- (b) by the surviving parent of the minor where one of the parents is dead.

(2) The consent of only one parent is sufficient:

- (a) where that parent has legal custody of the minor and the marriage of the parents has been dissolved or the parents are living separate and apart from each other pursuant to a decree of judicial separation or under a separation agreement; or
- (b) where the other parent is a patient in an in-patient facility within the meaning of The Mental Health Services Act.

(3) The consent of only one parent is sufficient where the minor has been living with that parent for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of the intended marriage of the minor and where:

(4) If one of the parties to the intended marriage is a minor and if both parents of the minor are dead or one of the parents is dead and the other parent is a patient in an in-patient facility within the meaning of The Mental Health Services Act, then before the issue of a licence there must be deposited with the issuer a consent of the kind mentioned in subsection (1), given by a lawfully appointed guardian of the minor or the acknowledged guardian who may have brought up or may, for three years immediately preceding the intended marriage, have supported the minor.

(5) If one of the parties to the intended marriage is a minor and the minor has been committed to the Minister of Social Services pursuant to The Family Services Act, being chapter F-7 of The Revised Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1978, or The Child and Family Services Act, then before the issue of the licence there must be deposited with the issuer a consent of the kind mentioned in subsection (1), given by a director within the meaning of that Act.

(6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not apply to a person who is a widow or widower or who has been previously married but whose marriage has been dissolved.
