(2) The minister may enter into agreements with any person, firm or corporation for the provision by the person, firm or corporation of inspection or other services pursuant to this Act.

(3) Any person who is authorized by the minister in an agreement entered into pursuant to subsection (2) to provide inspection services is deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been appointed a building official pursuant to subsection (1).

(4) A local authority may appoint persons who hold a building official's licence as building officials.

(5) Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.5.

(6) The municipal official of a local authority shall issue a certificate of appointment bearing his or her signature to every building official appointed by the local authority pursuant to subsection (4).

1993, c.18, s.5; 1998, c.P-42.1, s.42.

Building officials' licences

5.1(1) The chief building official may issue a building official's licence to a person who:

(a) demonstrates in the prescribed manner that the person is qualified to perform the duties of a building official; and

(b) pays the prescribed fee.

(2) A licence pursuant to subsection (1):

(a) may be issued for a limited period; and

(b) may impose terms, conditions and restrictions on the duties that may be performed by the licensee.

1993, c.18, s.6.

Saskatchewan Building and Accessibility Standards Appeal Board established

6(1) The Saskatchewan Building and Accessibility Standards Appeal Board is continued consisting of not more than eight persons who are residents of Saskatchewan appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

- (1.1) A member of the appeal board:
 - (a) holds office at pleasure and until a successor is appointed; and
 - (b) is eligible for reappointment.
- (2) The appeal board shall:
 - (a) hear and determine appeals made pursuant to section 12 or 18;
 - (b) advise the minister on matters concerning the administration of this Act and the regulations; and
 - (c) perform any other duties that the minister may direct.
- (3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council shall designate a chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary to the appeal board.
- (4) The chairperson, or in his or her absence the vice-chairperson, shall preside at the meetings of the appeal board, or if both the chairperson and vice-chairperson are absent, the chairperson shall designate a member of the appeal board to preside at the meetings of the appeal board.
- (5) The chairperson, vice-chairperson or member presiding at a meeting of the appeal board has a casting vote in the event of a tie vote with respect to any issue or question to be determined by the appeal board.
- (6) Three members of the appeal board constitutes a quorum.
- (7) The appeal board may establish rules of procedure respecting the hearing of appeals before it and has the powers conferred on a commission by sections 11, 15 and 25 of The Public Inquiries Act, 2013.
- (8) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:
 - (a) prescribing the amount of a deposit required for an appeal to the appeal board;
 - (b) governing recourse to a deposit required for an appeal;
 - (c) governing the refund of a deposit or any part of a deposit required for an appeal.

PART II
Building StandardsApplication of Part

7(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the owner of each building in Saskatchewan shall ensure that the building is designed, constructed, erected, placed, altered, repaired, renovated, demolished, relocated, removed, used or occupied in accordance with the building standards.

(2) The building standards do not apply to:

(a) a building on which construction was commenced or completed prior to the coming into force of this section, but the building standards do apply to an alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal or change of use or occupancy of such a building;

(b) a building on which construction was not commenced but for which a building permit was issued prior to the coming into force of this section pursuant to a bylaw of the appropriate local authority, but the building standards do apply to an alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal or change of use or occupancy of such a building;

(c) a farm building;

(d) any building or class of buildings or to any materials, equipment, protection devices or appliances or class of materials, equipment, protection devices or appliances that are exempted from the application of this Part in the regulations.

(3) Notwithstanding clause (2)(c) but subject to sections 23.1 and 24.2:

(a) if a rural municipality passes a bylaw declaring that the building standards apply to buildings in all or a part of the rural municipality, the building standards apply to the buildings described in the bylaw; and

(b) if a city, town, village or resort village passes a bylaw declaring that the building standards apply to farm buildings in the municipality, the building standards apply to the farm buildings described in the bylaw.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.7; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.4; 2012, c.34, s.3.

Regulations re building standards

8(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:

(a) prescribing standards for any materials, equipment, protection devices or appliances used or installed in the design, construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of any building;

(b) prescribing standards for any materials, equipment, protection devices or appliances that are to be used or installed in a building or class of buildings;

(c) governing standards for the use or installation of any materials, equipment, protection devices or appliances in a building or class of buildings;

- (d) prohibiting the use or installation of any materials, equipment, protection devices or appliances in a building or class of buildings;
 - (e) classifying buildings according to their use or occupancy;
 - (f) governing standards for methods used in the construction or demolition of any building or any class of buildings with respect to public safety;
 - (g) governing the construction standards that are to be met with respect to any building or class of building;
 - (h) governing standards for the use of the property on which a building is located during the period of time that the construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal or change of occupancy of the building is taking place;
 - (i) generally providing for standards for any other matter in connection with the design, construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of a building;
 - (j) prescribing and governing the duties of owners and their agents, contractors, employees, successors and assigns and the registered owners of lands on which buildings are situated in relation to the design, construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of buildings;
 - (j.1) prescribing and governing duties to be carried out by local authorities in fulfilling their responsibilities pursuant to section 4;
 - (k) respecting any other matter or thing that he considers necessary to carry out the provisions of this Part.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:
- (a) declaring that all or any part of a prescribed edition of the National Building Code of Canada, as amended from time to time or otherwise, is in force;
 - (b) declaring that all or part of any other code of standards respecting materials, equipment or appliances used or installed in the construction or demolition of a building, as amended from time to time or otherwise, is in force;
 - (c) amending, repealing or replacing any provision of a code declared to be in force pursuant to clause (a) or (b).

Additional building standards

8.1(1) Subject to section 23.1, a local authority may pass bylaws prescribing building standards in addition to the building standards contained in the regulations pursuant to section 8 where the authority considers the bylaws necessary for the health, safety or welfare of persons.

(2) Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.9.

(3) Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.9.

1989-90, c.62, s.7; 1993, c.18, s.9.

PART III Accessibility Standards

Interpretation of Part

9 In this Part, “building area” means the greatest horizontal area of a building above grade within the outside surface of exterior walls.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.9; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.6.

Application of Part

10(1) Subject to subsection (2), the owner of each building in Saskatchewan shall ensure that the building meets the accessibility standards.

(2) The accessibility standards do not apply to:

(a) a building on which construction was commenced or completed prior to the coming into force of this section, but the accessibility standards do apply to an alteration, renovation or change of occupancy of such a building;

(b) a building on which construction was not commenced but for which a building permit was issued prior to the coming into force of this section, but the accessibility standards do apply to an alteration, renovation or change of occupancy of such a building;

(c) a farm building;

(d) to (f) Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.10.

(g) any building or class of buildings that is exempted from the application of this Part by the regulations.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.10; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.7;
1993, c.18, s.10.

Regulations re accessibility standards

11(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:

(a) prescribing classes of buildings, grounds or facilities;

(b) prescribing accessibility standards requiring the combination of various elements of the built environment to allow entrance to, egress from and use of buildings, grounds and facilities or any class of buildings, grounds or facilities by the physically disabled;

- (c) respecting any other matter or thing that he considers necessary to carry out the provisions of this Part.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:
 - (a) declaring that all or any part of a prescribed edition of the National Building Code of Canada, as amended from time to time or otherwise, is in force;
 - (b) declaring that all or part of any other code of standards respecting accessibility, as amended from time to time or otherwise, is in force;
 - (c) amending, repealing or replacing any provision of a code declared to be in force pursuant to clause (a) or (b).

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.11; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.8;
1993, c.18, s.11.

11.1 Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.12.

11.2 Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.12.

Exemption from accessibility standards

12(1) An owner of a building or proposed building may apply to the appeal board for an order exempting the owner from compliance with all or part of the accessibility standards by:

- (a) filing a written notice of the application with the chief building official;
 - (b) submitting to the chief building official all substantiating information considered necessary by the chief building official; and
 - (c) placing a deposit in the prescribed amount with the chief building official.
- (2) Within 30 days after all of the things described in clauses (1)(a) to (c) have been done, the appeal board shall conduct a hearing, consider the matter and render its decision in writing.
- (3) The appeal board may grant an order exempting the owner of a building or proposed building from compliance with all or any part of the accessibility standards to the extent and on the conditions that the appeal board considers necessary where the appeal board is satisfied that:
- (a) compliance with the accessibility standards would cause the owner undue hardship;
 - (b) compliance with the accessibility standards would prevent optimum utilization of land by the owner;
 - (c) compliance with the accessibility standards is, in the opinion of the appeal board, impractical or inappropriate; or
 - (d) a proposal submitted by the owner will provide accessibility that is equal to or better than that which is required or intended by the accessibility standards.

- (3.1) An order pursuant to subsection (3) must be in writing and must be served on the owner by registered mail addressed to the owner at his or her last known address.
- (4) Within 30 days after service of the order, an owner aggrieved by the order may appeal the order to a judge of the court on a question of law alone.
- (5) The decision of a judge pursuant to subsection (4) is final.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.12; 1993, c.18, s.13.

PART IV Permits

Regulations re permits

13 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations:

- (a) prohibiting the commencement by any person of construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of any building unless that person is authorized by a permit to do so;
- (b) providing for the form and content of permits for the construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of a building;
- (c) providing for the issuance of permits;
- (d) providing for the circumstances in which a permit may be revoked;
- (e) prescribing the terms and conditions on which a permit may be granted;
- (f) prescribing the fees to be charged for the issuing of a permit;
- (g) requiring an applicant for a permit to demolish or remove a building to furnish a deposit, prescribing the amount of the deposit and governing recourse to the deposit and any refund of the deposit.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.13; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.9;
1993, c.18, s.14.

Bylaws re permits

14(1) Subject to section 23.1, a local authority may make bylaws with respect to the matters set out in section 13.

(2) to (4) Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.15.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.14; 1993, c.18, s.15.

Effect of permit

15 A permit issued in accordance with this Part does not authorize any person to construct a building that does not comply with the provisions of any other Act or law.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.15.

PART V
Enforcement

Powers of building official

16(1) Notwithstanding any other Act, for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Act or the regulations or the conditions of a permit, a building official may:

- (a) at any reasonable hour, enter a building;
 - (b) be accompanied into a building by a person having special or expert knowledge on any matter to which this Act or the regulations relate;
 - (c) order the production of a register, certificate, plan or other document relating in any manner to the design, construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of a building and may examine and make copies of the document;
 - (d) inspect and take samples of any material, equipment or appliance being used in the design, construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of a building.
- (2) If a person refuses to allow a building official to exercise, or interferes or attempts to interfere with a building official in the exercise of, a power described in subsection (1), the minister or the local authority that appointed the building official may apply to a judge of the court for an order restraining that person from preventing or interfering in any manner with the building official in the exercise of his powers.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.16; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.10;
1993, c.18, s.16.

Orders of building official

17(1) A building official who finds that the building standards or accessibility standards are being contravened may, by notice in writing specifying the nature of the contravention, order the owner of the building or his agents, contractors, employees, successors or assigns or the registered owner of the land on which the building is situated, within the time prescribed in the notice, to:

- (a) comply with the general or specific conditions prescribed in the notice;
- (b) take any measures prescribed in the notice;
- (c) follow the methods of construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use or occupancy prescribed in the notice;
- (d) use or stop using the materials, equipment, protection, devices or appliances described in the notice;

- (e) stop the construction, erection, placement, alteration, repair, renovation, demolition, relocation, removal, use, occupancy or change of occupancy of a building in whole or in part as directed by the notice until any conditions prescribed in the notice are, in the building official's opinion, fulfilled;
 - (f) do any combination of the things described in clauses (a) to (e).
- (2) A building official may, by notice in writing, order the owner of a building, or his agents, contractors, employees, successors or assigns or the registered owner of the land on which the building is or is to be situated, within the time prescribed in the notice, to:
- (a) satisfy the building official by means of:
 - (i) having tests made;
 - (ii) furnishing a letter written by an architect or engineer certifying that the building meets the requirements of the building standards; or
 - (iii) furnishing other evidence;at the expense of the owner, that the foundation conditions or any materials, equipment, devices, construction methods or structural assemblies used or to be used meet the requirements of the building standards;
 - (b) submit a plan or plans prepared by a land surveyor, engineer or architect, as is appropriate to the work, containing sufficient information regarding the site and location of the building to establish before construction begins that all requirements of the building standards relating to or dependent on the site, location and ground levels will be met if the building is constructed in accordance with the plan or plans;
 - (c) verify, after completion of construction, that the requirements mentioned in clause (a) have been met; or
 - (d) do all or any combination of the actions described in clauses (a) to (c).
- (3) A building official may, by notice in writing, order the owner of a building or his agents, contractors, employees, successors or assigns, within the time prescribed in the notice, to uncover and replace at the expense of the owner any work that has been enclosed contrary to a written order of a building official.
- (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a building official who is satisfied that a building, whether commenced or completed before or after the coming into force of this Act, is in an unsafe condition because of:
- (a) its faulty construction;
 - (b) its ruinous or dilapidated state;
 - (c) its abandonment;
 - (d) its open or unguarded condition; or
 - (e) any other reason;

may, by notice in writing, order the owner of the building or his agents, contractors, employees, successors or assigns or the registered owner of the land on which the building is situated, within the time prescribed in the notice, to take any steps prescribed in the notice that the building official considers necessary to eliminate the unsafe condition.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if a building official is satisfied that a building, whether commenced or completed before or after the coming into force of this Act, is in such a condition that it constitutes an imminent danger to the safety of occupants or the public, a building official or a person appointed by the appropriate local authority may enter the land or the building and do, or cause to be done, any acts that the building official or appropriate local authority considers necessary to eliminate the danger, and subsections 21(2) and (3) apply, with any necessary modification, to the expenses incurred in eliminating a danger pursuant to this section.

(6) The owner of a building or the owner's agents, contractors, employees, successors or assigns or the registered owner of the land on which the building is situated shall submit to the appropriate local authority a report of the occurrence of:

- (a) structural failure of the building or part of the building; or
- (b) failure of any equipment, device or appliance that is regulated by this Act or the regulations; that causes or has the potential to cause serious injury or loss of life.

(7) A report submitted pursuant to subsection (6) is to contain:

- (a) the name and address of the owner;
- (b) the address or location of the building involved in the failure;
- (c) the name and address of the constructor of the building;
- (d) the nature of the failure; and
- (e) any other information that the building official or appropriate local authority may require.

 - (i) the constructor or other person in charge of the work;
 - (ii) the designer of the work;
 - (iii) the person or firm that is to review the work to determine whether or not the construction conforms to the design;
 - (iv) any inspection or testing agency that is engaged to monitor the work.
- (3) During the course of construction, the owner shall give notice to the appropriate local authority of:
- (a) any change in, or termination of, the employment of a person or firm mentioned in clause (2)(b);
 - (b) his intent to do any work that has been ordered by a building official or local authority to be inspected during construction;
 - (c) his intent to enclose work that has been ordered by a building official or local authority to be inspected prior to enclosure; and
 - (d) the completion of work.
- (4) Notice given pursuant to clause (2)(b) or (3)(a) is to be in writing.
- (5) The owner of a building under construction shall give notice in writing to the appropriate local authority of:
- (a) any change in ownership or change in address of the owner that occurs prior to the issuance of an occupancy permit as soon as the change occurs; and
 - (b) his intention to occupy a portion of the building if the building is to be occupied in stages.
- (6) Repealed. 1993, c.18, s.19.

1986-87-88, c.60, s.12; 1993, c.18, s.19.

Appeal to appeal board

- 18(1) An owner of a building may appeal an order made pursuant to section 17 within 15 days after service of the order on the owner by:
- (a) filing a written notice of the appeal with the chief building official;
 - (b) submitting to the chief building official all substantiating information considered necessary by the chief building official; and
 - (c) placing a deposit in the prescribed amount with the chief building official.

- (2) Within 30 days after all of the things described in clauses (1)(a) to (c) have been done, the appeal board shall conduct a hearing, consider the matter and render its decision in writing.
- (3) On an appeal of an order made pursuant to subsection 17(1) or (2), the appeal board shall make an order:
 - (a) confirming the order appealed against where the appeal board is satisfied that compliance with the order would result in compliance with the building standards or the accessibility standards; or
 - (b) revoking or varying all or any part of the order appealed against where the appeal board is satisfied that:
 - (i) compliance with the order would not result in compliance with the building standards or the accessibility standards; or
 - (ii) a proposal submitted by the owner will result in conditions that are equal to or better than those that are required or intended by the building standards or the accessibility standards.
- (4) On an appeal of an order made pursuant to subsection 17(3), the appeal board shall make an order:
 - (a) confirming the order appealed against where the appeal board is satisfied that the building official's order was reasonable in the circumstances;
 - (b) revoking the order appealed against where the appeal board is satisfied that the order was not necessary to bring about compliance with the building standards or the accessibility standards; or
 - (c) varying the order appealed against where, in the opinion of the appeal board, sufficient cause is established.
- (5) On an appeal of an order made pursuant to subsection 17(4), the appeal board shall make an order:
 - (a) confirming the order appealed against where the appeal board is satisfied that an unsafe condition exists and that the steps prescribed in the order are necessary to eliminate the unsafe condition;
 - (b) revoking the order appealed against where the appeal board is satisfied that:
 - (i) an unsafe condition does not exist; or
 - (ii) the steps prescribed in the order are not necessary to eliminate the unsafe condition; or
 - (c) varying the order appealed against where, in the opinion of the appeal board, sufficient cause is established.

- (6) An order pursuant to subsection (3), (4) or (5):
- (a) may be made subject to any conditions that the appeal board considers necessary;
 - (b) must be in writing; and
 - (c) must be served on the owner by registered mail addressed to the owner at his or her last known address.

1993, c.18, s.20.

Appeal to judge

19(1) Within 30 days after service of an order of the appeal board pursuant to section 18, an owner aggrieved by the order may appeal the order to a judge of the court on a question of law alone.

- (2) The decision of a judge pursuant to subsection (1) is final.

1993, c.18, s.20.

Effect of appeal

20(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the appeal board, an appeal pursuant to section 18 does not operate as a stay of the order of a building official.

- (2) Unless otherwise ordered by a judge of the court, an appeal pursuant to section 19 does not operate as a stay of the decision of the appeal board.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.20; 1993, c.18, s.21.

Execution of order

21(1) If a person does not comply with an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18 within the time specified in the order, a building official or a person appointed by the appropriate local authority may enter the land or the building and do, or cause to be done, any acts that the building official or the local authority considers necessary to carry out the order.

- (1.1) The minister or the chief building official may take any action authorized by subsection (1) or subsection 17(5) on behalf of a local authority where:

- (a) it is requested by a local authority or considered necessary by the minister; and
- (b) the minister considers that inaction by the local authority will result in a danger to public safety.

(2) The minister may certify to the municipal official of the appropriate local authority within which a building is situated the amount of any expenses incurred in carrying out an order pursuant to subsection (1.1) and the municipality shall immediately pay to the minister the amount of those expenses.

(3) Any money paid or expended by a local authority pursuant to this section is a debt due and owing by the owner and may be added to the tax payable on the property and collected in the same manner as taxes on the property.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.21; 1986-87-88, c.60, s.14;
1993, c.18, s.22.

Administrative penalties

21.1(1) The chief building official may assess a penalty against a person for contraventions of this Act or the regulations or for failure to comply with an order made pursuant to this Act if the chief building official:

- (a) is requested by a local authority to assess a penalty; or
 - (b) considers the penalty necessary.
- (2) The penalty may consist of:
- (a) a single monetary amount not exceeding $5,000;
 - (b) a daily amount not exceeding $1,000 for each day the infraction continues;
or
 - (c) a combination of clauses (a) and (b).
- (3) Before assessing a penalty, the chief building official shall provide notice to the person:
- (a) setting out the facts and circumstances that, in the chief building official's opinion, render the person liable to a penalty;
 - (b) specifying the amount of the penalty that the chief building official considers appropriate in the circumstances; and
 - (c) informing the person of the person's right to make representations to the chief building official.
- (4) No penalty is to be assessed by the chief building official more than three years after the act or omission that renders the person liable to a penalty first came to the knowledge of the chief building official.
- (5) A person to whom notice is sent pursuant to subsection (3) may make representations to the chief building official respecting whether a penalty should be assessed and the amount of any penalty.
- (6) Representations pursuant to subsection (5) must be made within 30 days after the person received the notice.
- (7) After considering any representations, the chief building official may:
- (a) assess a penalty in the amount set out in the notice and set a date by which the penalty is to be paid in full;
 - (b) assess a revised penalty and set a date by which the penalty is to be paid in full; or
 - (c) determine that no penalty should be assessed.
- (8) The chief building official shall serve a copy of the decision pursuant to subsection (7), with reasons, on the person who made the representations.
- (9) The chief building official may assess a penalty pursuant to this section notwithstanding that the facts and circumstances giving rise to the penalty arose due to the actions of an employee, helper, contractor or agent of the person required to pay the penalty.

(10) If a corporation commits a contravention mentioned in subsection (1), the chief building official may, in accordance with this section, assess a penalty against an officer, director or other person of the corporation who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the contravention, even though the corporation is liable for or pays an administrative penalty.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Enforcement of administrative penalty

21.2(1) The chief building official may file in the Court of Queen's Bench a certificate signed by the chief building official and setting out:

- (a) the amount of the penalty assessed pursuant to subsection 21.1(7); and
- (b) the person from whom the penalty is to be recovered.

(2) A certificate filed pursuant to this section has the same force and effect as if it were a judgment obtained in the Court of Queen's Bench for the recovery of a debt in the amount set out in the certificate, together with reasonable costs and charges with respect to its filing.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Appeal to Court of Queen's Bench re administrative penalty

21.3(1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the chief building official to assess a penalty against that person pursuant to section 21.1 may appeal that decision on a question of law to a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench within 30 days after the date of service of the chief building official's decision.

(2) The record of an appeal pursuant to subsection (1) consists of:

- (a) the chief building official's decision;
- (b) any written representations made to the chief building official by the person named in the decision;
- (c) the notice of motion commencing the appeal;
- (d) any other prescribed documents or material; and
- (e) any other material that the Court of Queen's Bench may require.

(3) On hearing an appeal pursuant to this section, the judge of the Court of Queen's Bench may issue an order:

- (a) confirming the penalty;
- (b) amending the amount of the penalty; or
- (c) quashing the chief building official's decision to assess a penalty.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Discipline order

21.4(1) The chief building official may issue a discipline order pursuant to this section against any person who:

- (a) is in contravention of this Act and its regulations;
 - (b) fails to comply with a compliance order pursuant to section 17; or
 - (c) fails to comply with a term or condition of a permit.
- (2) A discipline order mentioned in subsection (1) must:
- (a) be in writing and in the form approved by the minister;
 - (b) contain a description of the action to be undertaken by the person;
 - (c) cite the contravened provision of this Act or of the regulations;
 - (d) subject to subsection (4), require the person to undertake the action within a period specified in the order that is not less than 30 days from the time the person receives the order; and
 - (e) be served on the person to whom the order is directed as soon as is practicable after it is issued.
- (3) The penalty may consist of any sanction the chief building official considers necessary, including the following:
- (a) that specified training or education be completed within a specified period;
 - (b) that any other action by a person be taken, modified or stopped if necessary to prevent, avoid or reduce risk of personal injury or damage to property;
 - (c) that reports on any of the actions listed in the discipline order be made to the chief building official.
- (4) For the purposes of clause (2)(d), if the action requires ongoing reporting to the chief building official, the discipline order must set a period of not more than one year in which the reporting of the action must be completed.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Appeal to chief building official

21.5(1) A person who is subject to an order pursuant to section 21.4 may, within 15 days after being served with the order, appeal the order to the chief building official.

- (2) An appeal pursuant to this section must be made by filing the notice of appeal with the chief building official.
- (3) The notice of appeal mentioned in subsection (2) must:
- (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) set out the reasons for the appeal.
- (4) The chief building official shall consider the appeal within 30 days after the notice of appeal is filed with the chief building official and may confirm, modify or revoke the order being appealed.

(5) The chief building official shall cause a copy of the chief building official's decision, with reasons, to be served on the appellant as soon as is practicable after the decision is made.

(6) An appeal made pursuant to this section does not operate as a stay of the decision being appealed unless the chief building official, on an application by the appellant, decides otherwise.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Public notice

21.6 Notice of administrative penalties, discipline orders, court-ordered compliance, revocation of a permit, or any other orders made pursuant to this Act may be published in any manner that the minister considers necessary to protect the public, including posting the notice on the ministry's website.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Offence and penalty

22(1) No person shall:

- (a) contravene this Act, the regulations or a bylaw passed pursuant to this Act;
 - (b) fail to comply with an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18; or
 - (c) obstruct or hinder a building official in the performance of the building official's duties pursuant to this Act or the regulations.
- (2) Every person who contravenes any provision of subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction:
- (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine of not more than $25,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of not more than $5,000 for each day or part of a day during which the offence continues; and
 - (b) in the case of a corporation, to a fine of not more than $200,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of not more than $20,000 for each day during which the offence continues.
- (3) If a person is found guilty of contravening any provision of subsection (1), the convicting judge may, in addition to any other penalty imposed, order the person to do any act or work, within the time specified by the judge in the order.
- (4) A person to whom an order is given pursuant to subsection (3) who fails to comply with the decision, order or directive within the specified period is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction:
- (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine of not more than $5,000 for each day during which the non-compliance continues; and
 - (b) in the case of a corporation, to a fine of not more than $10,000 for each day during which the non-compliance continues.

2019, c 13, s.9.

Court order

23(1) The minister or a local authority, as the case may be, may apply to a judge of the court for an order described in subsection (3) if a person:

- (a) fails to comply with an order directed to that person pursuant to section 17 or 18 within the time specified in the order;
- (b) refuses to allow a building official or a person appointed by the local authority to carry out pursuant to section 21 an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18;
- (c) interferes with or attempts to interfere with the carrying out of an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18; or
- (d) demonstrates the intent to contravene an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18.

(2) An application may be made pursuant to subsection (1) whether or not the person has been prosecuted.

(3) On an application pursuant to subsection (1), a judge of the court may grant an order requiring the person:

- (a) to comply with the order made pursuant to section 17 or 18;
- (b) to refrain from interfering in any manner with the carrying out of an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18; or
- (c) to refrain from contravening an order made pursuant to section 17 or 18.

1993, c.18, s.24.

PART VI
Miscellaneous

Submission of bylaws for approval

23.1(1) A local authority shall file two certified true copies of any bylaw or amending bylaw made pursuant to this Act with the minister within 30 days after its enactment.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), copies of bylaws are to be certified by the official of a local authority who is authorized to certify copies of bylaws by:

- (a) the Act by which the local authority is established or continued; or
- (b) any other Act that confers bylaw-making authority on the local authority.

(3) Within 60 days after the filing of a bylaw or an amending bylaw pursuant to subsection (1):

- (a) where the minister is of the opinion that the bylaw does not conflict with this Act or the regulations, the minister shall approve the bylaw;
- (b) where the minister is of the opinion that the bylaw conflicts with this Act or the regulations, the minister shall not approve the bylaw;

- (c) where the minister is of the opinion that a part of the bylaw conflicts with this Act or the regulations but that a part of the bylaw does not conflict with the Act or the regulations and is severable from the part of the bylaw that conflicts with the Act or the regulations, the minister shall approve the bylaw in part; or
 - (d) approve the bylaw on the condition that the council effects amendments to it that, in the opinion of the minister, do not materially affect the bylaw in principle or substance.
- (4) Where the minister issues an approval or an approval in part, the bylaw or the approved parts of the bylaw come into force on the date of approval.
- (5) Where the minister issues a conditional approval:
- (a) the bylaw comes into force on the date of approval except for the part that requires further amendment; and
 - (b) the council shall submit the amended bylaw to the minister for approval, and subsections (1) to (4) apply, with any necessary modification, to the amended bylaw.
- (6) Where the minister does not issue an approval, an approval in part or a conditional approval of a bylaw, the bylaw is void.
- (7) Where a bylaw that is approved pursuant to this section deals with the same subject-matter as a regulation made pursuant to section 13, the bylaw supersedes the regulation.

1993, c.18, s.25; 2015, c.21, s.64.

Certain bylaws in conflict, void in part

24 Subject to sections 8.1 and 14, a bylaw that is passed pursuant to section 8 of The Cities Act, section 8 of The Municipalities Act or section 8 of The Northern Municipalities Act, 2010 and that conflicts with this Act or the regulations is void to the extent of the conflict.

2005, c.M-36.1, s.475; 2010, c.N-5.2, s.471.

Bylaws re construction etc. of buildings

24.1 Where a local authority proposes to pass bylaws after Part IV comes into force with respect to any matters set out in section 13, it shall:

- (a) pass bylaws only pursuant to subsection 14(1) for the purpose; and
- (b) not pass bylaws in that respect pursuant to any other Act.

1989-90, c.62, s.9.

Application of building standards pursuant to rural municipality resolution

24.2(1) In this section, “former provision” means subsection 7(3) of this Act as that subsection read before the coming into force of The Uniform Building and Accessibility Standards Amendment Act, 2012.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the former provision and the regulations made pursuant to the former provision, until the rural municipality passes a bylaw in accordance with clause 7(3)(a), the building standards prescribed pursuant to section 8 continue to apply to the buildings and to each rural municipality named in the regulations made pursuant to the former provision.

(3) If a rural municipality passed a resolution in accordance with the former provision before the coming into force of The Uniform Building and Accessibility Standards Amendment Act, 2012 but the Lieutenant Governor in Council did not pass a regulation in accordance with the former provision ordering the building standards to apply in accordance with that resolution, the resolution is of no force and effect.

2012, c.34, s.4.

Act deemed not to lessen responsibility

25 No provision of this Act or the regulations is deemed to annul or lessen the responsibility of a person for damages with respect to a person killed or injured or any property destroyed or damaged.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.25.

No proceedings against minister, etc.

26 No action or proceeding lies against the minister, the department, any employee of the department, the appeal board, a local authority or a building official for any matter or thing done or omitted to be done by any of them in good faith and with reasonable care or in exercising their powers or carrying out their duties under this Act or the regulations.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.26; 1993, c.18, s.26.

Service of documents by registered mail

26.1 A document served by registered mail is deemed to have been received on the fifth day following the day of its mailing, unless the person to whom it was mailed establishes that, through no fault of that person, the person did not receive the document or received it at a later date.

1993, c.18, s.27.

Regulations

27 For the purpose of carrying out this Act according to its intent, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing any matter or thing that is required or authorized by this Act to be prescribed in the regulations.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.27.

Coming into force

28 This Act or any provision of this Act comes into force on a day or days to be fixed by proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor.

1983-84, c.U-1.2, s.28.
