12.1(1) In this section, ‘telecommunication’ means any transmission, emission or reception of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds or intelligence of any nature by a wire, radio, visual or electromagnetic system and includes communication by telephone.

- (2) If a peace officer considers it impracticable to appear personally before a judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan, the peace officer may apply for a warrant by submitting an information on oath or affirmation by means of telecommunication to a judge designated for the purpose by the Chief Judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan.
- (3) An information submitted by a means of telecommunication that does not produce a written record must be on oath or affirmation in accordance with section 25 of The Evidence Act and must be recorded by the judge mentioned in subsection (2) in legible writing in the form of notes, who must, as soon as is practicable, cause the record or a transcription of it, certified by that judge as to time, date and contents, to be filed with the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan.
- (4) A judge who receives an information submitted by a means of telecommunication that produces a written record shall, as soon as is practicable, cause to be filed with the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan the information certified by the judge as to time and date of receipt.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3), an oath or affirmation may be administered by means of telecommunication.
- (6) An information submitted by means of telecommunication must include all of the following:
- (a) a statement of the circumstances that make it impracticable for the peace officer making the application to appear personally before a judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan;
 - (b) a statement of the peace officer's grounds for believing that the person who refuses to be examined by a physician:
 - (i) is suffering from a mental disorder; and
 - (ii) is in need of an examination to determine whether he or she should be admitted to a mental health centre pursuant to section 24 of the Act.
- (7) A judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan may issue a warrant by means of telecommunication.
- (8) If a judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan issues a warrant by a means of telecommunication that does not produce a written record:
- (a) the judge shall complete and sign the warrant in Form C, noting on its face the time, date and place of issuance;
 - (b) the peace officer who submitted the information, on the direction of the judge, shall complete, in duplicate, an exact version of the warrant in Form C, noting on its face the name of the issuing judge and the time, date and place of issuance; and
 - (c) the judge shall, as soon as is practicable after the warrant has been issued, cause the warrant to be filed with the court.

(9) If a judge of the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan issues a warrant by means of telecommunication that produces a written record:

- (a) the judge shall complete and sign the warrant in Form C, noting on its face the time, date and place of issuance;
- (b) the judge shall transmit the warrant by means of telecommunication to the peace officer who submitted the information and the copy of the warrant received by the peace officer who submitted the information is deemed to be an exact version within the meaning of clause (8)(b);
- (c) the peace officer who submitted the information shall procure another exact version of the warrant; and
- (d) the judge shall, as soon as is practicable after the warrant has been issued, cause the warrant to be filed with the court.

(10) An order made by means of telecommunication is not subject to challenge by reason only that the circumstances did not make it reasonable to dispense with personal appearance for the purpose of making an application pursuant to subsection (2)”.

13 Section 13 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Official representative

13(1) An official representative for a region:

- (a) on receipt of notice that a person has been apprehended or detained in the region pursuant to section 18, 19, 21, 22, 23.1 or 24.6 of the Act, shall make any contact with the person that he or she considers necessary to advise that person concerning his or her rights and obligations in relation to the apprehension or detention;
- (b) on receipt of notice that a patient has been detained in a mental health centre in the region pursuant to section 23 of the Act, shall visit the patient as soon as is practicable after his or her detention and advise that patient concerning his or her rights and obligations in relation to detention pursuant to the applicable clause of section 23 of the Act;
- (c) on receipt of notice that a patient has been detained in a mental health centre in the region pursuant to section 24 of the Act, shall visit the patient within 24 hours after the commencement of the patient’s detention to introduce himself or herself as an official representative for the purposes of the Act, to provide information concerning the rights and obligations of the patient in relation to the detention, and to offer assistance to enable the patient to exercise his or her rights;
- (d) on receipt of an application for a long-term detention order pursuant to section 24.1 of the Act, shall visit the person who is the subject of the application as soon as is practicable, provide the person with information concerning his or her rights and obligations with respect to the application, and as far as is reasonably practicable, provide any assistance that is requested, including the following:
 - (i) assisting the person to obtain legal counsel;

- (ii) accompanying the person to the court hearing;
- (iii) representing the person at the court hearing;
- (e) on receipt of a notice that a person is subject to a community treatment order, shall speak with that person as soon as is practicable after the community treatment order comes into effect in order to provide information concerning the rights and obligations of the person in relation to the community treatment order and to offer assistance to enable the person to exercise his or her rights;
- (f) on receipt of notice that a patient has been ordered to be transferred from a mental health centre in the region pursuant to section 28 of the Act, shall visit the patient as soon as is practicable, and in any event before the transfer of the patient, to provide information concerning the rights and obligations of the patient in relation to the order for transfer and to offer assistance to enable the patient to exercise his or her rights;
- (g) on receipt of notice that a person has been ordered to be returned to another jurisdiction pursuant to section 28.2 of the Act, shall:
 - (i) visit the person as soon as is practicable, and in any event before the transfer of the person out of Saskatchewan, to provide information concerning the rights and obligations of the person with respect to the order and to offer assistance to enable the person to exercise his or her rights; and
 - (ii) if requested to do so by the person, assist him or her to submit an appeal to the Court of Queen's Bench;
- (h) on receipt of notice that a decision has been made to administer to a patient in the region a treatment that is designated as a special treatment pursuant to clause 43(g) of the Act, shall visit the patient as soon as is practicable, and in any event, except in case of emergency, before the commencement of the special treatment, and advise the patient concerning his or her rights and obligations in relation to the special treatment that has been directed;
- (i) may visit any patient in a mental health centre, with the consent of that patient, for the purpose of advising the patient concerning his or her rights and obligations, after:
 - (i) notifying the officer in charge of his or her intention to visit the patient; and
 - (ii) giving consideration to any information provided by the officer in charge relating to the timing of the visit;
- (j) may visit any out-patient, at the request of that patient, to advise the patient concerning his or her rights;
- (k) subject to subsection (2.1), if a person who is entitled pursuant to subsection 33(2) of the Act to appeal to a review panel decides to appeal and requests the assistance of the official representative to initiate or to pursue an appeal, shall provide as far as is reasonably practicable any assistance that is requested, including:
 - (i) submitting an appeal;

- (ii) assisting the patient to obtain legal counsel;
 - (iii) accompanying the patient to the review panel hearing;
 - (iv) representing the patient at the review panel hearing;
 - (v) if a person is dissatisfied with the decision of the review panel, assisting the patient to submit an appeal to the Court of Queen's Bench; and
 - (vi) generally assisting the patient to remain informed during the review process;
- (l) if a patient who is entitled to appeal to a review panel concerning detention pursuant to section 24 of the Act or an order for transfer pursuant to section 28 of the Act does not submit an appeal and if the official representative considers it advisable that an appeal should be submitted, shall submit an appeal on behalf of that patient;
- (m) shall create and maintain a file on each patient about whom he or she receives information, including copies of any certificates, warrants or orders, and a description of services provided by the official representative in relation to that patient pursuant to the Act or these regulations;
- (n) unless he or she is required to do so by law, shall not disclose information obtained in the course of serving as an official representative for any purpose other than performing the duties and responsibilities, including providing instructions to a lawyer, of an official representative prescribed in the Act or these regulations”.
- (2) Clause (1)(n) does not apply to the provision of information to the director if the name and other means of identifying the patient are removed.
- (3) For the purposes of clause 33(2)(c) of the Act, the official representative shall take into consideration the wishes of the patient in providing any assistance requested by the patient's nearest relative, proxy or personal guardian regarding initiating an appeal of a decision mentioned in subsection 33(1) of the Act, if an appeal is not consistent with the patient's wishes.
- (4) An official representative acting pursuant to subsection (1) shall be given access to any information that he or she requires in order to provide advice or assistance to a patient”.

New sections 29 to 30.95

26 Sections 29 and 30 are repealed and the following substituted:

“Interpretation - sections 29 to 30.95

29 In this section and in sections 30 to 30.95:

- (a) ‘activities of daily living’ includes the following activities:
 - (i) eating;
 - (ii) bathing;
 - (iii) dressing;
 - (iv) grooming;
 - (v) participating in social and recreational activities;
- (b) ‘care’ means direct assistance to, or supervision of, a resident in performing activities of daily living, including providing assistance in the taking of medication, but does not include health care services provided exclusively by health care professionals that are required by a resident;
- (c) ‘care record’ of a resident includes information related to the care and support the resident requires, health care appointments, any medication prescribed by the resident’s physician and a list of physicians and other professionals who are involved in providing care to the resident, as further set out in the manual;
- (d) ‘licence’ means a valid licence issued pursuant to section 37.2 of the Act or renewed pursuant to section 37.7 of the Act;
- (e) ‘manual’ means the latest edition of the Mental Health Approved Home Program Operator Manual, as amended from time to time, published by the ministry;
- (f) ‘operator’, unless otherwise provided, means the holder of a licence;
- (g) ‘relative’ means a spouse, son, daughter, sister, brother, parent, aunt, uncle, great aunt, great uncle, grandparent, great-grandparent, cousin, nephew or niece whether that person is related by blood or by marriage or as a result of adoption;
- (h) ‘resident’ means an adult, other than a relative of the operator, who has been placed by the regional director in a mental health approved home for the purposes of receiving assistance and supervision in the activities of daily living.

“Application to operate mental health approved home

30(1) An application pursuant to section 37.1 of the Act must:

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) pertain to a specified person and building or premises that may be the subject of the licence;
- (c) include a criminal record check including vulnerable sector check, dated no earlier than three months before the date of the application, with respect to all adults who are not proposed residents but who are occupants of the building or premises that may be the subject of the licence;

- (d) include evidence that the specified person and building or premises meet the requirements set out in subsection 37(2) of the Act; and
 - (e) include any other information and material set out in the manual.
- (2) In order for a licence to be renewed pursuant to section 37.7 of the Act, the operator must satisfy the regional health authority that he or she meets the requirements of section 37 of the Act and of these regulations.

“Insurance

30.1(1) In this section, ‘automobile insurance’ does not include the insurance evidenced by a certificate of insurance issued pursuant to The Automobile Accident Insurance Act.

- (2) Every operator must hold the following policies of insurance:
- (a) against general liability, including third party liability, with respect to the premises used by the home and to the operation of the mental health approved home, including claims based on negligence associated with the operation of the home and occupier’s liability;
 - (b) with respect to a motor vehicle owned or leased by the operator, automobile insurance in an amount not less than $1 million per occurrence, insuring the operator against liability arising from:
 - (i) bodily injury to or the death of a person, or loss of or damage to property caused by a motor vehicle or the use or operation of a motor vehicle; or
 - (ii) loss or damage to a motor vehicle and the loss of use of a motor vehicle;
 - (c) against any other risk that, in the opinion of the minister, is necessary to be insured against respecting the safe operation of the home and the well-being of the residents.
- (3) The policies of insurance required to be held pursuant to clauses (2)(a) and (c) must be in the amounts set out in the manual.

“Term incorporated into licence

30.2(1) The following term is to be incorporated into each licence:

‘Subject to the other terms and conditions of this licence, the operator shall operate the mental health approved home governed by this licence in accordance with the most recent edition of the Mental Health Approved Home Program Operator Manual published by the Ministry of Health’.

- (2) Specific terms and conditions that vary, add to or remove any of the requirements set out in the manual may be incorporated in a licence and, in the event of a conflict between the manual and a term or condition, the terms and conditions in the licence prevail.

“Discontinuing operation

30.3 An operator must provide a minimum of 30 days’ notice in writing to the regional director before discontinuing operations.

“Relocation of operator’s premises

30.31(1) An operator who intends to relocate to other premises and operate a mental health approved home that houses any or all of the residents who reside in the home that is the subject of an existing licence must provide a minimum of 30 days’ notice in writing to the regional director to that effect.

(2) An operator mentioned in subsection (1) must apply for a licence respecting the premises to which he or she intends to relocate in accordance with section 37.1 of the Act and section 30 of these regulations.

“Conflict of interest

30.4(1) For the purposes of this section, ‘operator’ includes any person carrying out the responsibilities of the person named in the licence on a temporary basis in order to provide relief to that person.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), no operator or relative of an operator shall:

- (a) accept appointment as power of attorney for a resident;
- (b) accept appointment as a personal or property guardian pursuant to The Adult Guardianship and Co-decision-making Act for a resident;
- (c) accept appointment as a proxy for a resident in a directive pursuant to The Health Care Directives and Substitute Health Care Decision Makers Act;
- (d) accept gifts from a resident with an estimated total value greater than $100 in a year;
- (e) accept real or personal property from a resident or from anyone on behalf of a resident as payment for care and accommodation in the home;
- (f) influence or attempt to influence a resident or prospective resident:
 - (i) in the making or alteration of the will of the resident or prospective resident;
 - (ii) subject to the guidelines set out in the manual, in the conduct of the financial affairs of the resident or prospective resident; or
 - (iii) subject to the guidelines set out in the manual, in handling the personal assets of the resident or prospective resident; or
- (g) accept gifts or bequests provided in a resident’s will unless the will was executed before the resident was admitted to the home.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the operator or relative of the operator is a relative of the resident in question.

(4) Nothing in subsection (2) precludes an operator from being appointed as a trustee of a resident for the purposes of The Saskatchewan Assistance Act.

(5) If an operator receives a gift from a resident, the operator must:

- (a) notify the resident's nearest relative, proxy or personal guardian, if any, and the regional director about the gift; and
- (b) record the following information:
 - (i) the date of receipt of the gift;
 - (ii) the name of the person who received the gift;
 - (iii) the amount or estimated value of the gift;
 - (iv) the name of the person, if any, contacted pursuant to clause (a).

“Confidentiality

30.5(1) The care record of a resident is the property of the operator and is confidential.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), an operator shall maintain the confidentiality of the care record of a resident.

(3) An operator shall disclose all or any part of a care record of a resident:

- (a) to the resident on the resident's request;
- (b) to any person named in a written request of the resident that is signed by the resident;
- (c) to the regional director at the direction of the regional director;
- (d) to the minister at the direction of the minister; and
- (e) to any person on the order of a court of competent jurisdiction or if otherwise required by law.

(4) An operator may disclose to a person who provides care to a resident any part of the resident's care record that is required for the purposes of providing care to the resident.

“Retention of records

30.51 An operator shall retain the resident care record for the period set out in the manual.

“Residency charges

30.6(1) No operator shall charge a resident for accommodation and care, or for any costs of any necessary special services, activities, equipment or materials at rates greater than the rates authorized for the equivalent level of care set out in the regulations made pursuant to The Saskatchewan Assistance Act.

(2) No operator shall charge a resident for meals, the reasonably anticipated costs of personal hygiene items, items set out in the manual or any other item that is considered to be included in payments to the operator set out in the regulations made pursuant to The Saskatchewan Assistance Act.

“Resident care, facilities

30.7(1) An operator shall provide the care to residents that is required to meet the individual needs of each resident, in accordance with the standards set out in the manual.

(2) An operator shall ensure that the mental health approved home has the necessary facilities to meet the needs of each resident, including:

(a) accessible common rooms, including living rooms, dens or other recreational rooms but not including dining rooms, that:

(i) are of a sufficient size and separation to accommodate the total number of persons living in the home;

(ii) have a combined area that provides not less than 1.85 square metres of usable floor space per person living in the home; and

(iii) will facilitate recreation and leisure activities of residents while preventing those activities from interfering with care;

(b) an accessible dining room area with not less than 1.2 square metres of usable floor space per person living in the home, that is of a sufficient size and separation to accommodate the total number of persons living in the home;

(c) outside yard or lawn space with accessible, safe and appropriate seating and walkways;

(d) supportive bars or grips installed in bathrooms wherever necessitated by resident need;

(e) sturdy handrails along stairways, inclines, ramps and decks;

(f) non-skid treads on stairs, non-skid mats or strips in all bathtubs and showers and non-skid backing on floor mats;

(g) toilets and bathrooms conveniently located, well-ventilated and equipped to ensure privacy.

(3) An operator shall ensure that the toilet and bathing facilities of the home include:

(a) at least one toilet and washbasin for every five persons residing in the home that are accessible to all residents;

(b) at least one bathtub or suitable shower for every five persons residing in the home that is accessible to all residents.

“Resident bedrooms

30.71(1) An operator shall ensure that each resident bedroom:

(a) does not accommodate more than two residents;

(b) has a minimum usable floor space, excluding floor space in closets:

(i) of 7.2 square metres, in the case of a bedroom accommodating one resident; or

(ii) of 5.4 square metres per resident, in the case of a bedroom accommodating two residents;

(c) is not used as a passageway to another bedroom or to a common bath, a common toilet or an exit from the home; and

(d) meets the requirements set out in the manual.

(2) No operator shall accommodate a resident who has difficulty negotiating stairs in a bedroom that can only be reached by negotiating stairs.

“Carbon monoxide detectors

30.72(1) In this section, ‘approved’, with respect to a carbon monoxide detector, means a carbon monoxide detector purchased in Canada.

(2) An operator shall ensure that:

(a) at least one approved carbon monoxide detector is installed and maintained in accordance with the manufacturer’s instructions on each storey where persons are accommodated; and

(b) each carbon monoxide detector is replaced at the time or in the circumstances indicated in the manufacturer’s instructions.

“Residential sprinkler systems

30.73 If required under the National Building Code of Canada, as adopted and amended pursuant to The Uniform Building and Accessibility Standards Act, an operator shall ensure that the mental health approved home is equipped with an automatic sprinkler system that meets the requirements of that Code.

“Renovations

30.74(1) Subject to subsection (2), no operator shall undertake renovations or construction on the mental health approved home before he or she receives prior written approval from the regional director.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to renovations that are cosmetic in nature, as set out in the manual, and that do not negatively affect the residents of the mental health approved home.

“Other people living in the mental health approved home

30.8(1) Subject to subsection (2) and the requirements set out in the manual, an operator may allow an individual who does not require any assistance or supervision with care to reside in the mental health approved home.

(2) The operator may rent a room to an individual who does not require any assistance or supervision with care based on the following criteria:

(a) prior written approval from the regional director;

(b) the individual must produce a current satisfactory criminal record check including vulnerable sector check at the date of his or her becoming an occupant of the home and at least every five years after that date;

(c) the mental health approved home has sufficient space and facilities to accommodate the additional person without negatively affecting the other residents of the home;

- (d) the total number of occupants in the home, including the individual described in this section, does not exceed 10.

“Medication

30.9(1) An operator shall ensure that medications are stored:

- (a) safely in a secure cabinet within the home; and
 - (b) in the manner recommended for each medication on the medication label.
- (2) An operator shall ensure that all expired or unused medications are disposed of in a safe manner.
- (3) The operator shall monitor the taking of medications by a resident in accordance with the guidelines set out in the manual and provide assistance as is reasonably practicable, subject to any directions provided by a physician.
- (4) If it is necessary to take a physician’s directions over the telephone, the operator shall ensure that:
- (a) the directions are documented on the resident’s record and signed by the person who receives the directions, including the name of the physician who gives the directions by telephone and the date and time of the directions; and
 - (b) the documentation of the directions given orally by the physician is confirmed in writing by the physician as soon as possible.
- (5) The operator must ensure, as is reasonably practicable, that each instance of a resident taking his or her medication is recorded in the resident’s care record by the person assisting the resident taking the medication.

“Medication errors

30.91(1) In this section, ‘medication error’ means an event in which:

- (a) a resident has not received the medication as prescribed to the resident by his or her physician; or
 - (b) a resident has taken medication that was not intended for him or her.
- (2) An operator shall ensure that:
- (a) all medication errors:
 - (i) are reported to:
 - (A) the resident’s case manager;
 - (B) the resident’s physician;
 - (C) the regional director; and
 - (D) the pharmacist who filled the prescription; and
 - (ii) are documented in the resident’s care record; and
 - (b) corrective action is taken to prevent further harm to residents.

“Health and safety maintenance

30.92(1) An operator shall operate and maintain the mental health approved home in a manner that provides for the safety and well-being of residents, staff and visitors to the home.

(2) An operator shall:

- (a) maintain the mental health approved home in a clean, safe and sanitary condition at all times;
- (b) maintain the mental health approved home at a comfortable temperature for residents at all times;
- (c) store and dispose of solid and liquid waste in a manner that will not permit the transmission of disease or odours, create a health hazard or provide a breeding place or food source for insects or rodents;
- (d) store and dispose of poisons, toxic substances and corrosives in a safe manner;
- (e) ensure the proper sanitation and operation of all toilets, hand basins, bathtubs and showers in the home; and
- (f) provide safe, unobstructed hallways, stairways, exits and ramps.

(3) An operator shall ensure that appropriate action is taken to remove or destroy pests present in the mental health approved home to the satisfaction of the regional director.

“Rights and privileges of residents

30.93(1) In addition to any other rights and privileges that the residents of a mental health approved home may have at law, each resident has the following rights and privileges:

- (a) to be treated with respect, dignity, kindness and consideration in all interactions with staff, residents and other persons who reside in the home;
- (b) to voice concerns about or recommend changes in the standards of resident conduct or the services provided in the home;
- (c) to register complaints to the operator and, if desired, to the regional health authority;
- (d) to attend religious services or activities of the resident's choosing;
- (e) to be provided with personal privacy;
- (f) to have sole use of his or her own possessions unless the resident gives permission for others to use those possessions;
- (g) to receive visitors privately at the home at any reasonable hour unless the activities of the visitors negatively affect the other residents;
- (h) to communicate within the home by telephone, cellular phone, email, website or other electronic means or by mail in private;

- (i) to leave and return to the home as desired at all reasonable hours on notifying the operator or the operator's designate;
- (j) to be free from any actions from the operator or staff of a punitive nature, including physical punishment, threats of any kind, intimidation, verbal, mental or emotional abuse or confinement;
- (k) to choose his or her own medical, optometric, dental, nursing or other health care professional.

(2) An operator shall ensure that the rights and privileges mentioned in subsection (1) are respected.

(3) An operator shall provide a copy of the rights and privileges mentioned in subsection (1) to every resident of the mental health approved home before the resident commences his or her residency at the home.

“Reportable serious incident

30.94(1) In this section, ‘serious incident’ means any occurrence at or near the mental health approved home that affects or may seriously affect the health or safety of residents of the home, including:

- (a) any occurrence, accident or injury that is potentially life threatening;
- (b) a death that is required to be reported pursuant to The Coroners Act;
- (c) an outbreak of a communicable disease, notification of which is required pursuant to The Public Health Act, 1994;
- (d) any harm or suspected harm suffered by a resident as a result of unlawful conduct, improper treatment or care, harassment or neglect on the part of any person;
- (e) any incident involving a resident that has been reported to law enforcement officers;
- (f) a fire;
- (g) a prolonged disruption of:
 - (i) the supply of electrical power, heat or water;
 - (ii) the provision of food; or
 - (iii) the provision of other basic services of the home that interferes with the ability to give adequate care to the residents.

(2) An operator shall:

- (a) inform the following of any serious incident involving a resident as soon as possible after the incident:
 - (i) the resident's nearest relative;
 - (ii) the resident's proxy or personal guardian, if any;
 - (iii) the resident's personal physician;
 - (iv) the resident's case manager;
 - (v) the regional director; and

- (b) as soon as is reasonably practicable, provide to the regional director a written report of the serious incident mentioned in clause (a) that indicates:
 - (i) the circumstances leading up to and culminating in the serious incident;
 - (ii) the date and time of the serious incident;
 - (iii) the names of the persons involved in the serious incident;
 - (iv) the names of the persons notified about the serious incident; and
 - (v) any actions taken by the operator:
 - (A) to solve the problems giving rise to the serious incident; and
 - (B) to prevent recurrences of the serious incident.

“Other services

30.95(1) No operator of a mental health approved home shall offer services to persons other than residents of the home unless those services are first approved in writing by the regional director.

(2) In determining whether to approve the offering of services to persons other than residents of the mental health approved home, the regional director shall consider the guidelines set out in the manual and whether those services may be performed without negatively affecting the residents of the home.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the offering of accommodation by an operator to persons other than residents in accordance with section 30.8”.

New section 31

27 Section 31 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Payments

31(1) If a person is admitted to a mental health approved home as a resident, the regional director may authorize payment to the resident or in trust to the operator, for the level of care provided, of a sum not exceeding the amount of payment authorized for the equivalent level of care pursuant to The Saskatchewan Assistance Act.

(2) If a resident in a mental health approved home has special needs beyond those which may be met pursuant to subsection (1), the regional director may authorize a payment to be made to the resident, or in trust to the operator, to cover the costs of special services, activities, equipment or materials that will make it possible for the resident to be accommodated in the mental health approved home.

(3) If a resident is temporarily absent from a mental health approved home, the regional director may authorize payments to the operator at rates that are consistent with rates authorized in similar circumstances to be paid on behalf of beneficiaries pursuant to The Saskatchewan Assistance Act.

(4) If a resident vacates a mental health approved home without notice, the regional director may authorize a payment to the operator, in lieu of notice being given, at a rate that is consistent with rates authorized in similar circumstances to be paid on behalf of beneficiaries pursuant to The Saskatchewan Assistance Act”.

New section 32.1

28 Section 32.1 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Patients’ trust accounts

32.1(1) In this section and sections 33 and 34, ‘patients’ trust account’ means the patients’ trust account established for the mental health centre in which a patient is admitted.

(2) A regional health authority that operates a mental health centre shall establish a patients’ trust account to be known as the ‘Patients’ Trust Account (name of facility)’.

(3) If a patient admitted to a mental health centre is in possession of money on admission or comes into possession of money after admission, the regional health authority shall, subject to sections 33 and 34, hold that money in the regional health authority’s patients’ trust account”.

New section 33

29 Section 33 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Patient lacks capacity

33(1) In this section and in section 34, ‘capacity’ means the ability:

- (a) to understand information relevant to making a decision; and
- (b) to appreciate the reasonably foreseeable consequences of making or not making a decision.

(2) In the case of a patient who lacks capacity at or after the time of admission to a mental health centre, all moneys in excess of $1,000 held on his or her behalf in the patients’ trust account are to be transferred to the Public Guardian and Trustee of Saskatchewan or, if another person has been appointed property guardian for that patient, to that other person during the month following the month in which that patient is determined to lack capacity.

(3) If money is received on behalf of a patient after he or she has been determined to lack capacity, all moneys in excess of $1,000 held on his or her behalf in the patients’ trust account are to be transferred to the Public Guardian and Trustee of Saskatchewan or, if another person has been appointed property guardian for that patient, to that other person during the month following the month in which the money is received.

(4) All money held on behalf of a patient who lacks capacity may be held in the patients’ trust account for his or her use while he or she is in the mental health centre and, in the case of a patient who has been assessed as requiring long-term care, may be used to pay for any charges payable by him or her for any long-term care provided for the period that he or she is a patient in the mental health centre.

(5) When a patient who lacks capacity is discharged from a mental health centre, the moneys held in the patients’ trust account on his or her behalf at the time of discharge shall, within 30 days after his or her discharge, be forwarded to the Public Guardian and Trustee of Saskatchewan or, if another person has been appointed property guardian for that patient, to that other person.

(6) If the moneys held on behalf of a patient who lacks capacity pursuant to this section are $500 or less, the interest earned on that amount may be used for patients’ comforts generally.

- (7) If the moneys held on behalf of a patient who lacks capacity pursuant to this section exceed $500, the interest earned on that amount is to be credited to him or her”.

New section 34

30 Section 34 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Patient has capacity

34(1) A patient admitted to a mental health centre who has capacity and who is in possession of any amount of money at the time of his or her admission may elect to:

- (a) subject to the policies and procedures of the regional health authority operating the mental health centre, assume responsibility for handling that money or arrange for another person to handle that money on his or her behalf; or
 - (b) authorize in the form prescribed in subsection 43(16) that the money be held in the patients’ trust account.
- (2) If a patient provides the authorization mentioned in clause (1)(b), the moneys held on behalf of that patient pursuant to this section may be used to pay for any charges that are payable by the patient for the provision of mental health services.
- (3) If the moneys held on behalf of a patient pursuant to this section are $500 or less, the interest earned on that amount may be used for patients’ comforts generally.
- (4) If the moneys held on behalf of a patient pursuant to this section exceed $500, the interest earned on that amount is to be credited to the patient”.

New section 35

31 Section 35 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Investments

35 A regional health authority holding moneys in patients’ trust accounts pursuant to section 32.1 may invest those moneys only in those investments in which trustees are permitted to invest pursuant to The Trustee Act, 2009”.

Section 43 amended

32(1) Subsection 43(8.5) is amended by adding “, or proxy or personal guardian, if any,” after “nearest relative”.

(2) Subsection 43(12) is amended by striking out “facility” and substituting “mental health centre”.

(3) Subsection 43(12.1) is amended by striking out “in-patient facility” wherever it appears and in each case substituting “mental health centre”.

(4) The following subsection is added after subsection 43(14):

“(14.1) An appeal to a review panel pursuant to section 24.1 of the Act is to be in Form N.1”.

(5) Subsection 43(15) is amended by adding “or other person designated by the officer in charge” after “physician”.

Transitional - patients' trust accounts

34(1) In this section, “former district health board” means a district health board that was amalgamated into or continued as a regional health authority pursuant to section 14 of The Regional Health Services Act.

(2) Any assets and liabilities of an individual patient in any of the patients' trust accounts established by a former district health board are transferred to and become the assets and liabilities of the individual patient in the patients' trust account established pursuant to section 32.1 by the regional health authority that operates the mental health centres previously operated as in-patient facilities by the former district health board.

(3) All patients' trust accounts established by a former district health board cease to exist as of the day on which section 28 of The Mental Health Services Amendment Regulations, 2015 comes into force.

Transitional - operators of approved homes

35(1) Subject to subsection (2), all certificates approving persons as operators of approved homes issued by the director that are valid on the day before the coming into force of The Mental Health Services Amendment Regulations, 2015 are deemed to be licences and may be dealt with pursuant to these regulations as if they had been issued pursuant to these regulations.

(2) If the operator of a mental health approved home operating pursuant to a deemed licence mentioned in subsection (1) intends to continue to operate the home but does not meet a requirement as set out in sections 29 to 30.95 and the regional director is satisfied that the non-compliance does not constitute an unsafe condition for the residents of the mental health approved home, the operator may continue to operate the home but must remedy the non-compliance before the day on which the deemed licence expires.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, an operator is not required to be in compliance with section 30.71 if the mental health approved home:

(a) was certified as an approved home pursuant The Mental Health Services Act on the day before the day on which The Mental Health Services Amendment Regulations, 2015 came into force; and

(b) met the requirements of section 30 of The Mental Health Services Regulations, as that section existed on the day before the day on which The Mental Health Services Amendment Regulations, 2015 came into force.

Coming into force

36(1) Subject to subsection (2), these regulations come into force on the day on which section 1 of The Mental Health Services Amendment Act, 2014 comes into force.

(2) If section 1 of The Mental Health Services Amendment Act, 2014 comes into force before the day on which these regulations are filed with the Registrar of Regulations, these regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.
