served with a notice of seizure of an account:

- (a) in favour of a judgment creditor who gave an enforcement instruction in relation to which the seizure was made:
 - (i) in the amount that the account debtor is obliged to pay to the sheriff pursuant to section 62 or 64; and
 - (ii) for the costs of the proceedings and the sheriff's fees and costs of seizure; or
 - (b) in favour of:

 - (ii) the judgment creditor mentioned in clause (a) for the costs of the proceedings and the sheriff's fees and costs of seizure.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.69.

Payment into court

70 If money is paid into court by a person in connection with legal proceedings between that person and a judgment debtor, the person is discharged from any obligations that have arisen or that could arise pursuant to sections 62 and 64 as a result of a notice of seizure served on that person by the sheriff, to the extent of the amount paid into court.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.70.

Seizure of money in court or in the possession of the sheriff

- (6) The sheriff may effect seizure pursuant to subsection (5):
- (a) in the circumstances mentioned in clause (5)(a), by serving notice on the judgment debtor who is also a judgment creditor; and 2010, c.E-9.22, s.71.

PART VIII Receivership

Receivership

- 72(1) On application by the sheriff or an enforcing judgment creditor, the court may:
- (a) appoint a receiver, with or without security, of specified exigible property or specified kinds of exigible property if the court concludes that seizure or sale of the property through enforcement measures otherwise provided in this Act would be inappropriate or inefficient because of:
 - (i) the nature or location of the property;
 - (ii) a third party interest in the property;
 - (iii) the immunity of the Crown in right of Saskatchewan or the Crown in right of Canada;
 - (iv) a logistical impediment to seizure and sale of the property resulting from the conduct of the judgment debtor or otherwise;
 - (v) potential costs and expenses of seizure and sale; or
 - (vi) any other reason;
 - (b) order the judgment debtor or other person in possession of exigible property to deliver it to a receiver appointed pursuant to this section; and
 - (c) order an account debtor to pay the account to a receiver when it is payable.
- (2) Subject to this Part and Part II, on an application pursuant to subsection (1), the court has the powers set out in subsection 65(1) of The Queen's Bench Act, 1998, free of the limitations pertaining to the appointment of receivers imposed by the law as it existed on the day before the coming into force of this Act.
- (3) Unless otherwise stated in the order, an order made pursuant to subsection (1) has the following effects:
- (a) it enjoins the judgment debtor from disposing of or dealing with the property other than for the purposes of meeting ordinary business and living expenses of the judgment debtor and the judgment debtor's dependants;

- (b) it enjoins a person other than the judgment debtor who is in control or possession of the property, or who may acquire control or possession of the property, from disposing of or dealing with the property other than in a manner consistent with the exercise of legal rights deriving from an interest in the property that has priority over an enforcement charge relating to a subsisting enforcement instruction;
 - (c) it empowers the receiver to collect and take possession or control of the property;
 - (d) it requires the receiver to deliver possession or control of the property to the sheriff, and to remit to the sheriff any sum collected by the receiver in excess of the receiver's costs and fees;
 - (e) it authorizes the receiver to take conservatory measures to protect the property or its value;
 - (f) it authorizes the receiver to exercise any power or right necessarily incidental to enforcement of a judgment with respect to the property or its disposition that the judgment debtor had at the date of appointment of the receiver or that the judgment debtor acquires after that date until the property has been delivered to the sheriff or the order terminates;
 - (g) it discharges any person who delivers property to the receiver or who pays an account to the receiver from the person's obligations to the judgment debtor with respect to the property delivered or the account paid.
- (4) An order made pursuant to this section may permit the judgment debtor or person in possession of the property to retain and use it in the manner set out in the order.
- (5) On an application made pursuant to this section, the court shall consider any relevant fact or matter, including the following:
- (a) any conduct of the judgment debtor or another person that is likely to make enforcement of the judgment to which the application relates difficult or costly;
 - (b) the extent to which an order would result in undue hardship to the judgment debtor, the judgment debtor's dependants or a person in possession or control of the property;
 - (c) the probable costs of a receivership in relation to the amount that is likely to be recovered by a receiver to be applied to satisfaction of the judgment to which the application relates.
- (6) The court shall not make an order pursuant to this section:
- (a) if the amount recoverable with respect to which enforcement is sought is less than the prescribed amount; or
 - (b) if it relates to exigible property that, in the opinion of the court, has a value greater than is sufficient to satisfy:
 - (i) the amount recoverable with respect to which enforcement is sought;
 - (ii) the costs of obtaining the order; and
 - (iii) the costs and remuneration of the receiver.

- (7) Unless the court orders otherwise:
- (a) property collected by or taken into the control of a receiver is deemed for the purposes of Part X to be property seized by the sheriff;
 - (b) property delivered to the possession or control of the sheriff pursuant to clause (3)(d) is deemed to be property seized by the sheriff;
 - (c) a receiver has the same protection and immunities from liability when acting as a receiver pursuant to this Act as a sheriff acting pursuant to this Act; and
 - (d) a receiver shall not sell or otherwise dispose of the property to which the appointment relates until instructed to do so by the sheriff of the judicial centre at which the order appointing the receiver was made.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.72.

 - (c) a final report and account on completion of the receiver's duties.
- (2) The sheriff may:
- (a) instruct the receiver to sell property in accordance with Part XI;
 - (b) examine and approve the receiver's accounts and reports, fix the remuneration of the receiver, discharge the security provided by the receiver, if any, and terminate the receivership; or
 - (c) require the receiver to apply to the court for an order approving the receiver's accounts or reports, fixing the remuneration of the receiver, discharging the security provided by the receiver, or terminating the receivership.

(3) A sheriff shall serve on the judgment debtor and on all enforcing judgment creditors notice of the sheriff's intention to:

- (a) discharge the security provided by the receiver; or
- (b) terminate the receivership as provided in subsection (2).

(4) A sheriff shall not discharge the security provided by the receiver or terminate the receivership until 15 days after the date on which the last of the notices mentioned in subsection (3) has been served.

(5) A decision made by the sheriff pursuant to clause (2)(b) may be reviewed by the court on application by any interested party.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.74.

Supervision by the court

75 On application, including an application by a receiver, the court may do one or more of the following:

 - (b) the person asserting the third person claim.
- (2) A notice of intention to interplead mentioned in subsection (1) shall indicate that the validity of the third person claim will be determined through interpleader proceedings pursuant to The Queen's Bench Rules unless the third person claim or all notices of dispute of the third person claim are withdrawn within five days after the notice of intention to interplead is served.

- (b) if at the date of seizure or the date a receiving order affecting the property was made the property subject to the claim was in the possession or control of a person other than the judgment debtor, or was under joint possession or control of another person and the judgment debtor or an agent of the judgment debtor, the onus of proof that the claim is not valid is on the judgment creditor serving notice of dispute of the claim; and
- (c) if the property subject to the claim is an account, the onus of proof that the claim is valid is on the claimant.

- (2) Notwithstanding clause (1)(b), the court may direct that the claimant prove the validity of the third person claim if:
- (a) property subject to a third person claim was in the possession or control of the claimant at the date of seizure or the date a receiving order affecting the property was made; and

- (4) In an application pursuant to subsection (2), the onus of proof that the value of an item of property is not significantly in excess of the value of an equivalent item of property is on the judgment debtor claiming the exemption.
- (5) Subject to subsection (12), if an exempt item of property of the judgment debtor is damaged, destroyed or expropriated, any insurance proceeds, indemnity payments or compensation payments may be retained by the judgment debtor as exempt property for the purpose of:

- (a) to the holder of the security interest to the extent of the sum secured and any costs to which that person is entitled;
- (b) the balance remaining, if any, to the sheriff to be paid, subject to the rights of persons against whom exemptions may not be asserted pursuant to this Act:

- (a) to the sheriff to the extent of the sum required to satisfy the amount recoverable with respect to each enforcement charge having priority over the security interest;
- (b) to the holder of a security interest to the extent of the sum secured and any costs to which that person is entitled;
- (c) subject to the rights of persons against whom exemptions may not be asserted pursuant to this Act, to the judgment debtor, except as provided in clauses (a) and (b).

(10) From the amount allocated to the sheriff pursuant to clause (9)(a), the sheriff shall pay, subject to the rights of persons against whom exemptions may not be asserted pursuant to this Act:

- (15) On application of the judgment debtor, judgment creditor or sheriff, the court may determine what constitutes an amount that is required with respect to an item mentioned in clause 93(1)(c) or (f) to repair the item or to replace the destroyed, expropriated or sold item with an equivalent item of property.
- (16) The amount of money that is exempt as provided in this section is an amount that reflects the judgment debtor's property interest in the item damaged, destroyed, expropriated or sold.

(2) Subject to section 44, if property to be disposed of by the sheriff is land occupied by the judgment debtor or another person, the sheriff and an agent retained by the sheriff for purposes of disposing of the land shall be entitled to any access to the land and premises on that land that is reasonably incidental to the process of disposition.

(3) When the property seized is a document of title, the sheriff may dispose of the document of title or the goods covered by it.

- (2) A sheriff who proceeds pursuant to subsection (1) shall register an interest against the title in the land titles registry giving notice of the following:

2015, c.7, s.27.

Distribution of fund

108(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a fund shall be distributed 20 days after the first receipt of money by the sheriff to whom an enforcement instruction relating to the judgment debtor has been provided.

(2) If the fund does not exceed the prescribed amount at the end of the 20-day period mentioned in subsection (1), and two or more judgment creditors have entitlements as provided in section 110 that exceed the amount of the fund, the sheriff may extend the period for an additional 15 days.

(3) The 20-day period mentioned in subsection (1) may be extended:

(a) by the sheriff for a period not exceeding 90 days from the date the first amount is received:

(i) if the sheriff has seized future accounts under circumstances in which the seizure will result in the receipt of periodic payments to the sheriff;

(ii) if an order has been made pursuant to section 81 of The Queen's Bench Act, 1998 that provides for periodic payments to the sheriff or a judgment creditor; or

(iii) if the sheriff has served a notice as provided in section 109 or a demand for information as provided in subsection 110(5);

(a.1) by the sheriff for a period not exceeding a prescribed period in the prescribed circumstances; and

(b) by the court on application by the sheriff.

(4) If, after the expiry of the period mentioned in subsections (1) to (3), a new fund is constituted as a result of the receipt by the sheriff of additional money attributable to an amount recoverable from the judgment debtor, the new fund shall be distributed in accordance with subsections (1) to (3).

(a) the sheriff is in receipt of money constituting a fund relating to the judgment debtor;

(b) all enforcement charges affecting property disposed of by the sheriff are released by the disposition; and

(c) the fund remaining after satisfaction of the claims mentioned in subsection 110(1) and clauses 110(3)(a) to (h) will be distributed only to judgment creditors who become enforcing judgment creditors before the end of the period mentioned in subsection 108(1), (2) or (3), as the case may be.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.109.

Distribution

110(1) The fees and costs of a sheriff and a receiver incurred in carrying out enforcement measures constitute a claim having priority over any other claim.

(2) The claim for fees and costs mentioned in subsection (1) may be satisfied by payment from the fund to which the fees and costs are related to the sheriff, receiver, judgment creditor or other person who paid the fees and costs.

(3) Except as otherwise provided, and subject to any entitlement of a person other than a judgment creditor to money in a fund, the fund constituted pursuant to this Part remaining after payment of the fees and costs mentioned in subsection (1) shall be distributed in the following order:

(a) the amount of taxable court costs incurred in proceedings pursuant to Part II, other than fees and costs described in subsection (1), to the extent that the money in the fund can be attributed to property subject to an order pursuant to section 5, which amount shall be paid to the judgment creditor or other person who paid the costs;

(b) the amount of taxable court costs, other than fees and costs described in subsection (1) or clause (a), incurred in applications to the court, including interpleader proceedings, that resulted in money being paid into the fund, which amount shall be paid to the judgment creditor or other person who paid the costs;

(c) the amount of taxable court costs ordered by the court to be paid out of the fund pursuant to subsection 111(16);

(d) the amount recovered in relation to a judgment that, pursuant to any other Act or law, is given priority over all judgments mentioned in this section, which amount shall be paid to the person who obtained the judgment;

(e) the amount recoverable by judgment creditors who were parties to interpleader proceedings, to the extent of the sum received by the sheriff as a result of the proceedings;

(f) the prescribed amount, or any other amount that a court may order, which shall be paid to each judgment creditor who gave an enforcement instruction that led directly to receipt by the sheriff of money in the fund, in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of that judgment creditor's judgment;

(g) the amount recoverable of each judgment with respect to which the sheriff has a subsisting enforcement instruction at the end of the period mentioned in section 108;

(h) any amount remaining, which, unless it has been seized by the sheriff, shall be paid to the person entitled to it.

- (4) If the amount of the fund mentioned in a clause of subsection (3) is inadequate to discharge the total amounts payable to persons mentioned in that clause, the amount shall be allocated to each person in the proportion that the person's entitlement at the time of distribution bears to the total of all entitlements at the time of distribution that should be considered in relation to the available amount pursuant to that clause.
- (5) A sheriff may serve a written demand on each judgment creditor, or other person entitled to or claiming an interest in the fund, to provide the following information, by affidavit, in the form required by the Director of Sheriffs:
- (a) the amount recoverable under the judgment creditor's judgment or the amount and basis of the person's claim;
 - (b) any amount paid in full or partial satisfaction of an amount recoverable after an enforcement instruction relating to the judgment has been given to the sheriff;
 - (c) the factual basis of a claim to a priority in the distribution of money in the fund;
 - (d) any other information required by the sheriff to discharge the sheriff's obligations pursuant to this Part.
- (6) A person who fails to respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (5) within 10 days after the date on which the demand is served is presumed to have waived a right to share in the distribution of the fund to which the demand relates.
- (7) If information provided to the sheriff pursuant to subsection (5) is incorrect:
- (a) a distribution is not invalidated; and
 - (b) the sheriff incurs no liability for making a distribution in reliance on it.
- (8) On application to the court by a person affected, the court may direct the entry of judgment in favour of the applicant against a judgment creditor or other person who provided inaccurate information in response to a demand from a sheriff pursuant to subsection (5):
- (a) in the amount the judgment creditor or person received under a distribution to which the judgment creditor or person was not entitled; and
 - (b) if the judgment creditor or person provided the information knowing it to be inaccurate, in any additional amount by way of punitive damages as the court considers appropriate.

2010, c.E-9.22, s.110; 2015, c.7, s.28.

Objection to distribution

111(1) On the expiry of the relevant period mentioned in section 108, the sheriff shall prepare a distribution statement in the prescribed manner describing the intended manner of distribution of the fund.

(2) If the cumulative amount of entitlements to money in the fund as set out in subsection 110(3) exceeds the funds available for distribution, the sheriff shall serve a copy of the distribution statement on:

- (a) the judgment debtor;
- (b) all enforcing judgment creditors; and

- (c) any person with a security interest in property that has given rise to the fund whose interest has been affected by disposition of the property or will be affected by distribution of the fund if, before the expiry of the period mentioned in section 108:
- (i) in the case of a security interest in personal property, the person has perfected the security interest within the meaning of The Personal Property Security Act, 1993; and
 - (ii) in the case of land, the person has registered an interest in the land in the land titles registry.
- (3) A person who, pursuant to the distribution described in the distribution statement, would receive less than full payment of the person's claim may object to the distribution by serving a notice of objection on the sheriff:
- (a) within 10 days after the date on which the distribution statement was served; or
 - (b) within any further time that the court may order.
- (4) A judgment debtor may object to a distribution described in a distribution statement served pursuant to subsection (2) by serving a notice of objection on the sheriff:
- (a) within 10 days after the date on which the distribution statement was served; or
 - (b) within any further time that the court may order.
- (5) A notice of objection served in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) must state the reason for the objection.
- (6) A notice of objection may state an objection to the amount of the fund allocated to a person in the distribution statement or to a person's entitlement to participate, but may not raise substantive grounds of defence to an action on which the judgment is based, or grounds for the appeal of such a judgment.
- (7) A notice of objection is effective if it complies with subsections (5) and (6) and is served within the required period.
- (8) If a notice of objection correctly asserts that a distribution statement discloses an error in calculation or a clerical error, the sheriff may amend the distribution statement accordingly.
- (9) If the sheriff does not receive an effective notice of objection, the sheriff shall proceed to distribute the fund as provided in the distribution statement.
- (10) A sheriff who receives an effective notice of objection may, on the expiry of 10 days from the date the distribution statement was served pursuant to subsection (2), or any further time that the court may order, distribute, in accordance with the distribution statement or amended distribution statement, as much of the fund as can be distributed without precluding recognition of the objection asserted in the notice in a subsequent or final distribution.

- (11) A sheriff who receives an effective notice of objection from a person other than the judgment debtor shall proceed to distribute the fund unless, before the expiry of 30 days from the date the distribution statement was served pursuant to subsection (2), the sheriff is served with an application with notice commencing an application to the court for an order determining the validity of the objection.
- (12) On the expiry of the time specified in subsection (3) or (4), as the case may be, a person named in a distribution statement who has not served a notice of objection, or, in the case of a person other than the judgment debtor, has served a notice but has not made an application to the court as provided in subsection (11), is deemed to have consented to the terms of the distribution statement.
- (13) If an effective notice of objection has been served by the judgment debtor and the sheriff has determined that the objection is valid, the sheriff shall serve a notice to that effect on any person affected by the determination of the objection.
- (14) A person affected by a notice of objection served by a judgment debtor who does not make an application to the court within 10 days after the date on which the notice mentioned in subsection (13) is served is deemed to have accepted the validity of the objection.
- (15) In an application mentioned in subsection (11) or (14) or in an application by the sheriff or the judgment debtor, the court may:
- (a) confirm the contents of a distribution statement; or
 - (b) order the sheriff to amend a distribution statement.
- (16) On making an order pursuant to subsection (15), the court may:
- (a) if the application is successful, order that the costs of the application be paid to the applicant out of the fund;
 - (b) if the application is not successful, order the applicant to pay the costs of the proceedings and any additional amount to a person affected as the court determines is appropriate to compensate for costs incurred and loss suffered due to a delay in distribution of the fund caused by the application; and
 - (c) if the court finds that an objection was made by a judgment debtor in bad faith, order that judgment be entered against the judgment debtor in favour of a person affected in an amount that the court determines is appropriate to compensate for costs incurred and loss suffered due to a delay in distribution of the fund caused by the application to the court.
- (17) Unless the court orders otherwise, notice of an application made pursuant to this section shall be served on the persons on whom a distribution statement must be served pursuant to subsection (2).
