CHAPTER 33

An Act to amend The Traffic Safety Act and to make a consequential amendment to The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

(Assented to November 19, 2015)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Traffic Safety (Miscellaneous Measures) Amendment Act, 2015.

S.S. 2004, c.T-18.1 amended

2 The Traffic Safety Act is amended in the manner set forth in this Act.

New section 40.1

3 The following section is added after section 40:

“Facial recognition to verify person

40.1(1) In this section, ‘facial recognition software’ means software that measures the unique invariable characteristics of a person’s face.

(2) Without limiting the use of other means of identity verification, the administrator may use facial recognition software for the purposes of this section.

(3) The administrator may only use facial recognition software:

(a) to verify or confirm the identity of a person when:

(i) the person applies for a driver’s licence or photo identification card;

(ii) the person renews his or her driver’s licence or photo identification card; or

(iii) the photograph of the person that is located on a driver’s licence or photo identification card is changed by the administrator or at the request of the person; or

(b) to take any other action or make any other decision that involves the exercise of its powers or the fulfilment of its responsibilities pursuant to this Act where the identity of a person is a concern.

- (4) The administrator shall:
- (a) not use facial recognition software to form the basis of any action or decision of the administrator except as permitted by this section; and
 - (b) not make available its facial recognition software or information obtained from using its facial recognition software to any other person, agency, organization, association, institution or body within or outside Saskatchewan, including any police service, ministry of the Government of Saskatchewan or Crown corporation unless required to do so by a warrant or court order obtained by or on behalf of a police service for the purpose of prosecuting a person pursuant to:
 - (i) this Act; or
 - (ii) the Criminal Code for identity theft or identity fraud.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or the regulations, the administrator may refuse to issue, refuse to renew, cancel or suspend a person's driver's licence, photo identification card, certificate of registration or registration permit until that person can establish his or her identity to the satisfaction of the administrator if the administrator:
- (a) is unable to confirm or establish the identity of the person; or
 - (b) has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has represented himself or herself as another person".
