“DIVISION 3
Calculation of Royalty

“Calculation of royalty

31.6 The royalty payment to be made pursuant to Part IV by the royalty payer is the amount A calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = B + C$$

where:

B is the basic royalty payable; and

C is the profit royalty payable.

“Basic royalty

31.7 The basic royalty is:

(a) for the month in which commercial production begins and the 59 months following that month, zero; and

(b) for the months subsequent to the period mentioned in clause (a), 1% of the royalty payer’s gross value of the output of diamonds as calculated in accordance with section 31.9.

“Profit royalty

31.8 The profit royalty is the sum of:

- (a) for a net value of the output of diamonds amounts less than or equal to $10,000, zero;
- (b) for a net value of the output of diamonds amounts greater than $10,000 and less than $20 million, 5% of the royalty payer’s net value of the output;
- (c) for a net value of the output of diamonds amounts equal to or greater than $20 million and less than $40 million, 7.5% of the royalty payer’s net value of the output; and
- (d) for a net value of the output of diamonds amounts equal to or greater than $40 million, 10% of the royalty payer’s net value of the output.

“Gross value of the output

31.9(1) The amount of the gross value of the output of diamonds for a year is the amount GV determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$GV = A + B - C$$

where:

A is the total of:

- (a) the proceeds from sales during the year of diamonds produced as part of the output of the production unit to persons not related to the royalty payer, if satisfactory evidence of those sales is provided to the minister; and
- (b) the fair market value of any diamonds produced as part of the output of the production unit that were otherwise sold, removed, consumed or transferred from the production unit during the year;

B is the fair market value as of the end of the year of any inventories of diamonds produced as part of the output of the production unit; and

C is the fair market value as of the beginning of the year of any inventories of diamonds produced as part of the output of the production unit.

(2) In the case of a diamond royalty return for the year of termination of production for a production unit, the royalty payer may, for the purposes of determining the value of B in subsection (1) for that year, elect to use the actual proceeds from the sale of its inventories of diamonds after the end of that year, instead of the fair market value of the inventories of diamonds at the end of that year, but only to the extent that the diamonds were sold to persons not related to the royalty payer and satisfactory evidence of the sales has been provided to the minister.

- (3) Any election made pursuant to subsection (2):
- (a) must be made and reported at the time the royalty return is due pursuant to section 33 or 34; and
 - (b) is irrevocable.
- (4) If the royalty payer elects to report using the actual proceeds from the sale of its inventories of diamonds after the end of the year of termination of production for the production unit, all diamond royalties due pursuant to that election must be reported and paid within one year following the end of the year of termination of production.

“Net value of the output

31.91(1) The amount of the net value of the output of a production unit for a year is the amount NV determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$NV = GV + D + E + F + G + H - I - J + K$$

where:

GV is the gross value of the output of diamonds determined in accordance with section 31.9;

D is the lesser of:

- (a) the amount of any payment received during the year that is related to a cost that has been claimed as a deduction or an allowance, other than an amount previously deducted in determining an undeducted balance; and
- (b) the amount of the cost mentioned in clause (a);

E is the amount of any excess determined pursuant to clause 31.92(4)(b) for the year;

G is the amount of any proceeds received during the year from insurance on diamonds produced as part of the output of the production unit;

H is the amount of any:

- (a) grants with respect to the production unit that were made to the royalty payer by the Government of Saskatchewan or the Government of Canada during the year; and
- (b) loans to the royalty payer with respect to the production unit that were forgiven by the Government of Saskatchewan or the Government of Canada during the year;

I is, subject to subsection (2), the amount of net losses in the 10 preceding years, if any, less the amounts previously deducted by the royalty payer pursuant to this section;

J is the total of the amounts claimed pursuant to subsection 31.92(1);
