 - (iii) a loss of or damage to uninsurable property of one eligible claimant, other than a local government authority, in an amount that exceeds $5,000;
- (p) “uninsurable property” means property that, in the opinion of the minister, is not ordinarily insurable at a reasonable premium.

PART II

Procedure

Designation of eligible assistance areas

3(1) When a disaster occurs in an area:

- (a) a local government authority or a park authority having jurisdiction in the area may request, by resolution; or
- (b) in the case of the member of the Executive Council responsible for the administration of The Parks Act, that member of the Executive Council may request in any manner that he or she considers appropriate; that the minister designate the area as an eligible assistance area.

(2) When the minister receives a request in accordance with subsection (1) and is reasonably satisfied that the area has suffered substantial loss or damage, the minister may, in the minister’s absolute discretion, designate the area as an eligible assistance area.

Criteria for assistance

4 No disaster assistance is payable unless:

- (a) the loss, damage, cost or expense for which a disaster compensation claim is filed is incurred in an eligible assistance area;
- (b) a disaster compensation claim is filed within the time limit prescribed in subsection 6(1);
- (c) an eligible claimant provides proof and does all the other things described in subsection 6(2) within the time limit prescribed in that subsection; and
- (d) a disaster compensation claim has been approved.

Claims

5(1) A disaster compensation claim is to be made on a form to be supplied by the minister in accordance with any procedures that the minister may prescribe.

(2) The minister may prescribe any procedures to be followed in making a disaster compensation claim.

Limitation on filing claim

6(1) A disaster compensation claim is to be filed with the minister within six months from the occurrence of the disaster to which the disaster compensation claim relates, or within any further time that the minister may allow.

(2) Within 12 months from the occurrence of the disaster to which the disaster compensation claim relates, or within any further time that the minister may allow, an eligible claimant shall:

(a) provide proof, satisfactory to the minister, of the eligible claimant's entitlement to disaster compensation; and

(b) do all things that the minister considers necessary to support, to the minister's satisfaction, the eligible claimant's claim.

Eligible claimant to file

7(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an eligible claimant shall file his or her own disaster compensation claim.

(2) An agent for an eligible claimant may file a disaster compensation claim for an eligible claimant where:

(a) the eligible claimant is absent or unable to file the disaster compensation claim; and

(b) the minister is satisfied with the explanation for the eligible claimant's absence or inability to file.

(3) Only one disaster compensation claim may be filed in relation to a disaster in the case of:

(a) a primary agricultural enterprise that is a partnership, corporation or co-operative;

(b) a small business that is a partnership or corporation; or

(c) a park authority.

Limitation on assistance

8 No disaster assistance is payable for any work done or for any cost, expense or liability incurred prior to approval of the disaster compensation claim.

Minister may require proof

9 The minister may require a local government authority to furnish proof satisfactory to the minister that any disaster assistance is spent only in repairing, restoring or replacing any of the items identified by the local government authority in the disaster compensation claim for which the disaster assistance is paid.

PART III

Disaster Compensation Claims

Assistance for immediate action or remedy

10 Notwithstanding section 8, any person who or any local government authority or park authority that:

(a) undertakes any immediate action; or

(b) provides an immediate remedy;

that is necessary because of, or during the period of, a disaster may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to compensate the person, local government authority or park authority for any costs or expenses incurred in undertaking the immediate action or providing the immediate remedy.

Assistance to local government authorities

11(1) A local government authority may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to enable the local government authority to restore any local community services or any property of the local government authority that is damaged because of a disaster, including any costs and expenses incurred in:

- (a) any necessary clearing of debris or wreckage from:
 - (i) channels and streams;
 - (ii) the inflow and outflow of sewers and storm drains to permit reasonable functioning of the sewer and storm drain system; and
 - (iii) water supply reservoirs;
- (b) removing any building or building debris or any tree or tree limb that is a source of danger to public safety;
- (c) restoring health and sanitation facilities;
- (d) restoring any street, road, bridge, sidewalk, wharf or dock;
- (e) restoring any dike, levee and drainage facility, including flood control and irrigation systems;
- (f) removing any emergency works and restoring any sites on which the emergency works were located;
- (g) restoring any public library, jail or welfare institution, police station, fire station, public building or public bathing beach, zoo, park or other public recreational facility or any other local government or other building that is provided for and maintained by the local government authority and intended for and used by the public, together with any equipment relating to the building or facility that the minister determines to be reasonably necessary to the function that the building or other facility is intended to serve;
- (h) restoring any municipal public utility; and
- (i) employing an inspection and appraisal service of a planning and design system for the purpose of determining the restoration or replacement cost of any property or facility for which disaster assistance may be paid.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no disaster compensation claim is to include any cost or expense that may be incurred to raise the profile of, or to improve in any other way beyond predisaster condition, any street, lane, road, highway, bridge, culvert or other public structure.

Assistance to park authorities

12(1) A park authority may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to enable the park authority to restore any park services or any property of the park authority that is damaged because of a disaster, including any costs and expenses incurred in:

- (a) any necessary clearing of debris or wreckage from:
 - (i) channels and streams;
 - (ii) the inflow and outflow of sewers and storm drains to permit reasonable functioning of the sewer and storm drain system; and
 - (iii) water supply reservoirs;
- (b) removing any building or building debris or any tree or tree limb that is a source of danger to public safety;
- (c) restoring health and sanitation facilities;

- (d) restoring any street, road, bridge, sidewalk, wharf or dock;
- (e) restoring any dike, levee and drainage facility, including flood control and irrigation systems;
- (f) removing any emergency works and restoring any sites on which the emergency works were located;
- (g) restoring any public building, public bathing beach, zoo, park or other public recreational facility that is provided for and maintained by the park authority and intended for and used by the public, together with any equipment relating to the building or facility that the minister determines to be reasonably necessary to the function that the building or other facility is intended to serve;
- (h) restoring a sewer, water or light infrastructure owned by the park authority, or for which the park authority is responsible; and
- (i) employing an inspection and appraisal service of a planning and design system for the purpose of determining the restoration or replacement cost of any property or facility for which disaster assistance may be paid.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no disaster compensation claim is to include any cost or expense that may be incurred to raise the profile of, or to improve in any other way beyond pre-disaster condition, any street, lane, road, highway, bridge, culvert or other park structure.

Assistance to individuals

13(1) An individual may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required:

- (a) to restore any dwelling, including a mobile home, that is the principal residence of the individual or the individual's family;
- (b) to restore any garage or driveway on the grounds on which the dwelling described in clause (a) is situated;
- (c) to restore or replace any appliance, furnishing, clothing or other personal property that is necessary to the health or reasonable comfort of the individual or the individual's family; and
- (d) to restore or replace any other personal property or other building essential to the individual's livelihood; that is owned by the individual or the individual's family and that has been damaged by a disaster.

(2) An individual may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to clean up any debris on the grounds on which the dwelling described in clause (1)(a) is situated.

(3) No disaster compensation claim may be made by an individual for any real property that is damaged in a disaster where the individual agrees to sell the property to the Crown in right of Saskatchewan.

Assistance to hospitals

14 A district health board or the board of governors, board of management or any person who owns or operates a hospital may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to restore any real or personal property relating to the operation of the hospital that has been damaged or destroyed by a disaster, including an amount that is necessary to restore:

- (a) any building that is used to provide patient services by the hospital;
- (b) any building that is used to provide living accommodation for employees of the hospital; and

- (c) any equipment, appliance, furnishing, clothing or other personal property or fixture that is essential to enable the hospital to provide patient services.

Assistance to charitable organizations

15 The board of governors, board of management or any person who owns or operates a charitable organization may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to restore any real or personal property relating to the operation of the charitable organization that has been damaged or destroyed by a disaster, including an amount that is necessary to restore:

- (a) any building that is used to provide charitable services by the charitable organization;
- (b) any building that is used to provide living accommodation for employees of the charitable organization; and
- (c) any equipment, appliance, furnishing, clothing or other personal property or fixture that is essential to enable the charitable organization to provide community services.

Assistance to educational institutions

16 The board of education, board of governors, college board or any other person who owns or operates an educational institution may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to restore any real or personal property relating to the operation of the education institution that has been damaged or destroyed by a disaster, including an amount that is necessary to restore:

- (a) any building that is used to provide an educational service or that is used as living or office accommodation for students, teachers or other employees of the educational institution; and
- (b) any equipment, appliance, furnishing, clothing or other personal property or fixture that is essential to enable the educational institution to provide educational services.

Assistance to small business

17 An owner of a small business may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required to restore:

- (a) any real property that:
 - (i) is occupied for the purposes of the small business;
 - (ii) is damaged or destroyed by a disaster; and
 - (iii) in the case of:
 - (A) a small business that is incorporated, is owned by the small business or that the small business is legally liable to repair or replace; or
 - (B) a small business that is not incorporated, is owned by the owner of the small business or that he or she is legally liable to repair or replace; and
- (b) any equipment, furnishing, tool, stock-in-trade or other personal property or fixture that is essential to the carrying on of the small business and that:
 - (i) is damaged or destroyed by a disaster; and
 - (ii) in the case of:
 - (A) a small business that is incorporated, is owned by the small business or that the small business is legally liable to repair or replace; or
 - (B) a small business that is not incorporated, is owned by the owner of the small business or that he or she is legally liable to repair or replace.

Assistance to primary agricultural enterprises

18 An owner or operator of a primary agricultural enterprise may make a disaster compensation claim in the amount required:

- (a) to restore:
 - (i) any farm building, including a dwelling, or any fence, corral or other structure;
 - (ii) any appliance, furnishing or other household personal property contained in a farm dwelling;
 - (iii) any clothing; and
 - (iv) any machine, tool or supply;

that is damaged or destroyed by a disaster and that is used in and essential to the business of the primary agricultural enterprise; and

- (b) to compensate for:
 - (i) any loss of:
 - (A) livestock or greenhouse plants, calculated according to the actual value immediately before the disaster; and
 - (B) produce or livestock feed in storage on the premises of the primary agricultural enterprise at the time of a disaster, calculated according to its actual value immediately before the disaster; that is actually sustained by an owner or operator of the primary agricultural enterprise as the direct result of a disaster; and

- (ii) any cost of filling and shaping, by earthwork, of gullies and of repairing by earthwork of any damage caused by a disaster to farm access roads on any land of the primary agricultural enterprise, but only where:
 - (A) the damage caused by the disaster exceeds any damage that is caused by, or may be anticipated from, normal spring occurrences;
 - (B) the repairs are approved by any agency or department of the Government of Saskatchewan that may be authorized by the minister to give such approval;
 - (C) the owner or operator files with the minister receipts for the work of filling, shaping or repairing gullies or work on farm access roads; and
 - (D) the earthwork is done within four quarter sections of land.

Assistance to departments, etc.

19(1) Subject to subsection (2), the minister may pay disaster assistance to a department, board or commission of the Government of Saskatchewan.

- (2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, by order:
 - (a) designate the departments, boards or commissions of the Government of Saskatchewan that have sustained damage because of a disaster to which the minister shall pay disaster assistance;
 - (b) specify the amount of disaster assistance; and
 - (c) impose any conditions on the payment of disaster assistance that the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers appropriate.

PART IV

Payment of Disaster Assistance

Maximum amount of assistance

20(1) Subject to subsection (2), the maximum amount of disaster assistance that may be paid by the minister to an eligible claimant, other than a local government authority, is $30,000.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) or section 21, there is no limit on the amount of disaster assistance that may be paid by the minister to an eligible claimant that is:

- (a) a department, board or commission of the Government of Saskatchewan; or
- (b) a park authority that is the member of the Executive Council responsible for the administration of The Parks Act.

Amount of assistance

21 Subject to section 20, the amount of disaster assistance payable to an eligible claimant, other than a local government authority, is equal to the difference between the eligible claimant's disaster compensation claim and:

- (a) in the case of a claim made pursuant to sections 12 and 17, paragraph 18(b)(i)(B) or subclause 18(b)(ii), the total of:
 - (i) $1,000; and
 - (ii) 30% of the amount, if any, by which the disaster assistance claim exceeds $1,000; and
- (b) in any other case, the total of:
 - (i) $500; and
 - (ii) 30% of the amount, if any, by which the disaster assistance claim exceeds $500.

Amount of assistance to local government authorities

22(1) In this section, "net disaster compensation claim" means the amount of the disaster compensation claim of a local government authority minus the lesser of:

- (a) $1,000,000; or
- (b) the equivalent of a three-mill levy by the local government authority on its taxable assessments, as determined by using the rateable assessment for the local government authority.

(2) The amount of disaster assistance payable to a local government authority is equal to the total of:

- (a) 50% of the portion of its net disaster compensation claim that is less than a three-mill levy on the taxable assessments of the local government authority according to its rateable assessment;
- (b) 75% of the portion of its net disaster compensation claim that is equal to or greater than a three-mill levy but less than a six-mill levy on the taxable assessments of the local government authority according to its rateable assessment; and
- (c) 90% of the portion of its net disaster compensation claim that is equal to or greater than a six-mill levy on the taxable assessments of the local government authority according to its rateable assessment.

Ineligible assistance for reducing risk of future damage, etc.

23 No disaster assistance is payable:

- (a) for any loss of or damage to, or cost or expense of, a project or activity that is designed, undertaken or performed primarily for the purpose of:
 - (i) abating or reducing the risk of loss or damage from any future disaster; or
 - (ii) providing financial, material or other economic assistance to any area of Saskatchewan, other than any assistance for which a disaster compensation claim may be made; or
- (b) where:
 - (i) any damages or compensation sustained by an eligible claimant are recoverable at law; or
 - (ii) an eligible claimant is eligible for compensation, other than compensation provided pursuant to these regulations, under a compensation program operated by the Government of Canada, the Government of Saskatchewan or a local government authority.

Ineligible assistance for normal losses, operating expenses, etc.

24(1) No disaster assistance is payable to an eligible claimant for:

- (a) any loss, cost or expense where the risk or the loss, cost or expense is normal, usual or incidental to the business, calling or enterprise of the eligible claimant;
 - (b) any operating cost or expense; or
 - (c) any loss of or damage to, or cost or expense incurred or expended for any matter or thing that is not, in the opinion of the minister, essential to the restoration of a home, means of livelihood or essential community service.
- (2) For the purposes of clause (1)(c), the loss of or damage to, or cost or expense incurred or expended for the following are deemed to be non-essential to the restoration of a home, means of livelihood or essential community service:
- (a) summer cottages;
 - (b) boat houses;
 - (c) docks;
 - (d) pleasure boats, other than an eligible claimant's stock-in-trade;
 - (e) trailers, other than an eligible claimant's stock-in-trade;
 - (f) recreation vehicles and equipment, other than an eligible claimant's stock-in-trade;
 - (g) flowers, shrubs, trees and grass, other than the stock-in-trade of a tree nursery or greenhouse operation;
 - (h) jewellery, other than an eligible claimant's stock-in-trade;
 - (i) art works, other than an eligible claimant's stock-in-trade; or
 - (j) antiques, other than an eligible claimant's stock-in-trade.

Ineligible assistance for losses covered by insurance

25 Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, no disaster assistance is payable to an eligible claimant for any loss or damage that, in the opinion of the minister, might have been covered under a contract or other instrument of insurance at a reasonable premium rate, whether or not:

- (a) the eligible claimant is insured at the time of the disaster; or

(b) any insurance proceeds are collectable.

Ineligible assistance for loss in flood hazard area

26(1) In this section, “agreement” means the “Agreement Respecting Flood Damage Reduction” made between the Government of Canada and the Government of Saskatchewan and dated April 13, 1977, as amended from time to time, or any successor agreement to that Agreement.

(2) Where any loss or damage is sustained, or any cost or expense is incurred, in any area that has been designated as a flood hazard area pursuant to the agreement, the amount of disaster assistance that is payable is any amount that is permitted by the agreement.

 - (k) for a floppy disk, $10;
 - (l) for a form of record not mentioned in clauses (a) to (k), the actual cost of copying the record.
- (3) Where time in excess of one hour is spent in searching for a record requested by an applicant or in preparing it for disclosure, a fee of $15 for each half-hour or portion of a half-hour of that excess time is payable at the time when access is given.
- (4) Where a search and retrieval of electronic data is required to give access to a record requested by an applicant, a fee equal to the actual cost of the search and retrieval, including machinery and operator costs, is payable at the time when access is given.

Estimate

6(1) For the purposes of subsection 9(2) of the Act, the amount of fees beyond which an estimate must be given by the head is $50 in excess of the fee set out in subsection 5(1).

(2) Where the amount of an estimate exceeds the actual amount of fees determined pursuant to this Act, the actual amount of fees is the amount payable by the applicant.

Fees where access refused

7(1) No fees are payable pursuant to subsections 5(2) to 5(4) where access to a record is refused.

(2) Where a deposit has been paid pursuant to subsection 9(4) of the Act and access to the record requested is refused, the amount of the deposit in excess of the fee set out in subsection 5(1) is to be refunded to the applicant.

Waiver of fees

8 For the purposes of subsection 9(5) of the Act, the following circumstances are prescribed as circumstances in which a head may waive payment of fees:

- (a) with respect to the fee set out in subsection 5(1), where the application involves the personal information of the applicant;
- (b) with respect to the fees set out in subsections 5(2) to 5(4):
 - (i) where the actual cost of responding to an application varies from the total of the prescribed fees that are applicable to the application;
 - (ii) where payment of the prescribed fees will cause a substantial financial hardship for the applicant and:
 - (A) in the opinion of the head, giving access to the record is in the public interest; or
 - (B) the application involves the personal information of the applicant.

Disclosure of personal information to law enforcement agencies

9 For the purposes of clause 28(2)(g) of the Act, the following law enforcement agencies and investigative bodies are prescribed as law enforcement agencies or investigative bodies to which personal information may be disclosed:

- (a) the Royal Canadian Mounted Police;
