CHAPTER C-29.01

An Act respecting References, Constitutional Questions and Challenges to Regulations and making a consequential amendment to The Court of Appeal Act, 2000

PART I Short Title

Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Constitutional Questions Act, 2012.

PART II Reference

Reference to Court of Appeal

2(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may refer any matter to the Court of Appeal for hearing and consideration, and the Court of Appeal shall hear and consider the matter.

(2) If the Lieutenant Governor in Council includes in the terms of the reference that the opinion and reasons of the Court of Appeal shall be deemed a judgment, the opinion and reasons of the Court of Appeal shall be deemed a judgment.

(3) The terms of the reference shall:

- (a) set out the subject of the reference; and
- (b) name the parties to the proceedings.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.2.

Court of Appeal opinion and reasons

3 The Court of Appeal shall certify to the Lieutenant Governor in Council its opinion and reasons on the matter referred in the same manner as in the case of a judgment, and a judge who differs from the opinion or reasons of the majority may dissent in the same manner as a judgment.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.3.

Attorney General for Saskatchewan

4 The Attorney General for Saskatchewan is a party to any hearing pursuant to section 2 or 10 and any appeal pursuant to section 9.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.4.

Attorney General of Canada

5(1) If the matter referred to the Court of Appeal relates to the constitutional validity of an enactment within the meaning of The Interpretation Act, 1995 or an enactment within the meaning of the Interpretation Act (Canada), the Attorney General for Saskatchewan shall notify the Attorney General of Canada of the hearing in order that he or she may be heard.

(2) The Attorney General of Canada shall give written notice to the Court of Appeal and the Attorney General for Saskatchewan within 30 days after receiving notice pursuant to subsection (1) of his or her intention to intervene.

(3) If the Government of Canada is interested in a matter referred to the Court of Appeal pursuant to section 2 other than a matter mentioned in subsection (1), the Attorney General of Canada may intervene in the matter on giving not less than 30 days' written notice to the Court of Appeal and the Attorney General for Saskatchewan.

(4) If the Attorney General of Canada gives written notice of intervention pursuant to subsection (2) or (3), he or she is a party to any hearing pursuant to section 2 or 10 and any appeal pursuant to section 9.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.5.

Government of other provinces

6 If the government of any other province or territory is interested in a matter referred to the Court of Appeal pursuant to section 2, the Attorney General of that province or territory may intervene in the matter on giving not less than 30 days' written notice to the Court of Appeal and the Attorney General for Saskatchewan.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.6.

Notice to interested persons

7 The Court of Appeal may direct that any person interested, or, if there is a class of persons interested, any one or more persons as representatives of that class, shall be notified of the hearing, and those persons may apply to be heard as intervenors on the matter.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.7.

Appointment of counsel for unrepresented interests

8(1) If any interest affected is not represented by counsel, the Court of Appeal may request counsel to argue the case in that interest.

(2) Counsel mentioned in subsection (1) is entitled to reasonable expenses that shall be paid out of the general revenue fund.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.8.

Appeal

9 A deemed judgment pursuant to subsection 2(2) or 16(3) may be appealed as in the case of a judgment of the Court of Appeal.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.9.

Judge in chambers

10(1) A single judge of the Court of Appeal sitting in chambers may hear and dispose of an application or motion that is incidental to a reference pursuant to section 2 and that does not involve the decision of the reference on the merits.

(2) An order made by a judge in chambers pursuant to subsection (1) may be discharged or varied by the Court of Appeal.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.10.

Court of Appeal rules

11 The judges of the Court of Appeal, or a majority of them present at any meeting held for that purpose, may make rules for the purpose of hearing a reference.

2012, c.C-29.01, s.11.
