PART II Application, Eligibility and Approval

DIVISION 1

Application

Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s4.

DIVISION 2

Eligibility

Interpretation of Division

4(1) In this Division, “residency requirement” means, with respect to an individual, that the individual:

- (a) is a Canadian citizen;
- (b) is authorized pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada to take up permanent residence in Canada;
- (c) is determined pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada) or the Immigration Act (Canada) to be a Convention refugee;
- (d) is in Canada under a temporary resident permit issued pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada) or on a minister’s permit issued pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada);

- (e) is in the process of having his or her claim for refugee protection, or application for protection, determined or decided pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada); or
 - (f) is subject to a removal order pursuant to the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada) that cannot be executed.
- (2) An eligible recipient who does not satisfy the residency requirement may be eligible for benefits if the minister is satisfied:
- (a) that the eligible recipient or a dependant of the eligible recipient is being treated for a medical condition and is unable to leave Saskatchewan;
 - (b) that the eligible recipient or a dependant of the eligible recipient died while in Saskatchewan; or
 - (c) that exceptional circumstances exist.

Eligibility criteria – individuals

- 5(1) This section applies to an eligible recipient who is an individual.
- (2) An individual is an eligible recipient only if the individual:
- (a) is a Saskatchewan resident;
 - (b) is 18 years of age or older;
 - (c) meets the residency requirement;
 - (d) is determined pursuant to section 8 to have a budget shortfall;
 - (e) satisfies the minister that the individual has explored every reasonable possibility of providing for the individual's needs and the needs of the individual's family unit, if any, including applying for any benefits provided by the Government of Canada, the Government of Saskatchewan or any other government, or any agency of that government, for which the individual or any member of the individual's family unit may be eligible; and
 - (f) participates in periodic case planning.

5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s6.

Eligibility criteria - family units

- 6(1) This section applies to an eligible recipient that is a family unit.
- (2) A family unit is an eligible recipient only if:
- (a) at least one of the family members:
 - (i) is a Saskatchewan resident;
 - (ii) is 18 years of age or older; and
 - (iii) meets the residency requirement;

- (b) the family unit is determined pursuant to section 9 to have a budget shortfall;
 - (c) the family unit satisfies the minister that it has explored every reasonable possibility of providing for its needs, including applying for any benefits provided by the Government of Canada, the Government of Saskatchewan or any other government, or any agency of that government, for which the family unit may be eligible; and
 - (d) the family unit participates in periodic case planning.
- (3) Subject to any other provision of these regulations, if a family unit includes an individual who does not meet the residency requirement, that individual's income and assets may be included in determining the income and assets of the family unit for the purposes of determining whether the family unit has a budget shortfall.

Ineligible individuals

7(1) Notwithstanding sections 5 and 6, no benefit is to be paid to or on behalf of an individual who:

- (a) is detained under a sentence of imprisonment of more than 30 days in:
 - (i) a correctional facility as defined in The Correctional Services Act, 2012; or
 - (ii) a custody facility as defined in The Youth Justice Administration Act;
 - (b) is an inmate as defined in the Corrections and Conditional Release Act (Canada) or a prisoner as defined in the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada);
 - (c) is ordinarily resident on an Indian reserve as defined in the Indian Act (Canada); or
 - (d) is a student who is enrolled full-time in a post-secondary program, unless the student is:
 - (i) a person with a disability for whom post-secondary training that is not a university post-graduate program offers the only reasonable prospect for employment and leads to a vocational goal approved by the minister; or
 - (ii) a person who does not have a disability and who:
 - (A) is enrolled in a post-secondary program leading to a vocational goal that is not a university post-graduate program;
 - (B) has been receiving benefits for the 12-month period preceding his or her attendance at an educational institution; and
 - (C) supports a spouse who is a person with a disability.
- (2) The minister may waive the requirement set out in paragraph (1)(d)(ii)(B) if the minister determines it is appropriate to do so.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s7.

Budget shortfall - individuals

- 8(1) This section applies to an eligible recipient who is an individual.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) and section 10, an individual has a budget shortfall if the individual's monthly income determined pursuant to clause (3)(a) is less than the monthly total of benefits to which the individual would be entitled as determined pursuant to clause (3)(b).
- (3) For the purposes of determining if an individual has a budget shortfall, the minister:
- (a) shall determine the individual's monthly income in accordance with section 11 and subsection 13(3);
 - (b) shall determine the monthly total of the benefits to which the individual would be entitled if he or she were an eligible recipient;
 - (c) shall determine the total of all liquid assets owned by the individual in accordance with section 12; and
 - (d) shall determine whether the individual owns excess assets in accordance with section 13;
 - (e) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s8.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, if the minister determines that an individual would be entitled to a benefit only with respect to health services, the minister shall:
- (a) determine the health services that would be required over 12 months;
 - (b) include any costs for the health services mentioned in clause (a) that the minister is satisfied are reasonably anticipated;
 - (c) determine the individual's needs based on whether the individual's monthly income, as determined in accordance with section 11 and subsection 13(3), will be sufficient to cover the costs of the health services mentioned in clause (b); and
 - (d) if the minister is satisfied that the individual's monthly income is not sufficient to cover the cost of the health services, declare that the individual has a budget shortfall for the purposes of these regulations.
- (5) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s8.

10/2017 s3; 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s8.

Budget shortfall - family units

- 9(1) In this section, "family unit's monthly income" means the monthly income of all of its family members.
- (2) This section applies to a family unit.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) and section 11, a family unit has a budget shortfall if the family unit's monthly income determined pursuant to clause (4)(a) is less than the monthly total of benefits to which the family unit would be entitled, as determined pursuant to clause (4)(b).

- (4) For the purposes of determining if a family unit has a budget shortfall, the minister:
- (a) shall determine the family unit's monthly income in accordance with subsection 6(3), section 11 and subsection 13(3);
 - (b) shall determine the monthly total of the benefits to which the family unit would be entitled if it were an eligible recipient;
 - (c) shall determine the total of all liquid assets owned by the family unit in accordance with section 12; and
 - (d) shall determine whether the family unit owns excess assets in accordance with section 13;
 - (e) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s9.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, if the minister determines that a family unit would be entitled to a benefit only with respect to health services, the minister shall:
- (a) determine the health services that would be required over 12 months;
 - (b) include any costs for the health services mentioned in clause (a) that the minister is satisfied are reasonably anticipated;
 - (c) determine the family unit's needs based on whether the family unit's monthly income, as determined in accordance with subsection 6(3), section 11 and subsection 13(3), will be sufficient to cover the costs of the health services mentioned in clause (b); and
 - (d) if the minister is satisfied that the family unit's monthly income is not sufficient to cover the cost of the health services, declare that the family unit has a budget shortfall for the purposes of these regulations.
- (6) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s9.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s9; 17 Feb 2017 SR
10/2017 s4; 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s9.

Other rules respecting budget shortfalls

- 10(1) Subject to subsection (2) and to section 11, an eligible recipient does not have a budget shortfall if the minister is satisfied that the eligible recipient owns excess assets.
- (2) The minister may decide not to consider a liquid asset as a financial resource if the minister is satisfied that the applicant has genuine reasons for not converting the liquid asset into cash or for delaying the conversion.
- (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the minister may, in a particular case, do any of the following:
- (a) when determining monthly income, exclude any amount of income that, in the minister's opinion, should not be included;

- (b) when determining liquid assets:
 - (i) exclude any liquid asset that, as determined by the minister, should not be included; or
 - (ii) include any liquid asset that, as determined by the minister, should be included;
- (c) when determining excess assets, exclude any asset that, as determined by the minister, should not be considered an excess asset.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s10; 5 Jly 2019 SR
44/2019 s10.

Determining monthly income

11(1) This section applies to determining the monthly income of:

- (a) an eligible recipient who is an individual; and
 - (b) each family member of an eligible recipient that is a family unit.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) to (15), the monthly income of an individual or family member is the net amount of moneys due to him or her from all sources as determined by the minister other than the items set out in Table 1.
- (3) The minister shall determine monthly income pursuant to this section:
- (a) based on the individual's or family member's monthly income for the month before the date on which the application was received by the minister; or
 - (b) if the minister is satisfied that the individual or family member has an irregular or fluctuating monthly income, based on what the minister is satisfied is his or her average monthly income over a period not to exceed 12 months before the date on which the application was received by the minister.
- (4) Any employment income of a child attending school is not to be included in determining monthly income.
- (5) Any amount that an eligible recipient receives for board, room and personal allowance pursuant to these regulations for the care of a relative, as defined in clause 2(f) of The Personal Care Homes Act, that exceeds the amount established pursuant to item 7(a) of section 4 of Table 2 is not to be included in determining monthly income.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), if an eligible recipient receives revenue for providing room only or room and board in the eligible recipient's principal residence to a person who is not a member of the eligible recipient's family unit, 25% of that revenue, but not less than $25 per month, is to be included in determining monthly income.
- (7) No eligible recipient is to be charged with room only or room and board income:
- (a) with respect to children who are attending university, technical or vocational courses and who are not entitled to benefits;
 - (b) with respect to other eligible recipients who are residing with the eligible recipient and who are receiving benefits pursuant to item 1 of section 4 of Table 2; or
 - (c) if two or more eligible recipients are sharing living accommodation under a shared-cost agreement and benefits are being granted to each eligible recipient on the basis of his or her share of the cost.

- (8) If an eligible recipient receives revenue for renting a self-contained suite in the eligible recipient's principal residence to a person who is not a member of the eligible recipient's family unit, 40% of that revenue, but not less than $40 per month, is to be included in determining monthly income.
- (9) Subject to subsection (10), if an eligible recipient receives any proceeds under a contract of insurance as a result of fire, theft or property damage in circumstances that require the insured property to be replaced or repaired, the payment is not to be included as income in determining eligibility for benefits.
- (10) If the proceeds mentioned in subsection (9) are not used to repair or replace the insured property, the proceeds are to be considered a resource available to the eligible recipient for his or her current maintenance.
- (11) If an individual's or a family member's income is subject to seizure or other similar process, the amount seized is not to be deducted when determining monthly income.
- (12) If an eligible recipient receives income in cash or in kind or in services from an individual, benevolent organization or other similar agency, the eligible recipient shall indicate what requirements of the family unit the income is designed to meet and any conditions under which it is extended.
- (13) If the requirement met as indicated pursuant to subsection (12):
- (a) is considered a basic need, the estimated value of the income is to be considered income according to Part III and Table 2;
 - (b) is not considered a basic need, the estimated value of the income is not to be considered when determining eligibility for benefits.
- (14) The amount of any overpayment recovered from an individual or family member by set-off or any other means is to be included when determining monthly income.
- (15) In subsection (14), "overpayment" means a payment of an amount in excess of the individual's or family member's entitlement pursuant to a funding program that is established pursuant to another Act or regulation, an Act of the Parliament of Canada or a regulation made pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada, an Act of the legislature of another province or territory of Canada or a regulation made pursuant to an Act of the legislature of another province or territory of Canada.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s11; 5 Jly 2019 SR
44/2019 s11.

Determining liquid assets

- 12(1) In determining an eligible recipient's liquid assets, the minister may allow the eligible recipient a period, not to exceed 90 days after the date on which the application is received by the minister, to convert a liquid asset that is not in the form of cash into cash.
- (2) Any payment received on a liquid asset that cannot be converted into cash within the 90-day period mentioned in subsection (1) is to be included in determining the eligible recipient's monthly income pursuant to section 11.

(3) The following are not to be included in determining an eligible recipient's liquid assets:

- (a) money held in trust pursuant to a registered education savings plan within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (b) contributions made to the Saskatchewan Pension Plan to a maximum yearly amount established by the Saskatchewan Pension Plan by or on behalf of:
 - (i) if the eligible recipient is an individual, the eligible recipient; or
 - (ii) if the eligible recipient is a family unit, the members of the family unit on whose behalf the application is made;
- (c) the capital and income from a trust fund established pursuant to subsection 9(2) of The Dependants' Relief Act, 1996;
- (d) funds held in, or money withdrawn from, a registered disability savings plan within the meaning of section 146.4 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (e) funds held in a discretionary trust for the benefit of an eligible family member or eligible recipient;
- (f) a payment from a discretionary trust mentioned in clause (e) if, with the approval of the minister, the payment is used for an expense that is not provided for pursuant to these regulations;
- (g) subject to subsection (2), an amount saved from a benefit payment provided to the eligible recipient that:
 - (i) is held in an account or invested with a financial institution or is held in a trust account; and
 - (ii) does not exceed:
 - (A) in the case of an individual, $1,500; or
 - (B) in the case of a family unit, the sum of:
 - (I) $1,500 for the first family member;
 - (II) $1,500 for the second family member; and
 - (III) $500 for each family member in addition to those mentioned in subparagraphs (I) and (II);
- (h) the cash surrender value of any policy of life insurance but not the amount of any benefits paid pursuant to a policy of life insurance during the lifetime of the policyholder;
- (i) prepaid funeral expenses not exceeding $7,500.

Determining excess assets

13(1) In determining an eligible recipient's excess assets, the minister may allow the eligible recipient a period, not to exceed 90 days after the date on which the application is received by the minister, to convert an excess asset into cash, either by using it as security for borrowing or by selling it.

(2) The minister may decide not to consider an asset as an excess asset if the minister is satisfied that the eligible recipient has genuine social or economic reasons for not converting the asset into cash or for delaying the conversion.

(3) If the minister permits an eligible recipient to retain an excess asset mentioned in subclause 2(1)(j)(i) or an excess asset that is real property mentioned in subclause 2(1)(j)(ii), the net income from that excess asset is to be included when determining the eligible recipient's monthly income.

(4) If an eligible recipient has as a principal residence a property acquired by inheritance, the property is not to be considered as an excess asset pursuant to clause 8(3)(d).

(5) An eligible recipient may use the proceeds of the sale of property used as the eligible recipient's principal residence or the proceeds from a family property settlement to purchase another principal residence if:

(a) the purchase is made within four months after the receipt of the proceeds; and

(b) the home purchased by the eligible recipient is suitable to the eligible recipient's needs and in accordance with the standard of living that the eligible recipient can reasonably expect to maintain.

(6) Any portion of the proceeds of the sale of a principal residence not used pursuant to subsection (5) must be included as an excess asset.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), with the prior approval of the minister, an eligible recipient may use any portion of the proceeds of the sale of the eligible recipient's principal residence that remains after the purchase of another principal residence for the purpose of reasonable renovations to the new principal residence if the renovations are completed within 12 months from the date on which the proceeds are received.

(8) If an eligible recipient purchases a home while receiving benefits and, in the opinion of the minister, the home exceeds the reasonable needs of the eligible recipient, the minister may grant minimal benefits to the eligible recipient or require the eligible recipient to sell the home and use the proceeds for current living needs.

DIVISION 3
Approval or Denial

Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s14.

PART III
Benefits

15 Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s15.

Closure date – cessation of benefits

15.1(1) In this section and in section 44.2, “closure date” means August 31, 2021.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, but subject to section 44.2, no benefit is to be provided by the minister, and no individual or family unit is eligible for a benefit, after the closure date.

3 Sep 2021 SR 89/2021 s3.

Benefit to be provided in accordance with this Part

16(1) Subject to sections 17 and 18, the minister may provide a benefit to an eligible recipient in accordance with this Part and Table 2.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the type and amount of benefits for special needs is to be established by one of the following methods:

- (a) a benefit schedule established by the minister;
 - (b) a range of amounts established by the minister;
 - (c) a flat amount established by the minister;
 - (d) a formula established by the minister used to calculate the amount of a benefit.
- (3) The amount of a benefit for special needs is not to exceed:
- (a) the amount determined in accordance with the methods mentioned in subsection (2); or
 - (b) if the item of special needs is not addressed by the methods mentioned in subsection (2), the actual cost of the item.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s16.

When no benefit is to be provided - disposal of assets, unusual expenditures

17(1) The minister may refuse to provide a benefit to an eligible recipient for the period calculated in accordance with subsection 18(2) if the minister is satisfied that:

- (a) the eligible recipient disposed of assets or had an unusual expenditure for the purpose of causing the eligible recipient to be eligible or to continue to be eligible for a benefit; or
- (b) the eligible recipient’s failure to realize on an agreement for sale, mortgage or other security caused the eligible recipient to be eligible or to continue to be eligible for a benefit.

(2) If the minister refuses to provide a benefit to an eligible recipient pursuant to subsection (1) for a period, the minister may reduce the period if the minister is satisfied that:

- (a) the proceeds of the disposal of an asset mentioned in clause (1)(a) can be recovered and that the proceeds of disposition will be less than the amount that may have been originally calculated pursuant to subsection 18(2);
 - (b) an asset acquired as a result of a transaction mentioned in clause (1)(a) can be disposed of, that proceeds can be obtained from the disposition and that the proceeds of disposition will be less than the amount that may have been originally calculated pursuant to subsection 18(2);

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s28.

PART V
Report of Changes, Reviews and Appeals

Report of changes

29 An eligible recipient or eligible family member shall report immediately to the minister:

- (a) any changes in the composition of the eligible recipient's family unit; and
- (b) any changes in:
 - (i) the financial resources of:
 - (A) the eligible recipient; or
 - (B) the spouse of the eligible recipient;
 - (ii) the place of residence or the mailing address of the eligible recipient;
 - (iii) the type of the eligible recipient's accommodation; or
 - (iv) the number or type of utilities that the eligible recipient pays for.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s29.

Reviewing financial eligibility criteria

30(1) The minister shall review whether an eligible recipient continues to meet the eligibility criteria set out in Part II and the amount of any benefit provided pursuant to Part III:

- (a) at any time that the minister is satisfied a significant change in the eligible recipient's circumstances has occurred; and
- (b) at least once every year.

(2) For the purposes of determining whether an eligible recipient continues to meet the eligibility criteria set out in Part II, that Part applies with any necessary modification to the determination.

(3) A record of each review carried out pursuant to this section must be entered in the eligible recipient's file.

(4) Notwithstanding clause (1)(b), if the minister is satisfied that the circumstances of an eligible recipient are unlikely to change for a period of a year or more, the minister may review the eligible recipient's circumstances with the eligible recipient at intervals that the minister considers appropriate to determine if the eligible recipient is still eligible and the amount of benefits to which the eligible recipient may be entitled.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s30.

Changes in benefit amounts

31(1) In this section, "change in the eligible recipient's circumstances" means a change in:

- (a) the eligible recipient's financial resources;
- (b) the eligible recipient's needs; or
- (c) the number of the eligible recipient's dependants.

(2) If the minister is satisfied that there is a change in the eligible recipient's circumstances, the minister shall vary the amount of a benefit provided to an eligible recipient in accordance with the change in the eligible recipient's circumstances:

- (a) as of the day on which the minister is advised of the change in the eligible recipient's circumstances; or
- (b) if the minister is satisfied that special circumstances so warrant, as of the day on which the eligible recipient's circumstances changed.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s31.

Alienation or transfer of benefits

32 A benefit is not subject to alienation or transfer by an eligible recipient, to attachment or seizure in satisfaction of any claim nor to any judgment enforcement measure pursuant to The Enforcement of Money Judgments Act.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s32.

Suspension or cancellation of benefits

33 Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the minister may suspend or cancel the provision of a benefit to an eligible recipient if:

- (a) changes in circumstances affect the eligibility of the eligible recipient to receive the benefit or, after a review pursuant to section 30, the minister is satisfied that the eligible recipient no longer has a budget shortfall or no longer meets the other eligibility criteria set out in Part II;
- (b) the eligible recipient relocates outside Saskatchewan;
- (c) the eligible recipient refuses or neglects:
 - (i) to comply with any provision of these regulations;
 - (ii) to furnish any information that is required by the minister; or
 - (iii) to cooperate as is reasonably required by the minister; or
- (d) employment that the eligible recipient is capable of performing is available.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s33.

Review with eligible recipient before taking certain actions

34 Before varying, suspending, cancelling or reinstating a benefit, the minister shall:

- (a) whenever reasonably possible, either:
 - (i) review the eligible recipient's circumstances with the eligible recipient; or
 - (ii) in lieu of a review pursuant to subclause (i) and with the eligible recipient's knowledge, make any inquiry and obtain any information that the minister is satisfied is necessary; and
- (b) notify in writing the eligible recipient of the minister's decision and inform the eligible recipient of the eligible recipient's right to an appeal and a reconsideration pursuant to sections 35 to 37.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s34.

Appeals and reconsideration

35(1) Within 30 days after the date of a decision with respect to any of the following matters, an eligible recipient may appeal, in writing, the decision to the minister:

- (a) Repealed. 5 Jly 2019 SR 44/2019 s17.

- (b) a request for benefits or an increase in benefits was not dealt with within a reasonable time;
 - (c) a determination of eligibility;
 - (d) a variation, suspension or cancellation of entitlement to receive a benefit;
 - (e) the assessment of an overpayment;
 - (f) a decision respecting the amount of a benefit.
- (2) On receipt of a request pursuant to subsection (1), the minister shall reconsider the decision that is the subject of the request within 10 days after receiving the request and provide the eligible recipient with a written decision as soon as is reasonably possible.
- (3) If an eligible recipient has been denied benefits or services pursuant to a plan or program administered by another ministry or agency of the Government of Saskatchewan or by the provincial health authority or a community-based organization and the eligible recipient subsequently applies for benefits pursuant to these regulations, there is no appeal pursuant to subsection (1) of a decision to deny benefits with respect to an element of need that is analogous to the need contemplated by the plan or program administered by the ministry, agency, provincial health authority or community-based organization.

44/2019 s17.

Appeal with regard to benefits

- 36(1) Following an appeal pursuant to section 35, the minister shall arrange for an appeal hearing if:
- (a) on the reconsideration, the minister determines that no error has been made with respect to the decision or that an adjustment to the satisfaction of the eligible recipient is not possible; and
 - (b) the eligible recipient notifies the minister that he or she would like to appeal the decision.
- (2) An appeal pursuant to this section may be made only with respect to any of the matters mentioned in subsection 35(1).
- (3) A hearing respecting an appeal pursuant to this section must be commenced with an appeal committee in private within 20 days after the date on which the minister notifies the appeal committee of the appeal.
- (4) The minister shall advise the eligible recipient making the appeal in writing of:
- (a) the date, time and place of the hearing; and
 - (b) the right of the eligible recipient:
 - (i) to present supporting evidence and witnesses at the hearing; and
 - (ii) to designate a representative or advocate.

- (5) The testimony of the eligible recipient and any other witnesses at the hearing must relate to the issue under appeal.
- (6) A hearing pursuant to this section shall be conducted in an informal manner and the appeal committee is not bound by rules of law concerning evidence.
- (7) Recording devices must not be used at a hearing.
- (8) The minister must be given the opportunity to present additional evidence and to question the eligible recipient or his or her representative or advocate.
- (9) The eligible recipient, or his or her representative or advocate, must be given the opportunity:
 - (a) to question the representative of the minister who attends the hearing and witnesses of the minister; and
 - (b) to examine any documents submitted by the minister.
- (10) The appeal committee or its representative may:
 - (a) examine:
 - (i) the eligible recipient or his or her representative or advocate;
 - (ii) the minister;
 - (iii) any other witnesses; and
 - (b) inspect any document submitted at the hearing.
- (11) The appeal committee may adjourn a hearing from time to time for a period not to exceed 30 days.
- (12) On completing the hearing, the appeal committee shall briefly summarize the issues and evidence and policies relating to those issues.
- (13) If an eligible recipient fails to appear in person or by a representative or advocate on the date and at the time and place set out in clause (4)(a), the appeal committee may:
 - (a) proceed in the absence of the eligible recipient; and
 - (b) make a decision on the basis of the written statement of the eligible recipient and the evidence provided by the minister.
- (14) The appeal committee may make an immediate decision on the conclusion of the hearing.
- (15) The appeal committee shall, no later than 30 days following the date of the hearing, give a written decision and reasons for the decision to:
 - (a) the eligible recipient; and
 - (b) the minister.
- (16) If the appeal committee is unable to make a decision within seven days after the hearing, it shall notify the eligible recipient in writing of that fact.
- (17) The written decision mentioned in subsection (15) must advise the eligible recipient of the right to appeal to the appeal board.
- (18) A quorum of the appeal committee is three members.

(19) The chairperson of the appeal committee may designate a member of the appeal committee as the acting chairperson in the chairperson's absence.

2 Jan 2015 cS-8 Reg 12 s36; 5 Jly 2019 SR
44/2019 s18.

Appeals to the appeal board

37(1) An eligible recipient who is dissatisfied with the decision of an appeal committee made pursuant to section 36 may notify the minister in writing of:

- (a) his or her intention to appeal the appeal committee's decision to the appeal board; and
- (b) the grounds of the appeal.

(2) An eligible recipient who intends to appeal to the appeal board shall provide the written notice pursuant to subsection (1) within 20 days after the appeal committee's decision is given in writing.

(3) If the minister is dissatisfied with the decision of the appeal committee made pursuant to section 36, the minister:

- (a) may notify, in writing, the secretary of the appeal board that the minister intends to appeal the decision to the appeal board and the grounds of the appeal; and
- (b) if the minister provides notice pursuant to clause (a), shall promptly provide a written copy of the notice to the eligible recipient who is the subject of the decision.

(4) A notice to the secretary of the appeal board pursuant to subsection (3) must be provided within 20 days after the appeal committee's decision is given in writing.

(5) If the minister is notified of an appeal by the eligible recipient pursuant to subsection (1) or if the minister intends to appeal pursuant to subsection (3), the minister shall:

- (a) in the case of an appeal by an eligible recipient, send the notice of appeal and the grounds of appeal to the secretary of the appeal board;
- (b) transmit to the secretary of the appeal board:
 - (i) any documents and records in the possession of the minister relating to the matter under appeal;
 - (ii) a copy of the written decision and reasons of the appeal committee received pursuant to subsection 36(15); and
 - (iii) promptly on their being received pursuant to subsection (6), a summary of the issues and evidence presented before the appeal committee; and
- (c) notify the appeal committee of the appeal.

(6) On being notified pursuant to subsection (5), the appeal committee shall promptly provide to the minister a summary of the issues and evidence presented before the appeal committee.

(7) The appeal board shall hear an appeal within 30 days after receipt of the notice of appeal by the secretary of the appeal board.

- (8) The appeal board shall give not less than five days' written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to the minister and the eligible recipient.
- (9) All hearings pursuant to this section are to be held in private.
- (10) A hearing pursuant to this section shall be conducted in an informal manner and the appeal board is not bound by rules of law concerning evidence.
- (11) Recording devices must not be used at hearings.
- (12) The testimony of the eligible recipient and any other witnesses at the hearing must relate to the issue under appeal.
- (13) The minister must be given the opportunity to present additional evidence and to question the eligible recipient or his or her representative or advocate.
- (14) The eligible recipient, or his or her representative or advocate, must be given the opportunity:
 - (a) to question the representative of the minister who attends the hearing and the minister's witnesses;
 - (b) to examine any documents submitted by the minister; and
 - (c) to present additional evidence related to the issue under appeal.
- (15) The appeal board or its representative may:
 - (a) examine:
 - (i) the eligible recipient or his or her representative or advocate;
 - (ii) the representative of the minister who attends the hearing;
 - (iii) any other witness; and
 - (b) inspect any document submitted at the hearing.
- (16) The appeal board:
 - (a) may adjourn a hearing from time to time for a period not to exceed 30 days; and
 - (b) if a hearing is adjourned, shall notify the eligible recipient in writing of the adjournment.
- (17) If an eligible recipient fails to appear in person or by a representative or advocate on the date and at the time and place set out in subsection (8), the appeal board may:
 - (a) proceed in the absence of the eligible recipient; and
 - (b) make a decision on the basis of the written statement of the eligible recipient and the evidence provided by the minister.
- (18) The decision of the appeal board on an appeal pursuant to this section is final.
- (19) On completing the hearing, the appeal board shall briefly summarize the issues and evidence and policies relating to those issues.

- (20) If the appeal board is unable to make a decision within seven days after the hearing, it shall notify the minister and the applicant or eligible recipient of that fact.
- (21) The appeal board shall, no later than 30 days following the date of the hearing, give a written decision and reasons for the decision to the minister and the eligible recipient.
- (22) A quorum of the appeal board is three members.

TABLE 2
Benefits
[Section 16]

General provisions re Table 2

1(1) The minister may provide a benefit to an eligible recipient in accordance with this Table and Part III of the regulations applies, as necessary, with respect to determining the eligibility for and the amount of a benefit.

(2) In this Table:

- (a) column 1 sets out the type of benefit and when it is payable;
- (b) column 2 sets out the criteria that must be met to be eligible for the benefit and the purpose of the benefit; and
- (c) column 3 sets out the amount of the benefit.

(3) No type of benefit is payable unless the minister is satisfied that:

- (a) the applicable provisions of Part III of the regulations have been complied with; and
- (b) the criteria set out in column 2 for that type of benefit have been met.

- (4) In column 1, if a benefit is stated to be paid:
- (a) monthly, the benefit is to be paid:
 - (i) in accordance with the monthly schedule of payments established by the minister; or
 - (ii) if the minister considers it appropriate to do so, at any other intervals that the minister may determine; or
 - (b) periodically, the benefit is to be paid at those intervals that the minister may determine.

Schedule of rates and rules for shelter allowances

2(1) For a benefit described in item 11 of section 4 of this Table, the minister may establish a schedule of rates that vary in accordance with all or any of the following:

- (a) the number of adults in an eligible recipient's family unit;
 - (b) the number of children in an eligible recipient's family unit;
 - (c) the municipality in which an eligible recipient's accommodation is situated;
 - (d) the date on which the eligible recipient's application for a benefit was received by the minister.
- (2) If an eligible recipient establishes eligibility for a benefit mentioned in item 11 of section 4 of this Table, the benefit that may be paid to the eligible recipient is to be calculated in accordance with the following rules:
- (a) subject to clauses (b) and (c), the benefit is to be calculated from the date on which the eligible recipient's application was received by the minister;
 - (b) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible recipient has paid accommodation costs for that month before making the application, the eligible recipient is not entitled to the benefit for the first month;
 - (c) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible recipient has not paid accommodation costs for that month before making the application, the minister may pay the full amount as set out in the schedule of rates established by the minister for that month.
- (3) If an eligible recipient owns his or her own home, a benefit shall be paid that is sufficient to cover current taxes, fire insurance and other assessments, but only if the total benefit is not in excess of the shelter allowance that would otherwise be provided.
- (4) If an eligible recipient is buying his or her own home, a benefit may be paid that is sufficient to cover current taxes, principal and interest payments on a mortgage, fire insurance and other assessments, but only if the total benefit for these items is not in excess of the shelter allowance that would otherwise be provided.

Schedule of rates and rules for laundry and utilities benefits

3(1) For a benefit described in item 12 of section 4 of this Table, the minister may establish a schedule of rates that vary in accordance with all or any of the following:

- (a) the number and type of utilities that an eligible recipient pays for;
 - (b) the number of members of the eligible recipient's family unit with respect to whom the benefit is being provided;
 - (c) the municipality in which the eligible beneficiary's accommodation is situated.
- (2) The rate paid for utilities described in subsection (1) may be either the actual amount of the utility cost or a fixed-rate amount determined by a schedule of rates approved by the minister.
- (3) If an eligible recipient establishes eligibility for a benefit described in item 12 of section 4 of this Table, the benefit that may be provided to the eligible recipient is to be calculated in accordance with the following rules:
- (a) subject to clauses (b) and (c), the benefit is to be calculated from the date on which the eligible recipient's application was received by the minister;
 - (b) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible recipient has paid the utilities costs for that month before making the application, no benefit is payable to the eligible recipient for the first month;
 - (c) if the application for the benefit is received by the minister after the start of a month and the eligible recipient has not paid the utility costs for that month before making the application, the benefit for the first month is the amount for the month as set out in the schedule of rates established by the minister.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the number of days in a month is deemed to be 30.
- (5) If the minister is satisfied that an eligible recipient had the resources to pay for the utilities that are in arrears at the time of the eligible recipient's application, the amount of any benefit provided pursuant to item 13 of section 4 of this Table to pay the arrears is deemed to be excess assistance for the purposes of section 29.3 of the Act.
