PART II
Application, Eligibility and Approval

DIVISION 1
Application

Application

4(1) In this section:

- (a) “health services number” means the unique number assigned to an individual who is registered as a beneficiary to receive insured services pursuant to The Saskatchewan Medical Care Insurance Act;
  - (b) “social insurance number” means a valid social insurance number assigned pursuant to the authority of any Act of the Parliament of Canada.
- (2) An applicant may apply to the minister for a benefit in any manner acceptable to the minister.
- (3) An applicant shall:
- (a) provide the minister with the information required by these regulations and any additional information that the minister considers reasonably necessary to establish:
    - (i) the eligibility of the applicant for a benefit; and
    - (ii) the amount of a benefit to which the applicant may be entitled;
  - (b) subject to subsections (4) and (5), provide the minister with the social insurance numbers and health services numbers of:
    - (i) in the case of an application by or on behalf of an individual, the applicant and the applicant’s spouse, if any; or
    - (ii) in the case of an application by or on behalf of a family unit, each individual in the family unit other than any dependent children; and
  - (c) provide to the minister a consent to use the social insurance numbers and health services numbers mentioned in clause (b):
    - (i) in the case of the social insurance numbers, to verify the eligibility of the applicant; and
    - (ii) in the case of the health services numbers, for the purposes of nominating the applicant to receive supplementary health benefits specified in the Saskatchewan Assistance Plan Supplementary Health Benefits Regulations, being Saskatchewan Regulations 65/66.
- (4) For the purposes of an application, if an individual or an individual’s spouse has applied for a health services number or social insurance number but has not yet received it, the minister may accept evidence of that application as supplied by the individual.
- (5) In lieu of a social insurance number, the minister may accept:
- (a) documents provided by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada establishing that the individual:
    - (i) has made a claim for refugee protection that has not been rejected; and
    - (ii) is not able to obtain a social insurance number; or

- (b) any other documents the minister considers appropriate, if the applicant does not meet any residency requirement set out in subsection 5(1).
- (6) On receipt of an application pursuant to this section, the minister shall:
  - (a) review the application; and
  - (b) determine whether the applicant has a budget shortfall and meets the other criteria set out in Division 2.

DIVISION 2 Eligibility

Interpretation of Division

5(1) In this Division:

- (a) “residency requirements” means, with respect to an individual, that the individual:
    - (i) is a Canadian citizen;
    - (ii) is authorized to take up permanent residence in Canada;
    - (iii) is determined pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada) or the Immigration Act (Canada) to be a Convention refugee;
    - (iv) is in Canada under a temporary resident permit issued pursuant to section 24 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada);
    - (v) is in the process of having the individual’s claim for refugee protection, or application for protection, determined or decided pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada); or
    - (vi) is subject to a removal order pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada) that cannot be executed;
  - (b) “Saskatchewan resident” means, with respect to an individual or family member, an individual or family member who is ordinarily present in Saskatchewan.
- (2) An applicant who does not meet any residency requirement set out in subsection (1) may be eligible for benefits if the minister is satisfied:
- (a) that the applicant or a dependant of the applicant is being treated for a medical condition and is unable to leave Saskatchewan;
  - (b) that the applicant or a dependant of the applicant died while in Saskatchewan; or
  - (c) that exceptional circumstances exist.
- (3) An applicant who is not a Saskatchewan resident may be eligible for benefits if the minister is satisfied that there are compassionate, compelling or medical reasons.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s5; 12 Aug 2016 SR
68/2016 s5; 23 Dec 2022 SR 97/2022 s3; 20 Jne
2025 SR 45/2025 s3.

Eligibility criteria – individuals

- 6(1) This section applies to an applicant who is an individual.
- (2) An applicant who is an individual may be approved as an eligible beneficiary only if the application made by or on behalf of the individual complies with section 4 and the individual:
- (a) is a Saskatchewan resident;
  - (b) is 18 years of age or older;
  - (c) meets the residency requirements;
  - (d) is an individual with a significant and enduring disability;
  - (e) is determined pursuant to this Division to have a budget shortfall; and
  - (f) satisfies the minister that the individual has explored every reasonable possibility of providing for his or her needs and the needs of his or her family unit, if any, including applying for any benefits provided by the Government of Canada, the Government of Saskatchewan or any other government, or any agency of that government, for which the individual or any member of the individual's family unit may be eligible.
- (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, no benefit is to be paid to or on behalf of an individual who does not meet the criteria set out in this section.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s6.

Eligibility criteria - family units

- 7(1) This section applies to an applicant that is a family unit.
- (2) A family unit may be approved as an eligible beneficiary only if the application by or on behalf of the family unit complies with section 4 and:
- (a) at least one of the family members:
    - (i) is a Saskatchewan resident;
    - (ii) is 18 years of age or older;
    - (iii) meets the residency requirements; and
    - (iv) is an individual with a significant and enduring disability;
  - (b) the family unit is determined pursuant to this Division to have a budget shortfall; and
  - (c) the family unit satisfies the minister that it has explored every reasonable possibility of providing for its needs, including applying for any benefits provided by the Government of Canada, the Government of Saskatchewan or any other government, or any agency of that government, for which the family unit may be eligible.
- (3) Subject to any other provision of these regulations, if a family unit includes an individual who does not meet the residency requirements, that individual's income and assets may be included in determining the income and assets of the family unit for the purposes of determining whether the family unit has a budget shortfall.
- (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, no benefit is to be paid to or on behalf of a family unit that does not meet the criteria set out in this section.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s7; 12 Aug 2016 SR
68/2016 s6.

Ineligible individuals

8(1) Notwithstanding sections 6 and 7, no benefit is to be paid to or on behalf of an individual who:

- (a) is detained under a sentence of imprisonment of more than 30 days in:
  - (i) a correctional facility as defined in The Correctional Services Act, 2012; or
  - (ii) a custody facility as defined in The Youth Justice Administration Act, 2019;
- (b) is an inmate as defined in the Corrections and Conditional Release Act (Canada) or a prisoner as defined in the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada);
- (b.1) has been absent from Saskatchewan for more than 30 continuous days, unless the minister is satisfied that the absence is for compassionate, compelling or medical reasons;
- (c) is ordinarily resident on an Indian reserve as defined in the Indian Act (Canada); or
- (d) is a student, unless the student is:
  - (i) enrolled full-time in a post-secondary program and is:
    - (A) a person with a significant and enduring disability for whom training in a post-secondary program offers the only reasonable prospect for employment and leads to a vocational goal approved by the minister; or
    - (B) a person who does not have a significant and enduring disability and who:
      - (I) is enrolled in a post-secondary program leading to a vocational goal that is not a university post-graduate program;
      - (II) has been receiving benefits for the 12-month period preceding his or her attendance at an educational institution; and
      - (III) supports a spouse who is a person with a significant and enduring disability; or
  - (ii) enrolled in an approved program described in section 28.3;
- (e) Repealed. 11 May 2018 SR 31/2018 s3.

(1.1) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 46/2019 s4.

(1.2) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 46/2019 s4.

(2) The minister may waive the requirement set out in subparagraph (1)(d)(i)(B)(II) if the minister determines it is appropriate to do so.

Assessment for eligibility

9(1) For the purposes of determining whether an individual is an individual with a significant and enduring disability, the minister shall:

- (a) establish acceptable methods and procedures for conducting disability assessments to determine the functional impact of a disability;
- (b) determine the qualifications of persons who may conduct disability assessments; and
- (c) establish a minimum disability assessment threshold that is to be determined through the disability assessment mentioned in clause (a).

(2) The minister shall determine whether or not an individual has a disability that is:

- (a) significant based on a disability assessment conducted in accordance with subsection (1); and
- (b) enduring based on medical documentation and other information that is satisfactory to the minister that the disability is permanent.

(3) If the minister determines that an individual does not have a significant and enduring disability, the minister shall also inform the individual of the individual's right to an appeal and reconsideration pursuant to sections 37 to 40.

(4) The minister and any other person involved in determining whether an individual is an individual with a significant and enduring disability in accordance with this section are not compellable, in an appeal brought pursuant to section 40 or in any other proceeding, to produce any file, paper, information, report, correspondence or other document relating to all or any of the following:

- (a) an individual's disability assessment;
- (b) the methods and procedures established for conducting a disability assessment mentioned in clause (1)(a);
- (c) the minimum disability assessment threshold mentioned in clause (1)(c).

12 Aug 2016 SR 68/2016 s8; 20 Jne 2025 SR
45/2025 s4.

Budget shortfall – individuals

10(1) This section applies to an applicant who is an individual.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) to (5) and section 12, an individual has a budget shortfall if the individual's monthly income determined pursuant to clause (3)(a) is less than the monthly total of benefits to which the individual would be entitled as determined pursuant to clause (3)(b).

(3) For the purposes of determining if an individual has a budget shortfall, the minister:

- (a) shall determine the individual's monthly income in accordance with section 13 and subsection 15(3);
- (b) shall determine the monthly total of the benefits to which the individual would be entitled if he or she were an eligible beneficiary;

- (c) shall determine the total of all liquid assets owned by the individual in accordance with section 14;
  - (d) shall determine whether the individual owns excess assets in accordance with section 15; and
  - (e) may review the circumstances surrounding a disposal of assets or an unusual expenditure by the individual:
    - (i) within the six months preceding the month in which his or her application was made; or
    - (ii) within the number of months preceding the month in which his or her application was made that an eligible beneficiary is determined to be not eligible to receive a benefit pursuant to section 20, if that determination was made and the period the eligible beneficiary is not eligible to receive a benefit exceeds six months.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, if the minister determines that an individual would be entitled to a benefit only with respect to health services, the minister shall:
- (a) determine the health services that would be required over 12 months;
  - (b) include any costs for the health services mentioned in clause (a) that the minister is satisfied are reasonably anticipated;
  - (c) determine the individual's needs based on whether the individual's monthly income, as determined in accordance with section 13 and subsection 15(3), will be sufficient to cover the costs of the health services mentioned in clause (b); and
  - (d) if the minister is satisfied that the individual's monthly income is not sufficient to cover the costs of the health services, declare that the individual has a budget shortfall for the purposes of these regulations.
- (5) An individual does not have a budget shortfall if, at the time of his or her application, the total value of the individual's liquid assets is greater than $1,500.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s10; 12 Aug 2016 SR
68/2016 s9.

Budget shortfall – family units

- 11(1) In this section, “family unit’s monthly income” means the monthly income of all of its family members.
- (2) This section applies to an applicant that is a family unit.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) to (6) and section 12, a family unit has a budget shortfall if the family unit’s monthly income determined pursuant to clause (4)(a) is less than the monthly total of benefits to which the family unit would be entitled as determined pursuant to clause (4)(b).
- (4) For the purposes of determining if a family unit has a budget shortfall, the minister:
- (a) shall determine the family unit’s monthly income in accordance with subsection 7(3), section 13 and subsection 15(3);

- (b) shall determine the monthly total of the benefits to which the family unit would be entitled if it were an eligible beneficiary;
  - (c) shall determine the total of all liquid assets owned by the family unit in accordance with section 14;
  - (d) shall determine whether the family unit owns excess assets in accordance with section 15; and
  - (e) may review the circumstances surrounding a disposal of assets or an unusual expenditure by the family unit within the six months preceding the month in which its application was made.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, if the minister determines that a family unit would be entitled to a benefit only with respect to health services, the minister shall:
- (a) determine the health services that would be required over 12 months;
  - (b) include any costs for the health services mentioned in clause (a) that the minister is satisfied are reasonably anticipated;
  - (c) determine the family unit's needs based on whether the family unit's monthly income, as determined in accordance with subsection 7(3), section 13 and subsection 15(3), will be sufficient to cover the costs of the health services mentioned in clause (b); and
  - (d) if the minister is satisfied that the family unit's monthly income is not sufficient to cover the costs of the health services, declare that the family unit has a budget shortfall for the purposes of these regulations.
- (6) A family unit does not have a budget shortfall if, at the time of its application, the total value of the family unit's liquid assets is greater than $1,500 per household member.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s11; 23 Dec 2022 SR
97/2022 s5.

Other rules respecting budget shortfalls

- 12(1) Subject to subsection (2) and to section 13, an applicant does not have a budget shortfall if the minister is satisfied that:
- (a) the applicant owns excess assets; or
  - (b) a disposal of assets or an unusual expenditure, within the six months preceding the month in which the applicant's application was made, was carried out for the purpose of causing the applicant to have a budget shortfall.
- (2) The minister may decide not to consider a liquid asset as a financial resource if the minister is satisfied that the applicant has genuine reasons for delaying or not converting the liquid asset into cash.
- (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the minister may, in a particular case or with respect to a category or class of individuals, do any of the following:
- (a) when determining monthly income, exclude any amount of income that, in the minister's opinion, should not be included;

- (b) when determining liquid assets:
  - (i) exclude any liquid asset that, as determined by the minister, should not be included; or
  - (ii) include any liquid asset that, as determined by the minister, should be included;
- (c) when determining excess assets, exclude any asset that, as determined by the minister, should not be considered an excess asset.

68/2016 s10; 23 Dec 2022 SR 97/2022 s6.

Determining monthly income

13(1) This section applies to determining the monthly income of:

- (a) an applicant who is an individual; and
  - (b) each family member of an applicant that is a family unit.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) to (8), the monthly income of an individual or family member is the amount of moneys that the individual or family member received or was eligible to receive from all sources as determined by the minister other than the items set out in Table 1 of the Appendix.
- (3) The minister shall determine monthly income pursuant to this section:
- (a) based on the individual's or family member's monthly income for the month before the date on which the application was received by the minister; or
  - (b) if the minister is satisfied that the individual or family member has an irregular or fluctuating monthly income, based on what the minister is satisfied is his or her average monthly income over a period not to exceed 12 months before the date on which the application was received by the minister.
- (4) Any employment income of a child attending school is not to be included in determining monthly income.
- (5) If an applicant receives revenue for providing room only or room and board in the applicant's principal residence to a person who is not a member of the applicant's family unit, 25% of that revenue, but not less than $25 per month is to be included in determining monthly income.
- (6) If an applicant receives revenue for renting a self-contained suite in the applicant's principal residence to a person who is not a member of the applicant's family unit, 40% of that revenue, but not less than $40 per month is to be included in determining monthly income.
- (7) If an individual's or family member's income is subject to attachment or garnishment or other similar process, the amount attached or garnished is not to be deducted when determining monthly income.
- (8) The amount of any overpayment recovered from an individual or family member by set-off or any other means is to be included when determining monthly income.

(9) In subsection (8), “overpayment” means a payment to an individual of an amount in excess of the individual’s entitlement pursuant to a funding program that is established pursuant to another Act or regulation, an Act of the Parliament of Canada or a regulation made pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada, an Act of the legislature of another province or territory of Canada or the regulations made pursuant to an Act of the legislature of another province or territory of Canada.

Determining liquid assets

14(1) In determining an applicant’s liquid assets, the minister may allow the applicant a period, not to exceed 180 days after the date on which the application is received by the minister, to convert a liquid asset that is not in the form of cash into cash.

(2) Any payment received on an a liquid asset that cannot be converted into cash within the 180 day period mentioned in subsection (1) is to be included in determining the applicant’s monthly income pursuant to section 13.

(3) The following are not to be included in determining an applicant’s liquid assets:

- (a) money held in trust pursuant to a registered education savings plan within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (b) contributions made to the Saskatchewan Pension Plan to a maximum yearly amount established by the Saskatchewan Pension Plan by or on behalf of:
  - (i) if the applicant is an individual, the applicant; or
  - (ii) if the applicant is a family unit, the members of the family unit on whose behalf the application is made;
- (c) the capital and income from a trust fund established pursuant to subsection 9(2) of The Dependants’ Relief Act, 1996;
- (d) funds held in, or money withdrawn from, a registered disability savings plan within the meaning of section 146.4 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (e) funds held in a discretionary trust for the benefit of:
  - (i) if the applicant is an individual, the applicant; or
  - (ii) if the applicant is a family unit, the members of the family unit on whose behalf the application is made;
- (f) a payment from a discretionary trust mentioned in clause (e) if:
  - (i) the payment is contributed as soon as is practicable to a registered disability savings plan mentioned in clause (d);
  - (ii) with the approval of the minister, the payment is used for an expense that is related to the applicant’s disability; or
  - (iii) with the approval of the minister, the payment is used for an expense that is not provided for pursuant to these regulations;

- (g) subject to subsection (2), an amount saved from a benefit payment provided to the applicant that:
    - (i) is held in an account or invested with a financial institution or is held in a trust account; and
    - (ii) does not exceed $1,500 per household member;
  - (h) prepaid funeral expenses.
- (4) The limits mentioned in clause (3)(g) do not apply to an applicant if the amount saved:
- (a) is contributed to a registered disability savings plan within the meaning of section 146.4 of the Income Tax Act (Canada); or
  - (b) with the approval of the minister, is used as to meet costs related to the applicant's disability.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s14; 23 Dec 2022 SR
97/2022 s7.

Determining excess assets

- 15(1) In determining an applicant's excess assets, the minister may allow the applicant a period, not to exceed 180 days after the date on which the application is received by the minister, to convert an excess asset into cash, either by using it as security for borrowing or by selling it.
- (2) The minister may decide not to consider an asset as an excess asset if the minister is satisfied that the applicant has genuine social or economic reasons for delaying or not converting the asset into cash.
- (3) If the minister permits an applicant to retain an excess asset, the net income from that excess asset is to be included when determining the applicant's monthly income.
- (4) If an applicant has as a principal residence a property acquired by inheritance, the property is not to be considered as an excess asset pursuant to clause 10(3)(d).
- (5) An applicant may sell property used as the applicant's principal residence and use the proceeds of the sale for any or all of the following:
- (a) to purchase another principal residence if the proceeds are used to purchase the new principal residence within 12 months after the receipt of the proceeds;
  - (b) to contribute as soon as is practicable to a registered disability savings plan;
  - (c) with the approval of the minister, to pay an expense related to the applicant's disability.
- (6) Subject to subsection (6.1), any portion of the proceeds from the sale of a principal residence not used pursuant to clauses (5)(a) to (c) must be included as an excess asset.

(6.1) If the applicant's principal residence was acquired by inheritance after January 31, 2011, the portion of the proceeds of the sale of the principal residence that, when combined with other amounts inherited, does not exceed $100,000 is not to be considered as an excess asset pursuant to clause 10(3)(d).

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), with the prior approval of the minister, an applicant may use any portion of the proceeds of the sale of the applicant's principal residence that remains after the purchase of another principal residence for the purpose of reasonable renovations or accessibility modifications to the new principal residence if the renovations or accessibility modifications are completed within 24 months from the date on which the proceeds are received.

(8) If the family home, or the value of the family home, of an applicant is distributed between the applicant and the applicant's spouse pursuant to an interspousal contract or a family property order within the meaning of The Family Property Act, the applicant may use an amount equal to the value of the applicant's share of the distribution for any or all of the following:

- (a) to purchase a principal residence if the proceeds are used to purchase the principal residence within 12 months after the receipt of the distribution;
- (b) to contribute as soon as is practicable to a registered disability savings plan;
- (c) with the approval of the minister, to pay an expense related to the applicant's disability.

(9) Any portion of the distribution mentioned in subsection (8) received by the applicant that is not used pursuant to clauses (8)(a) to (c) must be included as an excess asset.

(10) Notwithstanding subsection (9), with the prior approval of the minister, an applicant may use any portion of the distribution mentioned in subsection (8) that remains after the purchase of a principal residence for the purpose of reasonable renovations or accessibility modifications to the principal residence if the renovations or accessibility modifications are completed within 24 months after the date on which the distribution is received.

DIVISION 3 Approval or Denial

Approval or denial

16(1) The minister may:

- (a) approve the applicant as an eligible beneficiary if the minister is satisfied that the applicant has a budget shortfall and meets the other criteria set out in Division 2; or
- (b) deny the application.

- (2) For the purposes of making a decision pursuant to this section, the minister may require an applicant to confirm the information provided in the application by:
- (a) meeting with a representative of the ministry;
  - (b) reviewing the information supplied by the applicant as set out in a form supplied by the minister;
  - (c) correcting any errors in the information mentioned in clause (b); and
  - (d) making a statutory declaration respecting the correctness of the information.
- (3) The form mentioned in clause (2)(b) must include:
- (a) a declaration that the applicant is aware of the obligation to report any changes in circumstances that affect the eligibility of the applicant to receive a benefit or the amount of the benefit to which the applicant is entitled; and
  - (b) if the application is made by or on behalf of a family unit, a consent by all members of the family unit who are 18 years of age or older to the disclosure to the minister of personal information with respect to the members of the family unit in the records of other ministries and agencies and other bodies for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the family unit for a benefit and the amount of that benefit.
- (4) The minister shall notify an applicant in writing of the minister's decision as soon as possible after making the decision and provide the applicant with written reasons for the decision.
- (5) If the minister denies an application, the minister shall also inform the applicant of the applicant's right to an appeal and reconsideration pursuant to sections 37 to 40.

PART III Benefits

Temporary benefit

- 17(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the minister may provide a benefit to an applicant on a temporary basis if:
- (a) either:
    - (i) the minister is satisfied that the applicant is likely to be eligible for that benefit, but the applicant's eligibility cannot be determined immediately on receipt of the application; or
    - (ii) the applicant is awaiting the outcome of:
      - (A) an appeal to an appeal committee pursuant to section 38 or to the appeal board pursuant to section 39; or
      - (B) a review by an adjudicator appointed pursuant to section 40;

and

- (b) the minister is satisfied that the applicant is urgently in need of that benefit.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), The Saskatchewan Income Support Regulations apply, with any necessary modification, to an applicant mentioned in subsection (1) with respect to:
  - (a) whether the applicant is eligible for a temporary benefit; and
  - (b) if the applicant is eligible pursuant to clause (a), the amount of the temporary benefit.
- (3) In the case of an application for a benefit made pursuant to section 4 that has been received by the minister but neither approved nor denied in accordance with section 16 before the day on which The Saskatchewan Assured Income for Disability (Miscellaneous) Amendment Regulations, 2022 come into force, the minister may provide a benefit to the applicant on a temporary basis in accordance with this section as it existed on the day before the coming into force of The Saskatchewan Assured Income for Disability (Miscellaneous) Amendment Regulations, 2022.

23 Dec 2022 SR 97/2022 s10.

Benefit to be provided in accordance with this Part and Table 2

18 Subject to sections 19 and 20, the minister may provide a benefit to an eligible beneficiary in accordance with this Part, Part III.1 and Table 2 of the Appendix.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s18; 27 May 2022 SR
40/2022 s5.

When no benefit is to be provided – disposal of assets, unusual expenditures

- 19(1) The minister may refuse to provide a benefit to an eligible beneficiary for the period calculated in accordance with subsection 20(2) if the minister is satisfied that:
- (a) the eligible beneficiary disposed of assets or had an unusual expenditure for the purpose of causing the eligible beneficiary to be eligible or to continue to be eligible for a benefit; or
  - (b) the eligible beneficiary's failure to realize on an agreement for sale, mortgage or other security caused the eligible beneficiary to be eligible or to continue to be eligible for a benefit.
- (2) If the minister refuses to provide a benefit to an eligible beneficiary pursuant to subsection (1) for a period, the minister may reduce the period if the minister is satisfied that:
- (a) the proceeds of the disposal of an asset mentioned in clause (1)(a) can be recovered and that the proceeds of disposition will be less than the amount that may have been originally calculated pursuant to subsection 20(2);
  - (b) an asset acquired as a result of a transaction mentioned in clause (1)(a) can be disposed of, that proceeds can be obtained from the disposition and that the proceeds of disposition will be less than the amount that may have been originally calculated pursuant to subsection 20(2);

- (c) income can be obtained from an asset acquired as a result of a transaction mentioned in clause (1)(a) and that the income from the asset will be less than the amount that may have been originally calculated pursuant to subsection 20(2);
  - (d) proceeds or income can be obtained by realizing on the agreement for sale, mortgage or other security mentioned in clause (1)(b) and that the proceeds obtained by the realization will be less than the amount that may have been originally calculated pursuant to subsection 20(2); or
  - (e) exceptional circumstances result in an immediate threat to the health and safety of the eligible beneficiary or any member of the eligible beneficiary's family unit.
- (3) An eligible beneficiary is not eligible to receive a benefit during the period mentioned in this section.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s19.

When no benefit to be provided – period of self-support

20(1) If an eligible beneficiary receives income in the form of a lump sum payment, the eligible beneficiary is not eligible to receive a benefit for the period T, expressed in months, determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$T = \frac{L}{(115\% \times N) - I}$$

where:

L is the amount of the lump sum payment;

N is the total of the benefits that the eligible beneficiary would otherwise receive for a month; and

I is the eligible beneficiary's monthly income, determined pursuant to section 13 but without taking into account the lump sum payment.

(2) For the purposes of subsection 19(1), if the minister is satisfied that the disposal of an asset or an unusual expenditure by an eligible beneficiary has caused the eligible beneficiary to be eligible for a benefit or the failure of an eligible beneficiary to realize on an agreement for sale, mortgage or other security has caused the eligible beneficiary to be eligible for a benefit, the eligible beneficiary is not entitled to receive benefits for the period T, expressed in months, determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$T = \frac{V}{(115\% \times N) - I}$$

where:

V is the market value, as determined by the minister, of:

- (a) the asset disposed of;
- (b) the amount of the unusual expenditure; or
- (c) the amount of the eligible beneficiary's equity in the agreement for sale, mortgage or other security not realized, as the case may be;

N is the total of the benefits that the eligible beneficiary would otherwise receive for a month; and

I is the eligible beneficiary's monthly income, determined pursuant to section 13 but without taking into account the amount V.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s20.

Date benefits commence

21(1) An eligible beneficiary is eligible for a benefit calculated from the date on which the eligible beneficiary's application was received by the minister.

(2) In the case of an eligible beneficiary who is receiving temporary benefits in the circumstances set out in subclause 17(1)(a)(i) or (ii), as the case may be, the minister shall, with respect to the period of those temporary benefits, also provide to the eligible beneficiary an amount equal to the positive difference, if any, between the benefits calculated pursuant to section 22 and the amount of the temporary benefits provided pursuant to section 17.

23 Dec 2022 SR 97/2022 s11.

Amount of benefits payable

22 Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the amount of benefits that may be paid to an eligible beneficiary pursuant to this Part is the amount of total benefits TB calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$TB = AB - PMI$$

where:

AB is total of all benefits for which the eligible beneficiary is determined to be eligible in accordance with this Part and Table 2 of the Appendix; and

PMI is the amount of any income determined in accordance with Division 2 that is received by the eligible beneficiary in the previous month.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s22.

PART IV

Payment of Benefits

Payment to trustee

29(1) This section applies to an eligible beneficiary who is an individual.

(2) The minister may direct that a benefit be paid to a trustee designated by the minister if the minister is satisfied that the eligible beneficiary is incapable of managing his or her own affairs.

- (3) A trustee to whom a benefit is paid pursuant to subsection (2) shall administer that benefit in the best interests of the eligible beneficiary.
- (4) Payment of a benefit to a trustee on behalf of an eligible beneficiary is a valid discharge of the minister's obligation with respect to the payment of that benefit to the eligible beneficiary.
- (5) The minister may:
- (a) enter into an agreement with a trustee acting for an eligible beneficiary pursuant to this section that sets out the responsibilities of the trustee; and
  - (b) pay fees to the trustee for the provision of the trustee's services at a rate established by the minister.
- (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, Part I and sections 7, 8 and 9 of The Trustee Act, 2009 apply to a trustee mentioned in this section.

Payment of benefits to family units

30 If a benefit is payable to an eligible beneficiary that is a family unit, the minister may designate the family member to whom the benefit is to be paid.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s30.

PART V
Report of Changes, Reviews and Appeals

Report of changes

31 An eligible beneficiary or eligible family member shall report immediately to the minister:

- (a) any changes in the composition of the eligible beneficiary's or eligible family member's family unit;
- (b) any changes in:
  - (i) the financial resources of:
    - (A) the eligible beneficiary or eligible family member; or
    - (B) the spouse of the eligible beneficiary or eligible family member;
  - (ii) the place of residence or the mailing address of the eligible beneficiary or eligible family member;
  - (iii) the type of the eligible beneficiary's or eligible family member's accommodation; or
  - (iv) the number or type of utilities that the eligible beneficiary or eligible family member pays for; and
- (c) a significant change in the health condition or disability of the eligible beneficiary or eligible family member.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s31.

Reviewing financial eligibility criteria

32(1) The minister shall review whether an eligible beneficiary continues to meet the eligibility criteria set out in Parts II and III.1 and the amount of any benefit provided pursuant to Parts III and III.1:

- (a) at any time that the minister is satisfied a significant change in the eligible beneficiary's circumstances has occurred; and
  - (b) at least once every three years.
- (2) For the purposes of determining whether an eligible beneficiary continues to meet the eligibility criteria set out in Parts II and III.1, those Parts apply with any necessary modification to the determination.
- (3) A record of each review carried out pursuant to this section must be entered in the eligible beneficiary's file.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s32; 27 May 2022 SR
40/2022 s7.

Changes in benefit amounts

33(1) In this section, "change in the eligible beneficiary's circumstances" means a change in:

- (a) the eligible beneficiary's financial resources;
  - (b) the eligible beneficiary's needs; or
  - (c) the number of the eligible beneficiary's dependants.
- (2) If the minister is satisfied that there is a change in the eligible beneficiary's circumstances, the minister shall vary the amount of a benefit provided to an eligible beneficiary in accordance with the change in the eligible beneficiary's circumstances:
- (a) as of the day on which the minister is advised of the change in the eligible beneficiary's circumstances; or
  - (b) subject to subsection (3), if the minister is satisfied that special circumstances so warrant, as of the day on which the eligible beneficiary's circumstances changed.
- (3) No reassessment is to be made for any period more than 4 years before the day on which the minister determines that special circumstances exist.

Alienation or transfer of benefits

34 A benefit is not subject to alienation or transfer by an eligible beneficiary, to attachment or seizure in satisfaction of any claim nor to any judgment enforcement measure pursuant to The Enforcement of Money Judgments Act.

14 Dec 2012 cS-8 Reg 11 s34.

Suspension or cancellation of benefits

35 Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the minister may, subject to section 36, suspend or cancel the provision of a benefit to an eligible beneficiary if:

- (a) changes in circumstances affect the eligibility of the eligible beneficiary to receive the benefit or, after a review pursuant to section 32, the minister is satisfied that the eligible beneficiary no longer has a budget shortfall or no longer meets the other eligibility criteria set out in Part II;
- (b) the eligible beneficiary relocates outside Saskatchewan; or
- (c) the eligible beneficiary refuses or fails:
  - (i) to comply with any provision of these regulations;
  - (ii) to provide any information that is required by the minister; or
  - (iii) to cooperate as is reasonably required by the minister.

6 Oct 2023 SR 93/2023 s8.

Review with eligible beneficiary before taking certain actions

36(1) The minister, before varying, suspending, cancelling or reinstating a benefit:

- (a) shall make reasonable efforts to review the eligible beneficiary's circumstances with the eligible beneficiary; and
- (b) may, in the circumstances described in clause 35(c) and with the eligible beneficiary's knowledge, make any inquiry and obtain any information that the minister is satisfied is necessary.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1):

- (a) the eligible beneficiary shall respond to a request made by the minister for the purposes of clause (1)(a) within 30 days after that request is sent;
- (b) the minister may exercise the power described in clause (1)(b) if the eligible applicant refuses or fails, within the period mentioned in clause (a), as the case may be:
  - (i) to comply with any provision of these regulations;
  - (ii) to provide any information that is required by the minister; or
  - (iii) to cooperate as is reasonably required by the minister; and
- (c) the eligible beneficiary is deemed to have knowledge of the minister's making an inquiry and obtaining information for the purposes of clause (1)(b) if the eligible beneficiary:
  - (i) provided consent to minister's exercise of the powers mentioned in that clause at the time of the application for a benefit in accordance with section 4; and
  - (ii) has not revoked the consent mentioned in subclause (i).

(3) The minister is not required to give an oral hearing to an eligible beneficiary who has received a request mentioned in clause (2)(a) or with respect to whom the minister is exercising the minister's powers pursuant to clause (2)(b).

(4) The minister may extend the period mentioned in clause (2)(a) or (b) if the minister is satisfied that extenuating circumstances exist making it unreasonable or impossible for the eligible beneficiary to do the thing requested by the minister.

(5) The minister shall, after doing the things mentioned in clauses (1)(a) and (b), notify in writing the eligible beneficiary of the minister's decision with respect to varying, suspending, cancelling or reinstating a benefit and inform the eligible beneficiary of the eligible beneficiary's right to an appeal and a reconsideration pursuant to sections 37 to 40.

6 Oct 2023 SR 93/2023 s8.

Appeals and reconsideration

37(1) In this section and in sections 38 to 40, "eligible beneficiary" includes a former eligible beneficiary.

(2) Within 30 days after the date of a decision with respect to any of the following matters, an applicant or eligible beneficiary may appeal, in writing, the decision to the minister:

- (a) a decision disallowing an application or reapplication for benefits;
- (a.1) a request for benefits or for an increase in benefits that was not dealt with within a reasonable period;
- (a.2) a determination of financial eligibility;
- (b) a variation, suspension or cancellation of entitlement to receive a benefit;
- (c) the assessment of an overpayment, except with respect to overpayments of the Provincial Training Allowance and the Skills Training Benefit;
- (d) a decision respecting the amount of a benefit;
- (e) in the case of an applicant, a decision respecting the assessment of a significant and enduring disability.

(3) On receipt of a request pursuant to subsection (2), the minister shall reconsider the decision that is the subject of the request within 10 days after receiving the request and provide the applicant or eligible beneficiary with a written decision as soon as is reasonably possible.

(4) If an applicant or eligible beneficiary has been denied benefits or services pursuant to a plan or program administered by another ministry or agency of the Government of Saskatchewan or by the provincial health authority or a community-based organization and the applicant or eligible beneficiary subsequently applies for benefits pursuant to these regulations, there is no appeal pursuant to subsection (2) of a decision to deny benefits with respect to an element of need that is analogous to the need contemplated by the plan or program administered by the ministry, agency, provincial health authority or community-based organization.

Appeal with regard to financial benefits

38(1) Following an appeal pursuant to section 37, the minister shall arrange for an appeal hearing if:

- (a) on the reconsideration, the minister determines that no error has been made with respect to the decision or that an adjustment to the satisfaction of the applicant or eligible beneficiary is not possible; and
- (b) the applicant or eligible beneficiary notifies the minister that he or she would like to appeal the decision.

(2) An appeal pursuant to this section may be made only with respect to any of the following matters:

- (a) a determination of financial eligibility;
- (b) a variation, suspension or cancellation of entitlement to receive a benefit;
- (c) an assessment of an overpayment;
- (d) a decision respecting the amount of a benefit.

(2.1) An appeal committee does not have the jurisdiction to hear any ground of appeal:

- (a) that may require a decision or determination concerning the constitutional validity, applicability or operability of an Act, a regulation made pursuant to an Act, an Act of the Parliament of Canada or a regulation made pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada;
  - (a.1) that, pursuant to section 52 of The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018, may require a decision or determination concerning the operability of the Act or these regulations;
- (b) that may require a remedy pursuant to subsection 24(1) of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms or pursuant to The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018; or
- (c) that may require a review of an opinion of the minister that is provided pursuant to these regulations.

(3) A hearing respecting an appeal pursuant to this section must be commenced with an appeal committee in private within 20 days after the date on which the minister notifies the appeal committee of the appeal.

(4) The minister shall advise the applicant or eligible beneficiary making the appeal in writing of:

- (a) the date, time and place of the hearing; and
- (b) the right of the applicant or eligible beneficiary:
  - (i) to present supporting evidence and witnesses at the hearing; and
  - (ii) to designate a representative or advocate.

(5) The testimony of the applicant or eligible beneficiary and any other witnesses at the hearing must relate to the issue under appeal.

(5.1) A hearing pursuant to this section must be conducted in an informal manner and the appeal committee is not bound by the rules of law concerning evidence.

(5.2) Recording devices must not be used at a hearing.

(6) The minister must be given the opportunity to present additional evidence and to question the applicant or eligible beneficiary or his or her representative or advocate.

(7) The applicant or eligible beneficiary, or his or her representative or advocate, must be given the opportunity:

- (a) to question the representative of the minister who attends the hearing and witnesses of the minister; and
- (b) to examine any documents submitted by the minister.

(8) The appeal committee or its representative may:

- (a) examine:
  - (i) the applicant or eligible beneficiary or his or her representative or advocate;
  - (ii) the minister;
  - (iii) any other witnesses; and
- (b) inspect any document submitted at the hearing.

(9) The appeal committee may adjourn a hearing from time to time, but the period of any adjournment must not exceed 30 days.

(10) On completing the hearing, the appeal committee shall briefly summarize the issues and evidence and policies relating to those issues.

- (a) may adjourn a hearing from time to time, but the period of any adjournment must not exceed 30 days; and
- (b) if a hearing is adjourned, shall notify the applicant or eligible beneficiary in writing of the adjournment.

(11) If an applicant or eligible beneficiary fails to appear in person or by a representative or advocate on the date and at the time and place set out in clause (4)(a), the appeal committee may:

- (a) proceed in the absence of the applicant or eligible beneficiary; and
- (b) make a decision on the basis of the written statement of the applicant or eligible beneficiary and the evidence provided by the minister.

(12) The appeal committee may make an immediate decision on the conclusion of the hearing.

(13) The appeal committee shall, no later than 30 days following the conclusion of the hearing, give a written decision and reasons for the decision to:

- (a) the applicant or eligible beneficiary; and
- (b) the minister.

- (14) If the appeal committee is unable to make a decision within seven days after the hearing, it shall notify the applicant or eligible beneficiary in writing of that fact.
- (15) The written decision mentioned in subsection (13) must advise the applicant or eligible beneficiary of the right to appeal to the appeal board.
- (16) A quorum of the appeal committee is three members.
- (17) The chairperson of the appeal committee may designate a member of the appeal committee as the acting chairperson in the chairperson's absence.

Appeals to the appeal board

39(1) An applicant or eligible beneficiary who is dissatisfied with the decision of an appeal committee made pursuant to section 38 may notify the minister in writing of:

- (a) his or her intention to appeal the appeal committee's decision to the appeal board; and
  - (b) the grounds of the appeal.
- (2) An applicant or eligible beneficiary who intends to appeal to the appeal board shall provide the written notice pursuant to subsection (1) within 20 days after the appeal committee's written decision is received by the applicant or eligible beneficiary.
- (2.1) An appeal board does not have the jurisdiction to hear any ground of appeal:
- (a) that may require a decision or determination concerning the constitutional validity, applicability or operability of an Act, a regulation made pursuant to an Act, an Act of the Parliament of Canada or a regulation made pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada;
  - (a.1) that, pursuant to section 52 of The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018, may require a decision or determination concerning the operability of the Act or these regulations;
  - (b) that may require a remedy pursuant to subsection 24(1) of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms or pursuant to The Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, 2018; or
  - (c) that may require a review of an opinion of the minister that is provided pursuant to these regulations.
- (3) If the minister is dissatisfied with the decision of the appeal committee made pursuant to section 38, the minister:
- (a) may notify, in writing, the secretary of the appeal board that the minister intends to appeal the decision to the appeal board and the grounds of the appeal; and
  - (b) if the minister provides notice pursuant to clause (a), shall promptly provide a written copy of the notice to the applicant or eligible beneficiary who is the subject of the decision.

(4) A notice to the secretary of the appeal board pursuant to subsection (3) must be provided within 20 days after the appeal committee's written decision is received by the minister.

(5) If the minister is notified of an appeal by the applicant or eligible beneficiary pursuant to subsection (1) or if the minister intends to appeal pursuant to subsection (3), the minister shall:

- (a) in the case of an appeal by an applicant or eligible beneficiary, send the notice of appeal and the grounds of appeal to the secretary of the appeal board;
- (b) transmit to the secretary of the appeal board:
  - (i) any documents and records in the possession of the minister relating to the matter under appeal;
  - (ii) a copy of the written decision and reasons of the appeal committee received pursuant to subsection 38(13); and
  - (iii) promptly on their being received pursuant to subsection (6), a summary of the issues and evidence presented before the appeal committee; and
- (c) notify the appeal committee of the appeal.

(6) On being notified pursuant to subsection (5), the appeal committee shall promptly provide to the minister a summary of the issues and evidence presented before the appeal committee.

(7) The appeal board shall commence an appeal hearing within 30 days after receipt of the notice of appeal by the secretary of the appeal board.

(8) The appeal board shall give not less than five days' written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to the minister and the applicant or eligible beneficiary.

(9) All hearings pursuant to this section are to be held in private.

(9.1) A hearing pursuant to this section must be conducted in an informal manner and the appeal board is not bound by the rules of law concerning evidence.

(9.2) Recording devices must not be used at hearings.

(9.3) The testimony of the applicant or eligible beneficiary and any other witnesses at the hearing must relate to the issue under appeal.

(9.4) The minister must be given the opportunity to present additional evidence and to question the applicant or eligible beneficiary or his or her representative or advocate.

(9.5) The applicant or eligible beneficiary, or his or her representative or advocate, must be given the opportunity:

- (a) to question the representative of the minister who attends the hearing and the minister's witnesses;
- (b) to examine any documents submitted by the minister; and
- (c) to present additional evidence related to the issue under appeal.

- (9.6) The appeal board or its representative may:
- (a) examine:
    - (i) the applicant or eligible beneficiary or his or her representative or advocate;
    - (ii) the representative of the minister who attends the hearing;
    - (iii) any other witness; and
  - (b) inspect any document submitted at the hearing.
- (10) The appeal board:
- (a) may adjourn a hearing from time to time, but the period of any adjournment must not exceed 30 days; and
  - (b) if a hearing is adjourned, shall notify the applicant or eligible beneficiary in writing of the adjournment.
- (11) If an applicant or eligible beneficiary fails to appear in person or by a representative or advocate on the date and at the time and place set out in subsection (8), the appeal board may:
- (a) proceed in the absence of the applicant or eligible beneficiary; and
  - (b) make a decision on the basis of the written statement of the applicant or eligible beneficiary and the evidence provided by the minister.
- (12) The decision of the appeal board on an appeal pursuant to this section is final.
- (12.1) On completing the hearing, the appeal board shall briefly summarize the issues and evidence and policies relating to those issues.
- (12.2) If the appeal board is unable to make a decision within seven days after the hearing, it shall notify the minister and the applicant or eligible beneficiary of that fact.
- (13) The appeal board shall, no later than 30 days following the conclusion of the hearing, give a written decision and reasons for the decision to the minister and the applicant or eligible beneficiary.
- (14) A quorum of the appeal board is three members.
- (15) The chairperson of the appeal board may designate a member of the appeal board as the acting chairperson in the chairperson's absence.

Appeal of disability assessment

- 40(1) In this section, “adjudicator” means an individual who is appointed to the list of adjudicators established pursuant to subsection (2).
- (2) The minister may establish a list of adjudicators composed of individuals who:
- (a) have an understanding of the essential elements for the conduct of a fair and objective appeal;

- (b) are not employees, or have not been employees within the past six months, in the ministry;
  - (c) do not have a personal, professional, financial or other interest in matters coming before adjudicators that would cause a reasonably informed person to have a reasonable perception that the adjudicators would not be independent and impartial; and
  - (d) have demonstrated experience and qualifications in performing disability assessments.
- (3) Following a reconsideration pursuant to section 37 of a decision respecting a disability assessment, the minister shall arrange for a review of the decision by an adjudicator if:
  - (a) on the reconsideration, the minister determines that no error has been made with respect to the decision or that an adjustment to the satisfaction of the applicant or eligible beneficiary is not possible; and
  - (b) the applicant or eligible beneficiary notifies the minister that he or she would like to appeal the decision to an adjudicator.
- (4) A request pursuant to subsection (3) must be made to the minister orally or in writing.
- (5) If the minister receives a request pursuant to subsection (4), the minister shall select an adjudicator from the list of adjudicators to conduct the review.
- (6) In conducting a review of an assessment decision, the adjudicator may:
  - (a) ask the applicant, eligible beneficiary or eligible family member and the minister for further information, including medical documentation confirming a permanent disability, and, on receipt of that request, the applicant, eligible beneficiary or eligible family member or the minister shall provide the requested information within the period set by the adjudicator; and
  - (b) require a new disability assessment of the applicant that the adjudicator considers necessary and, for that purpose, section 9 applies with any necessary modification.
- (7) The adjudicator shall:
  - (a) subject to subsection (8), make a decision within 20 days after the day on which the request was received by the adjudicator; and
  - (b) provide the applicant, eligible beneficiary or eligible family member and the minister with a written copy of the decision and the reasons for the decision.
- (8) If the adjudicator has requested further information pursuant to clause (6)(a) or has required that a new disability assessment of the applicant be made pursuant to clause (6)(b), the adjudicator may wait for a reasonable period after receiving that information or disability assessment until making a decision.

- (8.1) The adjudicator:
- (a) may adjourn the review of an assessment decision from time to time for a period not to exceed 30 days; and
  - (b) shall, if the review of an assessment decision is adjourned, notify the applicant in writing of the adjournment.
- (9) The decision of the adjudicator is final.

TABLE 2
Benefits
[Section 18]

General provisions re Table 2

1(1) The minister may provide a benefit to an eligible beneficiary in accordance with this Table.

(2) In this Table:

- (a) column 1 sets out the type of benefit and when it is payable;
- (b) column 2 sets out the criteria that must be met to be eligible for the benefit and the purpose of the benefit; and
- (c) column 3 sets out the amount of the benefit.

(3) No type of benefit is payable unless the minister is satisfied that the criteria set out in column 2 for that type of benefit has been met.

(4) In column 1, if a benefit is stated to be paid:

- (a) monthly, the benefit is to be paid:
  - (i) in accordance with the monthly schedule of payments established by the minister and posted on the ministry's website; or
  - (ii) if the minister considers it appropriate to do so, at any other intervals that the minister may determine; or
- (b) periodically, the benefit is to be paid at those intervals that the minister may determine.

Schedule of rates and rules for living income and personal benefits

2(1) For a benefit described in items 1 to 4 of the Table, the minister may establish a schedule of rates that vary in accordance with all or any of the following:

- (a) the number of adults in an eligible beneficiary's family unit;
- (b) the number of children in an eligible beneficiary's family unit;
- (c) the municipality in which an eligible beneficiary's accommodation is situated;
- (d) the date on which the eligible beneficiary's application for a benefit was received by the minister.

(2) If an eligible beneficiary establishes eligibility for a benefit mentioned in items 1 to 4 of the Table, the benefit that may be paid to the eligible beneficiary is to be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) subject to clauses (b) and (c), the benefit is to be calculated from the date on which the eligible beneficiary's application was received by the minister;
- (b) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible beneficiary has paid accommodation costs for that month before making the application, the benefit for the first month must be prorated based on the number of days in the month for which the eligible beneficiary is eligible to receive the benefit;
- (c) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible beneficiary has not paid accommodation costs for that month before making the application:
  - (i) with respect to the accommodation portion of the living income benefit as set out in item 1 of this Table, the minister may pay the full amount as set out in the schedule of rates established by the minister for that month; and
  - (ii) with respect to the remaining portions of the living income benefit as set out in item 1 of this Table, the minister may pay a prorated amount for that month based on the number of days in the month for which the eligible beneficiary is eligible to receive benefits.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the number of days in a month is deemed to be 30.

Schedule of rates and rules for laundry and utilities benefits

3(1) For a benefit described in item 6 of the Table, the minister may establish a schedule of rates that vary in accordance with all or any of the following:

- (a) the number and type of utilities that an eligible beneficiary pays for;
- (b) the number of members of the eligible beneficiary's family unit with respect to whom the benefit is being provided;
- (c) the municipality in which the eligible beneficiary's accommodation is situated.

(2) The rate paid for utilities described in subsection (1) may be either the actual amount of the utility cost or a fixed-rate amount determined by a schedule of rates approved by the minister.

(3) If an eligible beneficiary establishes eligibility for a benefit described in item 6 of the Table, the benefit that may be provided to the eligible beneficiary is to be calculated in accordance with the following rules:

- (a) subject to clauses (b) and (c), the benefit is to be calculated from the date on which the eligible beneficiary's application was received by the minister;
  - (b) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible beneficiary has paid the utilities costs for that month before making the application, no benefit is payable to the eligible beneficiary for the first month;
  - (c) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible beneficiary has not paid the utility costs for that month before making the application, the benefit for the first month is the amount for the month as set out in the schedule of rates established by the minister.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the number of days in a month is deemed to be 30.
- (5) If the minister is satisfied that an eligible beneficiary had the resources to pay for the utilities that are in arrears at the time of the eligible beneficiary's application, the amount of any benefit provided pursuant to item 9 of the Table to pay the arrears is deemed to be excess assistance for the purposes of section 29.3 of the Act.
