CHAPTER H-6.1 REG 1
The Horse Racing Commission Act

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Horse Racing Commission Employee Designation Regulations.

Designation

2(1) In this section, “permanent employee” means a person who:

- (a) is permanently employed by the commission;
- (b) is required, during the hours or period of his active employment to devote his constant attention to the duties of his position; and
- (c) is precluded as a condition of his employment for the period or periods of the year over which the employment extends from engaging in any other substantially gainful service or occupation.

(2) All permanent employees of the Horse Racing Commission are hereby designated as a class of employees to whom The Superannuation (Supplementary Provisions) Act applies.
