The Commissioners for Oaths Act, 2012

Title

- 1 These regulations may be cited as The Commissioners for Oaths Regulations, 2013.

Interpretation

- 2 In these regulations, “Act” means The Commissioners for Oaths Act, 2012.

15 Feb 2013 cC-16.001 Reg 1 s2.

Expiry of appointment

3(1) Subject to subsection (2), for the purposes of subsection 3(2) of the Act, the appointment of a commissioner expires five years from the last day of the month in which the appointment is made, unless it is sooner revoked.

(2) A commissioner may apply to renew his or her appointment as a commissioner.

(3) An application for renewal pursuant to subsection (2) must be made before the expiry of the term mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) If a commissioner applies to renew his or her appointment as a commissioner pursuant to subsection (2), the commissioner may continue to exercise the powers of a commissioner on the same terms and conditions as those of his or her appointment for a further period of one month after the expiry of the term mentioned in subsection (1), unless the minister sooner:

- (a) renews the appointment; or
- (b) refuses the application.

15 Feb 2013 cC-16.001 Reg 1 s3.

Fee

4(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the fee payable for appointment as a commissioner pursuant to the Act is $100.

(2) No fee is payable by an employee of the Government of Saskatchewan:

- (a) who is a commissioner by virtue of his or her office or status pursuant to section 6; or
- (b) who is required to be appointed as a commissioner in connection with his or her duties.

(3) A fee of $10 is payable for appointment as a commissioner by an employee mentioned in clause (a) or (b) if:

(a) in the opinion of the chief of a police service established by a board or council of a municipality, it is necessary for an employee of that police service other than a police officer to be a commissioner in connection with the employee's duties; or

(b) in the opinion of a detachment commander in Saskatchewan of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, it is necessary for an employee of that police service other than a police officer to be a commissioner in connection with the employee's duties.
