2013, c.C-16.002, s.2; 2015, c.21, s.11.

Fees

3(1) The minister may determine:

- (a) subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the amount of fees, taxes, rates or other charges payable for any services provided pursuant to this Act; and
- (b) the method of payment or collection of any fees, taxes, rates or other charges imposed pursuant to this Act.

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the minister may enter into an agreement with a person to provide a special service to that person and, in that agreement, impose a special fee or charge for that special service if, in the opinion of the minister, a fee or charge mentioned in subsection (1) is not adequate to allow the minister to provide that service to the person.
- (3) If the minister considers it appropriate or necessary, the minister may:
- (a) waive, in whole or in part, the payment of any fee, tax, rate or other charge; or
 - (b) refund, in whole or in part, the amount of any fee, tax, rate or other charge.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.3.

System of common business identifiers

- 4(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations establishing or adopting a system of common business identifiers for business entities.
- (2) Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the minister may enter into an agreement with the Government of Canada for the purpose of:
- (a) facilitating the establishment or adoption of a system of common business identifiers; and
 - (b) integrating or coordinating the system of common business identifiers established or adopted in the regulations with a system of common business identifiers established by the Government of Canada.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.4.

Agreements with respect to system of common business identifiers

- 5(1) The minister may enter into an agreement with a public body for all or any of the following purposes:
- (a) the use by the public body of the system of common business identifiers established or adopted pursuant to section 4;
 - (b) the access by the public body, or by a person or class of persons mentioned in the agreement, to information collected by the minister pursuant to this Act.
- (2) Agreements entered into pursuant to subsection (1) may contain provisions that deal with all or any of the following matters:
- (a) the duties and responsibilities of the parties to the agreement;
 - (b) the terms and conditions on which the public body may exercise any of its powers pursuant to this Act;
 - (c) the collection of fees, taxes, rates or other charges pursuant to a designated enactment on behalf of the public body and the remittance of those fees, taxes, rates or other charges by the minister to the public body;

- (d) the manner in which an agreement may be terminated and the obligations of each party on termination of the agreement;
- (e) any other matters that the parties consider appropriate or necessary.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.5.

Assigning a common business identifier

6(1) For the purpose of assigning a common business identifier to a business entity, if the business entity provides information to a public body pursuant to a designated enactment, the public body or person acting for the public body may:

- (a) request that the business entity provide its business information to the public body; and
- (b) provide the business information mentioned in clause (a) to the Government of Canada.

(2) For the purpose of assigning a common business identifier to a business entity, a public body that has been provided information by the business entity pursuant to a designated enactment before the prescribed date may:

- (a) use the information in its possession or, if the information is incomplete, request from the business entity any additional business information not previously provided; and
- (b) provide the information mentioned in clause (a) to the Government of Canada.

(3) A public body may request business information in any form or format that the public body considers appropriate.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.6.

Use of common business identifier

7(1) A public body may require from a business entity its common business identifier when the business entity provides information to the public body pursuant to a designated enactment.

(2) If required to do so by a public body, a business entity shall provide its common business identifier for all matters relating to a designated enactment.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.7.

Information system

8(1) A public body that obtains information pursuant to section 6 or that obtains a common business identifier for a business entity shall provide that information to the minister.

(2) The minister may establish and manage an information system for the purpose of:

- (a) receiving and storing information mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (b) integrating and updating information with respect to business entities.

(3) The minister may receive and store the following information in the information system mentioned in subsection (2):

- (a) the date the common business identifier was assigned to the business entity;
- (b) the operation type of the business entity, as identified by a public body;
- (c) the registration status of the business entity;
- (d) any other prescribed information.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.8.

Disclosure of information

9(1) Information with respect to a business entity that is stored in the information system established pursuant to section 8 may be disclosed by the minister:

- (a) to a public body or person acting for a public body for the purpose of:
 - (i) correcting or updating information in the information system of the minister or the public body; or
 - (ii) administering or enforcing a law in effect in Saskatchewan; or
- (b) to a party to an agreement made pursuant to section 4 or 5 for the purpose of complying with that agreement.

(2) The authority pursuant to this section to disclose information with respect to a business entity is in addition to any other express or implied authority or obligation to disclose that information.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.9.

Filing and accessing of information

10(1) Information that business entities are required to file or are authorized to access pursuant to a designated enactment may be filed or accessed, as the case may be, by a person or a class of persons authorized to do so in the applicable agreement between the minister and the public body.

(2) The minister may attach conditions to an authorization given pursuant to subsection (1).

2013, c.C-16.002, s.10.

Immunity

11(1) Subject to subsection (2), no action or proceeding lies or shall be commenced against the Crown in right of Saskatchewan, the minister or any officer, employee or agent of the Crown in right of Saskatchewan if that person is acting pursuant to the authority of this Act or the regulations, for anything in good faith done, caused or permitted or authorized to be done, attempted to be done or omitted to be done by that person or by any of those persons pursuant to or in the exercise or supposed exercise of any power conferred by this Act or the regulations or in the carrying out or supposed carrying out of any duty imposed by this Act or the regulations.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a claim for compensation that relates to the administration of a designated enactment if the designated enactment provides a right to compensation that may be payable to a person who suffers a financial loss.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.11.

Minister may delegate

12(1) The minister may delegate to any person the exercise of any of the powers given to, or the fulfilment of any of the responsibilities imposed on, the minister pursuant to this Act and the regulations.

(2) The minister may impose any terms and conditions on a delegation pursuant to this section that the minister considers appropriate.

(3) A decision or action of a delegate in relation to the exercise or performance of any power or responsibility delegated to that delegate pursuant to subsection (1) is deemed to be a decision or action of the minister.

2013, c.C-16.002, s.12.

Regulations

13(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:

- (a) defining, enlarging or restricting the meaning of any word or expression used in this Act but not defined in this Act;
